Gambling not Allowed on Railways.

The following paragraphs are taken from the Criminal Code. Do they apply to electric railways? If so, it might be well if the management of the Metropolitan Railway would see that the rules relating to gambling for money are enforced. A section of the Criminal Code reads as follows:—

Sect. 234.—Every one is guilty of an indictable offence who is guilty of one year's imprisonment who:

(a)—In any railway car or steamboat used as a public conveyance for passengers, by means of any game of cards, dice or other instrument of gambling, or by any device of like character, obtains from any other person any money, chattel, valuable security or property;

(b)—Attempts to commit such offence by actually engaging any person in any such game with intent to obtain money or other valuable thing from him.

2. Every conductor, master, or superior officer in charge of, and every clerk or employee when authorized by the conductor, master or superior officer in charge of, any railway train or steamboat, station or landing place in or at which any such offence, as aforesaid, is committed or attempted, shall, with or without warrant, arrest any person whom he has good reason to believe to have committed or attempted to commit any such offence, and take him before a justice, and make complaint of such offence on oath, in writing.

3. Every conductor, master or superior officer in charge of any such railway car or steamboat, who makes default in the discharge of any such duty is liable, on summary conviction, to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than twenty dollars.

4. It shall be the duty of every person who owns or works any such railway car or steamboat to keep a copy of this section posted up in some conspicuous part of such railway car or steamboat.

5. Every person who makes default in the discharge of such duty is liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred dollars and not less than twenty dollars.
55-56 v., c. 29, s. 203.

PROMINENT BARRISTER DEAD.
Mr. Herbert L. Dunn of Toronto Succumbs to Pneumonia.

After an illness of only ten days of pneumonia he died yesterday at his residence on Walmer road Mr. Herbert L. Dunn of the firm of Denton, Dunn & Boulton, one of the best known barristers of the city. Mr. Dunn had a very wide circle of friends, among whom he was held in high esteem.
He was a great student, having graduated from the University of Toronto in 1882 as a medalist in classics. He was possessed of excellent literary tastes, and published several works, one of which, a treatise on the "Law of Mortgages," is still being used as a text-book in the Law School.

The late Mr. Dunn was an active member of St. Alban's Cathedral, and took a great interest in St. Alban's School. Deceased was only forty-eight years of age, having been born at Peterboro', Ontario, in 1861, and leaves a widow, a son and five daughters. Three brothers also survive—Wm. R. Dunn of the International Harvester Company, Hamilton; Chas.
N. Dunn of Port Huron and Ernest A. Dunn of Wausau, Wisconsin. A curious coincidence is the fact that only on Sunday last word was received of the death of a younger brother, David C. Dunn, in Schenectady,
New York.—Monday Globe.

MAY ROD AND GUN.

Variety is the dominating feature of the May number of Rod and Gun in Canada, published by W. J. Taylor, Woodstock, Ont. In accord with the season there are some good fishing stories, while hunting receives such a full share of attention that moose, deer, bear, wolves and wild geese all have particular stories given up to them. Two fine exploration papers—an illustrated review of Mr. Tyrrel's book, "Through the Sub-Arctic of Canada," and one by Mr. Dickson describing a personal trip through Northern Ontario—give us some little idea of how much remains to be done in exploration work in Canada. Mr.
Clapham has another fine dog article, "The Begle for Sport," which all dog-lovers will peruse with interest. The decision of the Ontario Government to have licensed guides is noted and the Order-in-Council dealing with the matter printed in full. This number completes the tenth volume, and attention is drawn to the volume and the magazine in Forest, Fish and Game Protection and the manner in which the movement in its favor has spread throughout Canada. If future numbers are as good as this birthday issue there can be no doubt at all as to the future of Rod and Gun.

WHAT'S IN McCLURE'S.

President Taft, in an article in Mc-Clure's Magazine for May, answers the critics of the Panama Canal. He declares that the lock type was the best type of canal to build, and he dares hope that it will be finished before 1915, and that the cost will fall below $297,000,000. Arthur Woods, a Deputy Police Commissioner in New York City, contributes a timely article on the Black Hand Society which was responsible for the murder of Detective Petrosino; Jupson C. Welliver describes the latest monopoly, "The National Water Power Trust"; George F.
Parker quotes Cleveland's opinions of McKinley, Bryan, Cortelyou and others; Benjamin Brooks describes the work of "The Webfoot Engineer," and makes clear to the layman the mysteries of tunnel-building; Guglielmo Ferrero, the Italian historian, writes about the part played by "The Vine in Roman History," and a Tuscan lady, who was in Messina at the time of the earthquake, contributes a human document on that great disaster. There are four good short stories, and another instalment of Mrs. Humphry Ward's novel, "Marriage à la Mode."

Ogilvie's wheat granules, a royal breakfast food, a 6-lb. sack for 30c.; Jersey cream of wheat in 6-lb. sacks, 25c.; cream of wheat in bulk, 5c. lb.
Atkinson & Switzer.

A newspaper publisher recently brought suit against forty-five men who would not pay their subscriptions and obtained judgment in each claim. Of these, twenty-eight made affidavit that they owned no more than the law allowed preventing attachment. Then under prevention of the supreme court they were arrested for petty larceny and bound over in the sum of $300 each. All but six gave bond, while six went to jail. The new postal law makes it payable to take a paper and refuse to pay for it.—Ex.

Boy's sweater coats, gray, gray and cardinal and gray and navy, assorted sizes, 50c. each; a nice assortment of boy's knickers in dark tweeds and navy serges, sizes 25-33. Atkinson & Switzer.

ALL GOOD THINGS

must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Smyce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: "It is indeed a marvelous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—just what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for." A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.
