SEED FAIR.

The most successful Seed Fair yet held in this place was that of Friday last held in the Lorne Hall under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society. The hall was filled with representative farmers from the surrounding districts, there was a large exhibit of grain, seed and potatoes, and the addresses given were of a practical and interesting nature. The judging was done by Mr. Geo. Keith, the well-known seed-man of Toronto, and Mr. Cecil Klink of the Agricultural College. A large amount of grain for seed changed hands, and everybody was free to admit that a seed fair at this season of the year is in the interests of the farmers who wish to improve the quality and quantity of their grain and roots.

After the judging was over the meeting was called to order. Mr. H. A. Nicholls acting as chairman.

Mr. A. J. Reynolds was the first speaker. His remarks were well received, and carried weight from the fact that he has been for many years a practical agriculturist.

Mr. Keith referred to York as the greatest grain producing county in the province. He gave the results of many kinds of grain tested at the Agricultural College, showing that that institution is doing an excellent work.

Short addresses were afterwards given by Mr. Keith, Mr. G. Padgett, Mr. W. H. Clabine and others. A hearty vote of thanks, moved by Mr. Sanderson, seconded by Mr. Clabine, was tendered the speakers and the judges for their valuable assistance.

The following is a list of prize-winners:

- Spring Wheat—John Billinger.
- Barley—Frank Legge, Harry Rumble.
- White Oats—T. W. Stephens, Joseph Graham.
- Black Oats—Charles Thompson, T. W. Stephens.
- Large Peas—Joseph Graham, T. W. Stephens.
- Small Peas—T. W. Stephens, Wm. Palmer.
- Alsike—Frank Legge.
- Potatoes, Early—Frank Legge, Albert Jones.
- Potatoes, Late—Albert Jones, Peter Jones.

Maple.

Quarterly meeting services were held in the Methodist Church on Sunday. Rev. J. W. Gordon occupied the pulpit in the evening.

A social was held on Monday evening under the auspices of the Epworth League.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. Killough. The Arts and Crafts meeting has been postponed till March.

It is rumored that a bakery will be started in the village shortly. Mr. Charles Norman of Aurora will be the new proprietor.

Mrs. W. Knight has purchased a house on College St., Toronto, and will remove there about the first of March.

Mr. Clarence Monkman of Toronto spent over Sunday with friends here.

Laura, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon of the 3rd concession, passed away last Thursday after an illness of nearly three weeks. The funeral took place here on Saturday afternoon. A beautiful wreath of white roses from the Methodist Sabbath School was placed on the casket.

A FLOWING WELL.

I had a well drilled in December last by Mr. D. Blanchard of Richmond Hill, in company with Jackson Bros. of Maple. After drilling a depth of 165 feet he was fortunate in striking a flow of water, running 30 barrels every 24 hours, which is still running as when first drilled. I can confidently recommend Mr. Blanchard to any person needing a well drilled, as he is thoroughly competent to do the work. H. R. HEISE.
