

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., FEB. 18, 1909

A Story more Touching than anything from the Pen of the gifted Ian MacLaren.

The farmers of York County, north of Toronto, have grown weary waiting to have their produce delivered over the Metropolitan Railway to the heart of the city, without transshipment, and passengers landed at the union station without changing cars. The railway company lays the blame on the city council, and the city says the cars may run in subject to an agreement approved by the city council. By the looks of things nothing will be done along the above lines till the year 1921, when the street railway franchise reverts to the city council.

What the farmers really need is a market for their grain and other produce at or near Yonge street, near the C. P. R. crossing. To the farmers who team their own grain, especially in the winter season, a market at North Toronto would be better for them than down near Front street. Farmers at this season of the year often find good sleighing till they get to the crossing, but as the snow is hauled off the streets of Toronto they are forced to change their loads from sleighs to wagons in order to get to the market. A grain and produce market at a point north of the C. P. R. crossing would certainly be a convenience. Farmers as a rule dread the three or four miles in the crowded city, more than three times that distance in the open country. Would it not be worth while for the city council and the county council to get together and talk over a matter which is of importance both to the city and country?

After many adjournments, Frank Miller late proprietor of the Mansion House, Stouffville, was last Friday sentenced by Police Magistrate Ellis, to four months in jail for selling liquor to two informers last September. The case has excited widespread interest throughout the county. As a previous conviction had been recorded against the defendant the magistrate was bound to make the last conviction, imprisonment. Some people look upon the recent sentence as severe, but if they stop and think they may conclude there is nothing unreasonable about it. The law distinctly says that whisky must not be sold in local option districts. If hotel keepers choose to break that law they should be prepared to take the consequences. In ordinary cases of crime men do not generally get much sympathy; why should they expect it in the case of selling liquor unlawfully.

That the "White Slave" traffic exists in the United States seems proven beyond a doubt. That it is trying to get a footing in Canada seems almost a certainty. It cannot be too strongly urged that young girls leaving country or village or town homes, for situations in the crowded cities, should be on their guard against the fiends in human shape who prey on innocent girlhood. A brief caution may save a young girl's life.—Christian Guardian.

HORSE AND RIG FOUND.

Some time ago a young man went to the home of Mr. Lowery in Thornhill, and hired the latter's horse and rig saying he wanted to drive to Markham, and would return the same evening. As he did not keep his word, however, Mr. Lowery became suspicious the following day, and communicated with High Constable Ramsden. On Wednesday of last week Constable Helson, of Markham learned that a horse and rig answering the description had been sold to a Mr. Wagg near Clarendon. The outfit was identified, and handed over to Mr. Lowery. The horse and rig had been sold to Mr. Wagg for $65, the young fellow claiming stress of circumstances as the reason for disposing of the outfit at so low a price. Mr. Wagg, of course, will be out of pocket $65 by the transaction. The young fellow who hired the horse disappeared, and his whereabouts is unknown.

In the current issue of the DOOR OF HOPS, published by the National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, a page is given over to letters received from the many persons from all parts of the Dominion seeking admission to the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

Seldom have we read anything more pathetic. Here, for example, is a letter from a physician in Creemore, Ont., asking for the admission of a patient by the name of Morrison. He says:—"I would like to urge strongly upon you the great claims of this patient. He has no home—mother dead—father working as a farm laborer. The boy has been living with an unmarried uncle—no housekeeper—work, cooking, etc., being done by the uncle. The boy has absolutely no place to go where he might be given any reasonable care, and he can get none where he is."

Another case is from Thorold. Johnston Weldon writes:—"I am a young married man, twenty-three years of age. For several years I have been sick, but always able to keep my feet. Now I have come to the time when I cannot work, and cannot get medicine without means. My lungs are affected, and I am writing now to see if you can get me into the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives. My young wife is here, and her parents have kindly opened their doors to her if I go away."

Just one more of the many we might quote. This is from a physician in Campbellford, Ont. He writes:—"I have a patient suffering from pulmonary tuberculosis, who has been laid off work for about three months now—was in bed part of that time, but latterly both his pulse and temperature have kept down and his weight going up. He is the only support of the family—mother, crippled father, and younger brother, but his neighbors are trying to raise a small amount of money to help him."

We have sometimes thought that if Ian MacLaren, who has given to us the character of Dr. McClure, were alive to-day that in letters such as these he would find material for a book more touching and pathetic in many parts than his Bonnie Briar Bush.

It is on behalf of cases like these, of which there are scores reaching the Secretary of the Sanatorium every week, that the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives makes its appeal to-day for funds.

This institution has not at any time, since its doors were first opened in April, 1902, refused a single patient because of the applicant being unable to pay.

Contributions may be sent to Mr. W. J. Gage, 84 Spadina Ave., Chairman of the Executive Committee, or to J. S. Robertson, Secretary-Treasurer of the National Sanitarium Association, 347 King Street West, Toronto, Ontario.

THE MONTREAL CARNIVAL.

An extraordinary feature in connection with the Winter Carnival at the Palace at Montreal has been the sale of the Official Souvenir, issued by the "Canadian Pictorial." The first edition was exhausted in half a day, and the second day saw the publishing offices besieged by a howling mob of men and boys, clamoring for souvenir numbers to sell. The capacity of the presses has been doubled and the staff is working day and night to supply the demand, which has already gone beyond all bounds. The publishers tell us that all orders forwarded at once will be filled, of course in the order that they are received. With nearly fifty pages aggregating some 2,000 square inches of exquisite copper etchings, the Souvenir certainly is brimful of the varied joys of the Canadian Winter, and will win admiration for itself wherever it goes. It will be treasured in thousands of Canadian homes and sent by the thousands to friends abroad. The price is only 15 cents. The "Pictorial" Publishing Company, 112 St. Peter Street, Montreal.
