INCREASED GRANT.

So marked has been the success attending the field-crop competition of the past year, inaugurated by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, that an increased grant has been obtained A large stock of Funeral Furnishing | for this work. In a letter to the directors of agricultural societies, Supt. J. L. Wilson limits the number of societies taking part to 100, and the first ones applying have the preference. The main objects that are claimed for this work are set forth also, and those who have participated know that the case is not overstated.
