The Richmond Hill Liberals were particularly well satisfied with the result of the voting on Monday. In 1904, the majority in this village for Mr. Pugsley, Conservative, was 36. That majority, on Monday, was changed to 16 in favor of Dr. McLean, the Liberal standard-bearer.

day evening, Dec. 31st. Song service for 15 minutes will begin at 10. 30 p.m. prepared. The meeting will close a few minutes after the midnight hour.

In spite of the wet, snowy evening the S. S. Xmas Tree and entertainment at Headford was all that could be desired. The programme was choice and well-rendered. Santa Clans remembered everybody, not omitting the preacher's goose. Nothing can damp the ardor of the Headford young people-or older ones either.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of the popular Elliott Business College, Toronto. The opening of the winter term occurs on Jan. 6th, when a large number of new students will be enrolled. This school is under very able management and has a constantly increasing patronage and is training hundreds of students each year for business positions. The college has an excellent reputation for first-class work.

To check a cold quickly, get from your druggist some Little Candy Cold Tablets called Preventics. AN OLD RELIC.

Nicol Bros. while tearing down the old house in the Williamson property at Elgin Mills, which is being replaced | been since harvest. by a new one, found an old relic in the shape of a school book to teach young children to spell and read. The book was printed and published by Eastwood and Skinner, Toronto, and bears the date 1838. The book contains a spent a few days with his cousins, Mr. number of maxims of which the following is a sample; "The drunkard looks like a man, but acts like a beast." n a fair state of preservation.

PRESBYTERIAN S.S. XMAS TREE. The annual Xmas Tree and Cantata of the Presbyterian Church S.S. took place on Monday night, and despite the inclement nature of the weather a good turn out was the result. The program included drills, recitations, etc., and the cantata "An old time Xmas Party" which was well rendered, The different parts were well carried 23 majority. Skidoo to Capt. Wall- out. After the performance the children received suitable presents, and gyeryone seemed happy. Much praise The curlers had their first game in is due to the endeavours of Mrs. Mcs. Kenzig, Miss Boyle, and Mr. Newton in training the children. The performunce finished with "God save the King." The proceeds realised $17.

WHAT'S IN MCCLURE'S.

McClure's has gone up in quality as well as in price. There is a discussion of the relation of hypnotism to crime and disease by Professor Munsterberg, and Effen Terry, continuing her mentoirs, tells "What Henry Irving Did for the English Stage." Mary Stewart Cutting's new serial, "The Wayfarers," which has been most favorably received, runs into the second instalment. There is plenty of good short fiction-"The Elopement," by Fielding Batl; "The Color Bearers," a new Ezekial story by Lucy Pratt; "The Commodore, a touching child story for grown ups by Anna E. Finn; Mr. H. A. Nicholls has announced | and "South of the Line," a story of ad= venture in the South Seas. Rusalie M. Jonas contributes a poem, "A Sel-Mr. Pugsley-the present reeve-and | mon in Black and White," and Louise Imogen Guiney, "His Angel to His Mother." The cover design is by Leyendecker, and Alice Barber Stephens and other artists have contributed

When the Stomach, Heart, or Kidney nerves get weak, then these organs always fail. Don't drug the Stomach, nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys. That is simply a makeshift. Get a prescription known to Druggists everys where as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The Restorative is prepared expressly for these weak inside nerves. Strengthen these nerves, build them up with Dr. Shoop's Restorative-tabletsorliquidand see how quickly help will come. Free sample test sent on request by Dr. Snoop, Racine, Wis. Your health is surely worth this simple test. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

S. S. ANNIVERSARY.

Association, will address the children at 10.30 a. m., Sunday, 29th, and will speak on Adult Bible Class Work in the evening, at 6 o'clock. Mr. Jackson has devoted many years exclusively to S. S. work. On the evening of January 1, an oyster supper will be given in the church followed by a lec-There will be a Watch-night Ser- ture entitled "A Trip Through Irevice in the Methodist church on Tues- land," by Rev. J. H. Hazelwood, D.D., of Toronto Junction. A gentleman speaking of this lecture said "It was The E. L. will then take charge. An | instructive, interesting, inspiring, and excellent and varied program is being entertaining." Another said A charming lecture, charmingly given." Special music by the children and choir of the church will be given on Sunday. Miss Trench of Richmond Hill, graduate of Toronto Conservatory of Music, and Miss-Mason, soloist, of Toronto, will take part in Wedness day evening's programme. Supper served from 5 to 7 p. m. Programme commences at 8 p. m. Admission, 40 cents; children, 25 cents.

A tickling cough, from any chuse, is quickly stopped by Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. And it is so thoroughly harmless and safe, that Dr. Shoop tells mothers everywhere to give it without hesitation, even to very young babes. The wholesome green leaves and tender stems of a lung-healing mountainous shrub, furnish the curative properties to Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. It calms the cough, and heals the screeningsensitive bronchial membranes. No opium, no chloroform, nothing harsh used to injure or suppress. Simply a resincus plant extract, that helps to heal aching lungs. The Spaniards call this shrub which the Doctor uses, "The Sacred Herb". Always demand Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.
