RICHMOND HILL, ONT., JAN. 14, 1909

VILLAGE COUNCIL.

The inaugural meeting of the Village Council was held on Jan. 11th in the Council Chamber.

Messrs. Pugsley, Sanderson and Palmer were present, and made and subscribed their respective declarations of office and of qualification.

The Clerk was instructed to renew the insurance on the Rink.

A letter was read from the High School Hockey Club asking the use of the Rink on Thursday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock. The Clerk was instructed to notify the Club that they could have the use of the Rink on the day and at the hours mentioned for a fee of $2.00 with fire, or $1.50 without fire, for each time the Rink is used, the Club to notify the Caretaker any time the Rink is not required.

On motion the Council adjourned to meet on Monday, Jan. 18th, at 8 p.m.

A. J. HUME, Clerk.

January 11, 1909.

A WELCOME VISITOR.

A weekly visitor that always meets with a hearty welcome in the homes of Canada is the "Northern Messenger" an illustrated story paper filled with matter of the purest and best and at the same time the most entertaining type. For over forty years it has been tested and tried, but not found wanting. And to-day in the home and in the Sunday School it takes first place. It can be counted on as a force that "Makes for righteousness," while its bright stories, and verses, its Sunday School Temperance and household department its large print section for the little folks make it a favourite with young and old alike. The annual subscription is only forty cents with liberal clubbing rates and very special terms to Sunday Schools.

Samples free from the publishers, John Dougall & Son, "Witness Office" Montreal.

$1.50 TO "OUTSIDERS".

For several years past the Toronto Daily Star has been $2.50 a year to all whose P. O. address is Richmond Hill. The same rate is obtained in Thornhill, Aurora and other places where there is an evening delivery of mail. The Star has written us saying they will now accept subscriptions at the rate of $1.50 a year from farmers and others living outside the corporation, even if their address is Richmond Hill. Subscriptions taken at the LIBERAL OFFICE.
