

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., Jan. 9, 1908

The Mail and Empire is the only Toronto paper that can claim the somewhat doubtful honour of being publicly thanked by Dr. Beatty Nesbitt on the night of the mayoralty election. The Dr. said "I wish especially to thank the Mail and Empire for its championship of me, a championship which was actuated solely by the paper's appreciation of the work I had done in the past for the Conservative party." Dr. Nesbitt evidently understands that the Mail is not looking for a mayor with an honourable record, but for a mayor who has done good work for the Conservative party. The recent vote went to show that the electors of Toronto are not in sympathy with the Mail and Empire.

The World published a few days ago an article from Saturday Night in which the latter questions the wisdom or propriety of the Globe exposing Dr. Beattie Nesbitt, on the score of his personal habits, and his alleged escapade in the city of Stratford. Saturday Night takes the ground that the Globe should apply the same test of fitness for office, to its own political friends, and says "if not it will find itself and its party in a mighty hot spot when the campaigning begins." The escapades of public men who are lauded by the Liberal organ will be published right and left. Isn't that a sad state of affairs? The Globe is asked to hold its hand for fear some Grit sinner may be exposed. Surely the day hasn't come when a man can be elected to responsible positions without regard to his moral character. If Tory newspapers knew of immorality on the part of their political opponents there is little doubt of its being exposed. There might be less immorality than there is among public men if the offenders thought that the searchlight would be turned upon their actions.

Elgin Mills.

Miss Edith Clift and Miss Florence Barbank of Toronto spent Christmas week with Miss E. Clift here. A sleigh-load from here drove up to Mr. J. Stewart's of Oak Ridges and after taking possession of the house in good old fashioned style spent a very enjoyable evening. On New Year's Eve the same party drove over to Mr. John Charles at Patterson and report a very good time. Mr. L. Chiffey, a teacher of Central Business College, Toronto, spent Christmas week here with his sister Mrs. John Naughton. Mr. Oswald Newbery of New Liskeard is spending a couple of weeks under the parental roof. Miss A. Hamilton, who has been ill for some days is improving and hopes to be out again in a few days. Miss Robertson has again resumed her duties at the school. Before leaving at Christmas she was presented by the pupils with a handsome gilt clock and the following address which was read by Master A. Jewitt:—Dear Teacher, During the few short years that you have been our teacher we have been steadily and unconsciously forming a strong attachment to you. We like your methods of teaching. We have made good progress under you. All our associations have been most pleasant. Your untiring patience and perseverance has been something from which we may all learn. We trust that on your return after holidays you will continue to instruct and chastise us in the same manner as formerly. We ask you to accept this small present as a token of our appreciation of your work in our school. Every pupil in this school is your warm friend. We extend to you our warmest wishes for a merry Christmas in 1907 and many happy New Years. Signed on behalf of the school
JENNIE MCLEOD,

Card of Thanks.

I am extremely grateful to the lady and gentlemen voters who supported me through their vote and influence last Monday. I am more than satisfied with the magnificent vote I obtained and with the experience I gained through one election campaign. I think the next time I offer myself as a candidate I may be able to wave the palm of victory. Hoping the next time to be successful, I remain
Your obedient servant,
H. H. HOPPER.

A DECEMBER BRIDE.

A very pretty yuletide wedding was celebrated at the Didsbury Presbyterian church on Christmas eve when Miss Emma Aleda Byam and Mr. Jake Hugst were united in the bonds of holy matrimony by Rev. J. S. Ferguson. The bride was given away by Mr. James McTavish, and was gowned in a white lace robe over taffeta silk with a bridal veil and orange blossoms and carried a beautiful bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid was Miss H. Elliott of London, Ont., who was handsomely attired in cream albatross trimmed with applique and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. The groom was supported by Mr. A. Y. McCornquodale of Macleod. Miss F. M. Nicholl played the Mendelssohn wedding march as the party entered and left the church. Amid a shower of rice Mr. and Mrs. Hugst took the 9.45 p. m. train for a honeymoon trip south, the bride going away in a travelling suit of wine colored chiffon broadcloth with hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls, and to the groomsmen a gold ring. The bride who has had charge of the school east of Didsbury for the past year, and the groom who is traveller for Donnelly, Watson & Brown, wholesale grocers, Calgary, and formerly with Studer & Co., are very popular with a wide circle of friends in Didsbury, quite a number of whom were present to witness the ceremony, and have the best wishes of all for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life. They will reside at Didsbury.—The Pioneer, Didsbury, Alberta.

The new mammoth skating rink was open to skaters and spectators last Saturday evening. Arrangements for the ice may be made for schools and other private parties.

Rev. G. W. Robinson will give his second talk to men next Sunday evening in the Thornhill Methodist church. The annual Oyster Supper in the Methodist church was well attended on New Year's night. The solos of Miss Trench and Miss Mason were very much appreciated. Rev. Dr. Hazelwood of Toronto Junction delighted the audience with a bright, cheery, witty and instructive lecture on his trip through Ireland.

Gent's Watches

Do not be convinced that you can get a good watch for $1.50. It is really tiresome to us to have so very many cheap watches brought in for repairs—and nothing can be done with them.

We sell only good watches. Our cheapest watch is a Waltham movement in a nickel case, worth $6. This watch will wear 20 years and time within 8 minutes per month.

At this price—$6—there is no excuse for buying cheap stuff.

ALL GOOD THINGS

must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: "It is indeed a marvelous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for." A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.
