

AN EASY VICTIM TO CONSUMPTION

The run down system is an inviting field for the germ of Tuberculosis. You cannot avoid breathing in the germs—they are everywhere—but a robust system is immune from their attacks. To rebuild a weakened system there is nothing that contains so much virtue as COD LIVER OIL, but the virtue is not in the grease. In fact the grease retards the beneficial action of the really valuable principles of the OIL by deranging the digestion.

In "BRICK'S TASTELESS" the grease is eliminated. It presents the valuable principles of COD LIVER OIL in a palatable form, combined with phosphorus in the form of the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, the nutritious Liquid Extract of Malt and the Bronchial Tonic and Sedative Fluid Extract of Wild Cherry Bark.

ARM YOURSELF AGAINST CONTAGION.
"BRICK'S TASTELESS" will build up the enervated system and will cure Bronchitis, Pulmonary Affections, and the deranged or disordered nervous system. Make your body healthy and you need have no fear of germs or diseases.

Read Brick's guarantee with each bottle.
"BRICK'S TASTELESS" is put up in eight (8) ounce bottles, retail price fifty (50) cents, and in twenty (20) ounce bottles, retail price one (1) dollar.

BOYHOOD'S DAYS.

This poem was composed and written by the late Joseph Laughlin, Sr., Bowmanville, about the year 1862.

Dear boyhood days when I loved to stray
By the pleasant rills that did gently play,
Down by the meadows green;
Where the lark poured forth its tuneful lay
Through't the long, long summer day.
When I caught the trout in the murmuring stream.

These were the days of happiness,
That passed away in innocence,
And few were the cares of the morrow
When youth and boyhood were in their prime,
Free from the blighting hand of time,
Or life's perplexing sorrow.

Dear boyhood days, how you've passed away,
Left me far in the eve of manhood's day;
Your fleeting breath to mourn,
In sorrow I oft mourn my fate,
But, ah, alas, alas, too late—
You'll never on Earth return.

The verdant groves where oft I've been,
My strolls along the haunted stream,
The hills oft wandered o'er,
My boyish footprints in the snow—
All these bright visions haunt me so,
They oppress my heart full sore.

The hawthorns robed in richest bloom
Where the linnet sang its love-strained tune,
Where oft I've lingered near;
The primrose and the daisy gay,
Where I and brother oft did play;
Ah, ain't these memories dear?

My parents, whom I loved most dear,
Their voices I no longer hear;
All these have passed away.
The brother and sister group so dear,
We all are parted far and near,
This long and many a day.

The old door-stone where at evening late,
Mother listened to the childish prate
Of the little group going on;
The room where stood my little bed,
Where mother pillowed off my head—
All these loved scenes are gone.

Ah, can these memories pass away,
Or from my memory e'er decay?
Ah, never, never, never,
Till death shall end my very last day
And take me from this life away—
Then I'll remember ever.

But why need I lament my fate,
Or mourn now when it is too late?
Mankind have shared the same,
Hope bids me look beyond the tomb
Where boyhood's days again shall come,
Never, never, to pass again.

Farewell my boyhood's days on earth;
Farewell sweet days of manhood's mirth;
You've all passed like a dream,
Faith's anchored now beyond the skies,
Or endless rills and fadless joys,
Where I'll be a boy again.

There is an old-fashioned precaution
Of keeping a goat in a stable. Supposing always that the animals are loose, the goat will leave the stable on the outbreak of fire, and the horses will follow the goat when no amount of persuasion from man will get the terrified creatures to budge.

SAVES HIGH-PRICED WOOD.

The Veneer Cutter Will Make 150 Slices to the Inch.

"The veneer cutter is one of the wonders of modern times," says a furnitureman. "People who have never seen it work have not the faintest idea what it can do.

"Of course it is one result of the scarcity and high price of valuable timber, for if mahogany, rosewood, ebony and curled maple were as cheap as yellow pine there would be no need for a veneering machine, but the high prices of these woods compelled economy.

"A saw cutter will cut 25 or 30 slices of veneer from an inch of wood, and most people would think that this is a tolerably economical use, even of rosewood.

"But the knife cutter shaves off the wood in a slice so thin that from 125 to 150 veneers to the inch can be cut, and still everyone of these shavings preserves the color and shows the texture of the original wood, and so smoothly is the cutting done that very often no polishing is necessary.

Flipson—"Young Waggle's got the laugh turned against himself in his little joke against the Blazes Fire Insurance Company." Flopson—"How?" Flipson—"He insured 500 cigars, smoked them, and then sent in a claim on the ground that they had been destroyed by fire." Flopson—"And they laughed at him, I suppose?" Flipson—"No. They had him arrested on a charge of arson."

They are Not Violent in Action. — Some persons, when they wish to cleanse the stomach, resort to Epsom and other purgative salts. These are speedy in their action, but serve no permanent good. Their use produces incipient chills, and if persisted in they injure the stomach. Nor do they act upon the intestines in a beneficial way. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills answer all purposes in this respect, and have no superior.

ANCESTORIAL.

There is no objection to one's having notable ancestors if they be honestly come by. But he should never forget that a good descendant is much better than even a good ancestor. The latter is generally dead.

COULD NOT FAIL.

"Our club is going to give a big entertainment next month."
"Yes, so I heard. Do you think it will be a success?"
"Sure to be. We've arranged it so that every member is chairman of some committee or other."

A General Favorite.—In every place where introduced Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has not failed to establish a reputation, showing that the sterling qualities which it possesses are valued everywhere when they become known. It is in general use in Canada and other countries as a household medicine and the demand for it each year shows that it is a favorite wherever used.

She had accepted his offer to escort her home in the rain. "I have been wondering," he remarked, on the way, "whether it is on account of my umbrella or my company that I am allowed to come with you?" "It is neither," she replied. "It is on account of my new hat."

Many Thanks are due from the proprietors of Weaver's Cerate to friends who have written to tell of the Cerate's good work in curing scrofulous humors, scald head and other skin diseases.

An Irish lawyer, noted for his wit, was engaged by a lady to defend an action her husband was bringing for judicial separation. While cross-examining the plaintiff he asked:—"You wish to leave this woman because she drinks?" "Yes, sir." "Do you drink yourself?" "That's my business!"—angrily. Whereupon the unmoved lawyer quietly asked him:—"Have you any other business?"

It is only necessary to read the testimonials to be convinced that Holloway's Corn Cure is unequalled for the removal of corns, warts, etc. It is a complete extinguisher.

HE TOOK THE BLAME.

Muggins—"Behold in me a self-made man."
Diggins—"I congratulate you because of your charitableness."
Muggins—"I beg pardon?"
Diggins—"You are certainly charitable in taking all the blame on yourself."

Papa enters sitting-room and discovers daughter and young Robinson sitting side by side on sofa. "Ah, Mr. Robinson," remarked he, affably, "you are a great athlete, aren't you?" "Oh," said Robinson, modestly, "I can do a little in that line. What made you think it?" "You show such marvellous staying power, you see," said the old gentleman, with a glance at the time-piece. Robinson took the hint and went.

A SECRET.

Uncle—"You seem to be living very comfortably here, my boy, but are you saving any money?"
Nephew (whispering)—"Yes; but for goodness sake don't tell my wife."

An End to Bilious Headache.—Biliousness, which is caused by excessive bile in the stomach, has a marked effect upon the nerves, and often manifests itself by severe headache. This is the most distressing headache one can have. There are headaches from cold, from fever, and from other causes, but the most excruciating of all is the bilious headache. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will cure it—cure it almost immediately. It will disappear as soon as the Pills operate. There is nothing surer in the treatment of bilious headache.

The neighbors may know what you have got, but what they don't always know is how you got it.

Gentleman (to house agent)—"The great disadvantage is that the house is so damp." House Agent—"Disadvantage, sir? Advantage, I call it. In case of fire it wouldn't be so likely to burn!"

A Great Combination, "Ferrovin" the best tonic is. It should be taken by all invalids, by all who are run down or out of sorts. It builds up, gives new life.

HIS NAME WAS ALEXANDER.

There was a chap who kept a store, And though there might be grander, He sold things cheap, nor asked for more,
His name was Alexander.

He mixed his goods with cunning hand
He was a skilful brander;
And since his sugar was half sand,
They called him Alex-Sander.

He had a girl, one day she came,
Then lovingly he scanned her;
He asked her would she change her name?
A ring did Alex-hand-her.

"Oh, yes," she said, with smiling lip,
"If I can be commander!"
And so they framed a partnership,
And called it Alex-and-her.

UN-ANSWERABLE.

Little Gordon was studying his Sunday school lesson.
"Say, papa, he queried, "what did the Dead Sea die of?"

The greater the irritation in the throat the more distressing the cough becomes. Coughing is the effort of Nature to expel this irritating substance from the air passages. Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup will heal the inflamed parts, which exude mucus, and restore them to a healthy state, the cough disappearing under the curative effects of the medicine. It is pleasant to the taste, and the price, 25 cents, is within the reach of all.

HOSPITABLE.

Polite Shopwalker—"Good afternoon, madam. I hope you will call again."
Mrs. Flatterbick—"That's kind of yer. So I will, and ye must come to see us."

Did you notice that old man limping along a day or so ago? Well, if he will put on his back "The D & L" Mouth Plaster, in a week he will walk as straight as any one.

PHILOSOPHICAL.

"Beg pardon, ma'am," said the butler, "but your son has just eloped with the parlor maid."
"Oh, that isn't so bad," rejoined Mrs. Uppson. "He might have eloped with the cook—and I never could have replaced her."

Harold—"I am glad you have taken off that horrid veil." Bertha—"Indeed! Why?" Harold—"It was like a piece of paper around a lump of sugar."

NOT A FAMILY NECESSITY.

"Mamma is all alone to-day, Bessie, dear, and if anyone rings you will answer the bell."
Presently the bell sounded. As Bessie responded to the ring her mother inquired, "Who is it, dear?"
"Thomson thelling thilver polish," announced the child.
"Say no, thank you, and close the door," continued the mother sweetly. The child obeyed, and a moment later the bell again was heard.
"Who is it this time?" asked the mother in a tone of annoyance.
"Oh, mudder, mudder! here's a man with a wooden leg."
"Mercy! another peddler!" voiced the susceptible woman. "Tell him we don't want any."
