SAID TO BE FINE.
THIS SIMPLE HOME-MADE TREATMENT WILL OVERCOME RHEUMATISM.
Few people here know that you can cure that dread American disease, Rheumatism, with just common, everyday drugs found in any drug store. The prescription is so simple that any one can prepare it at home at small cost. It is made up as follows: Get from any good prescription pharmacy Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. These are all simple ingredients, making an absolutely harmless home remedy at little cost.
Rheumatism, as every one knows, is a symptom of deranged kidneys. It is a condition produced by the failure of the kidneys to properly filter or strain from the blood the uric acid and other matter, which, if not eradicated, either in the urine or through the skin pores, remains in the blood, decomposes and forms about the joints and muscles, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.
This prescription is said to be a splendid healing, cleansing and invigorating tonic to the kidneys, and gives almost immediate relief in all forms of bladder and urinary troubles and back-ache.

REV. DR. KNOWLES' LECTURE.
Rev. Robert Knowles, M.A., pastor of Knox Church, Galt, was greeted by a large and appreciative audience last Thursday evening when he gave his popular lecture, "Secrets of Scotch Success," in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. E. C. Currie, pastor, presided, and in introducing the speaker of the evening, referred to the well-known ability of the lecturer, and the pleasure and profit that had been derived from a perusal of his books. In the early part of the evening Mr. J. E. Newton contributed a musical selection on the organ, and this was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Ethel Switzer.
Dr. Knowles in portraying Scottish character and the secrets of their success, pointed out that many people had a wrong conception as to what success really is. For instance in speaking of a young lady's marriage, the question is often asked: "Did she marry well?" meaning probably, "is her husband wealthy?" Success is not judged by dollars and cents. A rich fool is a terrific failure. There was a rich vein of humor through the lecture from beginning to end. In fact it seemed somewhat difficult for the doctor to be really serious. In speaking of the power of music the lecturer said that music never killed anybody, "unless it might be the bag pipes." The Scotch were naturally conservative. They still eat porridge because their forefathers did. The Scotch, like the Irish, are superstitious. For instance "they think it unlucky to be struck by lightning on a Tuesday." The Scotch were quick in detecting shams, which they looked down upon with contempt. A man should be referred to as a nobleman, not because he enjoys rank above a commoner, but because he is dignified in his bearing, and honorable in his dealings with all men. The lecturer made it clear that he believed not in aristocratic notions, but rather in the simple life. The last point touched upon was the religious character of the Scotchman. With another touch of humor Mr. Knowles said a Scotchman is religious even when he is bad.
Rev. A. P. Brace, in moving a vote of thanks to the lecturer, said it was humorous, bright and inspiring.
Mr. Currie expressed a hope that the lecturer might return on a future occasion and deliver another lecture on a popular subject, possibly "The Cotter's Saturday Night."

A BARGAIN IN WHEELS.
If you are in need of a wheel you cannot do better than leave your order at THE LIBERAL Office for a Hyslop. That name has been before the public for a number of years and stands for goods of high quality. They are selling bicycles for just about half the price of what we sold for last year. They are able to make the cut because they are dealing direct with their agents, and are not employing travelers. You can order at THE LIBERAL Office, a beautiful wheel for $25, and if you wish a Coaster Brake and Mud Guards, you can get them for an extra charge of $4.00.

Special attention will be given to various phases of practical Christian work under the direction of Rev. H. W. Pope. Open air, tent and gospel-wagon meetings will be held daily. A Little Shoe Talk:
The average man in buying a pair of shoes pays so much for them and so long as shape suits him leaves the rest of it to the dealer. Now the average dealer buys a shoe at so much and sells it for so much. Where is the wearer protected? Nowhere!

We buy our shoes in all cases direct from the manufacturers and the goods are sold on their merits. We are always pleased to make right any that do not give satisfactory wear.

We guarantee you that no shoe leaves our store from regular stock in which you will find any card-board insoles. All our shoes are solid leather with leather insoles and sole leather counters.
