Brace, musical selections were given by Miss M. Trench, Miss J. McDonald, Miss E. Switzer, and Miss I. Glass. Toye also gave a short address after which ice cream and cake were served and a social hour spent together.

KEEP BOYS AT HOME.

The following advice to parents, taken from an exchange, might well be taken by some parents in this village: Parents keep your boys off the streets, especially after dark. You know not what annoyance these little fellows are; besides they learn all kinds of meanness, picking up all the slang phrases uttered by older boys who have forgotten the prayers taught them at their mother's knee when they, too, were innocent little tots like your own boys now. If you have nice beautiful yards, allow your boys to play in them, never scolding them for their merry laughter, for 'tis better far to be annoyed at home than to have them mixed up in an ugly affair on the street of which you know nothing until it has grown cold on everyone's tongue. If you value their education as you should, you will keep your boys off the street, where no evil association will corrupt their morals.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effect of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength, and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

TO NIAGARA FALLS.

Posters are out announcing the annual Excursion of the Richmond Hill Fire Brigade to Niagara Falls, on Friday, the 19th of June. The trip is a delightful one, and is always thoroughly enjoyed. Toronto street railway in time to leave the wharf by steamer at 9 o'clock. At Queenston the excursionists will take electric cars over the Niagara River Line, passing Brock's Monument, the Whirlpool Rapids and other places of note. The fare for the round trip from Bond Lake will be $1.00; Elgin Mills $1.50; and Richmond Hill $1.50. Children half price. Arrangements have been made for hot and cold water free to those who take their own lunch. Come along and spend an enjoyable day, and show by your patronage that you appreciate the services of the Fire Brigade.

Buy Hair at Auction?

At any rate, you seem to be getting rid of it on auction-sale principles: "going, going, g-o-n-e!" Stop the auction with Ayer's Hair Vigor. It certainly checks falling hair; no mistake about this. It acts as a regular medicine; makes the scalp healthy. Then you must have healthy hair, for it's nature's way.

The best kind of a testimonial—
