INTERMENTS UNDER DIFFICULTIES.

There have been some trying experiences at funerals since the roads have been blocked with snow. A case is reported from near Barrie where the pall-bearers had to walk on snow shoes while carrying the coffin of a deceased friend to the place of burial. And on the 8th inst. while conveying the remains of Mrs. Nigh—sister of Mr. Abram Mackie—of Whitchurch, to her last resting place in Heise Hill cemetery, the funeral procession could get no farther than Lever's gate, at which place the coffin was placed on a front bob-sleigh and drawn by hand to the place of interment.

It consisted of songs and glees of a social and patriotic nature. In the drawing room were arranged the sale of Ladies' work, a candy stall, a tulip bed, and a Touch and Take table, all of which were generously patronized by the visitors, and added considerably to the proceeds which amounted, after deducting all expenses, to the sum of forty-two dollars.

CARD OF THANKS.

Through the columns of THE LIBERAL Mrs. B. Redditt and family desire to return their warmest thanks to the citizens of this community for kindness and sympathy extended to them during the illness and death of the beloved one who recently passed away. While their home now has a vacant chair, yet as they reflect upon the many deeds of sympathy and love of the friends and neighbours, it gives a silver lining to the dark cloud left by death. Flowers and other tokens of love were appreciated more than we have words to express. May the day be far distant when those friends who gathered around the sick chamber will need similar attention, but when the time comes may they receive the same full measure of generous aid and tender sympathy they brought to the home when death was an inmate there.

If you have Catarrh, rid yourself of this repulsive disease. Ask Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis., to mail you free, a trial box of his Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. A simple, single test will surely tell you a Catarrh truth well worth your knowing. Write to-day. Don't suffer longer—W. A. Sanderson.

HELPING THE NEEDY.

At a meeting of the village W. C. T. U. held on Tuesday, it was decided to make an appeal to the public in behalf of the destitute in the city of Toronto. Those who read the daily papers of that city know of the suffering existing there. Donations of clothing, food or money will be received at the Drug Store up to Wednesday next, 26th inst., where they will be packed and sent to a distributing centre. Let us show our gratitude to the Good Father who has given our people "enough and to spare," by contributing liberally to this great cause remembering that He said "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

BASSINGTHWAITE—RAMER.

The residence of Mr. Jacob Ramer, Richmond Hill, was the scene of a quiet wedding Wednesday afternoon Feb. 12th, at four o'clock, when his daughter Etta was married to Mr. Leroy Basingthwaite of Richmond Hill. Only the immediate friends of the bride and groom were present. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. G. Sargent B. A. of Toronto. Miss Lila Macklem, a cousin of the bride played the wedding march. The bride who was unattended was dressed in a becoming gown of roseda silk with point d'esprit yoke and chiffon trimming. She carried a bouquet of cream roses. After partaking of the wedding repast, Mr. and Mrs. Basingthwaite left for their future home "Pine-dale Farm" near Richmond Hill accompanied by several of their friends.
