The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church wish, through this medium, to tender their sincere thanks to all those who so generously provided refreshments for the dinner and tea on Victoria Day, to all who assisted at the tables or in any way, and also to the public for their esteemed patronage. The "May Rod and Gun," published by W. J. Taylor of Woodstock, is an attractive number. It contains stories of hunting moose, mountain goat, bear, deer and ducks, while to the fishermen the papers on salmon in Ontario rivers must call up memories and awaken thoughts such as only fishermen can know. The number is interesting from beginning to end.

We have the best value in gent's furnishings—shirts, collars, ties, gloves, etc. No better value to be procured in Ontario. Atkinson & Switzer.

TIME TABLE OF ENTRANCE EXAMS.

The following time-table of the Entrance exams to be held in the High school here, on June 24, 25, and 26, may prove of interest to our readers:—Wednesday—Composition, Spelling, Geography, Thursday—Arithmetic, Written Reading, Friday—English Grammar, Writing, Oral Reading at such hours as are convenient.

DEATH FROM SUNSTROKE.

The first case of sunstroke occurred last evening about 5 o'clock on the farm of John Weldrick, east of Thott Hill. The victim was Charles Barnett, a Dutch immigrant. He fell in a field in which he was harrowing, and became partly unconscious. A doctor was summoned, but the young man died half an hour after his arrival, his temperature rising to 109.

Will make to your measure in first order, everything just right, a fine black serge suit for $19, really worth $24. Atkinson & Switzer.

NOT OVERCHARGED.

Some persons complained to the directors on the day of the Fair that they were overcharged for their horses at the Palmer House. Upon inquiry being made it was found that the charge for a horse in the shed, including hay, was 25 cents, and a horse in the stable, including hay, was 50 cents. These we understand, are the usual rates at Markham Fair, Woodbridge Fair and other celebrations. Meals were served on Victoria Day for 25 cents.

Examine the brooms we are selling at 25 and 30c. The 30c. one is very special. You can hardly buy a better broom at any price. Atkinson & Switzer.

RUNAWAY.

Mr. J. N. Boyle's grey mare got away from her driver at Elgin Mills, Friday evening, and made extra good time between that village and Richmond Hill. Near Trench's Carriage Works a number of citizens endeavoured to stop her, but she made for the sidewalk, striking a telephone pole and fleeing herself from the buggy which was badly wrecked. The mare was caught opposite the Post Office. She was uninjured and is driving as if nothing had happened.

Tomatoes, 10c can; corn, 3 cans for 25c; peas, 3 cans for 25c; salmon, 2 cans for 25c; figs, 5 lbs. for 25c; dates, 5 lbs. for 25c; genuine New Orleans molasses, a 3 lb. tin for 18c; goldenette table syrup, a 3 lb. tin for 18c; lard, home-rendered, extra choice, in quantities, 14c lb.; extra blend of coffee, ground while you wait, 39c lb.; fine green Ceylon tea, 25c lb.; fine Japan tea, 30c lb.; extra Japan tea, 40c lb.; fine value in Ceylon and India black teas at 25, 30, and 50c lb. If you want best value buy bulk teas. Atkinson & Switzer.

Citizens of the town who get their living here, and whose property interests are valuable or worthless according to the prosperity of the town will be wise enough to patronize home merchants. Town merchants claim that they can and will get your goods as cheaply, quickly and well as you can order them by mail. And when the goods arrive, you can hold the local merchant responsible for the quality of the goods. Every pair of hose or piece of dress goods marked down to 10c, is not necessarily a bargain, and it is argued that every dollar sent out of the town makes the town poorer.

VICTORIA SQUARE.

The teachers, scholars and friends of school sections 3, 4, 6, 12 and 13 held Empire Day in a fitting manner last Friday. Shortly after the noon hour the scholars marched to the grounds of Mr. R. Nichols, and later in the day a programme of a patriotic nature was rendered. Mr. J. Francis occupied the chair, and short addresses were given by J. Walter Curry, K. C., and others. Towards evening a series of races took place, and football and other games were indulged in. Refreshments were served to all, and a most interesting time was spent together.

Tired nerves, with that "no ambition" feeling that is commonly felt in spring or early summer, can be easily and quickly altered by taking what is known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. One will absently note a changed feeling within 48 hours after beginning to take the Restorative. The bowels get sluggish in the winter time, the circulation often slows up, the kidneys are inactive, and even the heart in many cases grows decidedly weaker. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is recognized everywhere as a genuine tonic to these vital organs. It builds up and strengthens the worn-out weakened nerves; it sharpens the failing appetite, and universally aids digestion. It always quickly brings renewed strength, life, vigor, and ambition. Try it and be convinced. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

THE CONCERT.

The concert held in the Agricultural Hall Monday evening in connection with the fair was well attended, and the programme presented gave good satisfaction. The costume songs and dances by Miss Beatrice Lillie were cleverly executed, and the dancing by Masters Robbie and Russell Gilray was particularly good. Miss Elsie Dixon Craig proved herself a gifted elocutionist. Her voice is deep and rich, and she excels in child recitation and mimicry. Her imitation of an infant crying in its mother's arms was perfect. As a humorist, vocalist and entertainer Mr. Harry M. Bennett acted his part well, and little wonder is it that he was recalled again and again. His imitation of the Dutch band was very amusing, but the comic selection "I'm going to be Married" probably took the cake. Mr. Willard Palmer gave several recitations, and Mr. E. R. Bowles acted as accompanist for the evening. Before closing, the chairman, Mr. J. H. Sanderson, thanked the audience for their generous patronage, and for the excellent hearing they gave every performer. The receipts amounted to $175.00.

SUDDEN DEATH.

A very sudden and unexpected death took place about 11 o'clock Saturday night when Mr. Wm. Morris passed away at the residence of his son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Patton. Although he had not been in very good health for several months past nothing serious was anticipated. There was little warning for the call; he died in less than half an hour after an illness about the heart. Deceased was in his 68th year, and had made his home with Mr. Patton for a number of years. He was an agreeable and kind-hearted man, being particularly attached to his grandchildren. The funeral took place from the residence Tuesday afternoon to the Aurora cemetery, service being previously conducted by Rev. Mr. Bruce, and Rev. Mr. Toye. The family have the sympathy of all in their sudden and sad bereavement.
