

HOME RULE NOT DISMEMBERMENT.

The first article in The Weekly Sun this week written by A Bystander, treats of the struggle now going on between the Lords and the people of England. The writer claims that the Lords recently rendered themselves useful by throwing out the bill favoring Home Rule for Ireland, passed by the Commons, thus "saving the United Kingdom from dismemberment." A Bystander then points out the folly (?) of the Canadian Parliament in expressing any sympathy for the Homerulers. He says:—"It is worth remembering that the Canadian Parliament, with its imperialist professions, has more than once voted sympathy with Home Rule, that is for the dismemberment of the United Kingdom, the heart of the Empire."

The Canadian Parliament in expressing sympathy does not say, and does not mean, dismemberment or separation. They are only asking for Ireland that which we now enjoy in Canada, but which we did not get without a struggle.

WHO NEXT?

A recent number of Saturday Night states that Rev. W. F. Wilson has again been taken for another gentleman. While sitting in an hotel in St. Pauls a few days ago, returning from a convention, he was greeted by another delegate from Nebraska as follows: "Mr. Bryan, we want you to give us a lecture sure, about New Year's." Mr. Wilson replied that he would be pleased to comply with the request, but told the stranger that he had evidently made a mistake, thinking he was talking to the late Democratic candidate. A few years ago when Mr. Wilson gained his notoriety by being ordered by a policeman to "move on," it was generally thought at the time that the officer, who was an Orangeman, mistook his prisoner for a Catholic priest. These mistakes remind one of the story told about a man who had been wrongly taken for the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Argyle and other notables, and meeting another person the latter looked at him and said, "Holy Moses, is that you?"

It is not an uncommon thing at this season of the year for preachers to promise their congregations that if they will only come to church during the hot weather they will not have to listen to long sermons. We are satisfied that no apology is necessary on the part of the preachers. To prepare and deliver a sermon involves a large amount of energy, and is no easy task. Those, therefore, who simply sit and listen, and, if they feel inclined, fan themselves, have, surely, little to complain about.

As it rained this year on July 15, and as copious showers followed for several days thereafter, some people were about to believe in the popular superstition that if it rains on St. Swithin's Day it will rain for the next forty days. The fine weather during the present week, however, has convinced the haymakers in this district that the good saint who lived in the time of King Alfred has lost his grip on the weather. An occasional shower is a delight and a blessing, but a forty days' rain is too much like a reminder of Noah's flood.

The Christian Guardian last week, under the heading "Playgrounds and Profanity," expresses appreciation for the opening up of playgrounds for the recreation of young people, but points out that the noisy element is much in evidence in these places. One place is particularly referred to where the school grounds in a neighboring city were ordered to be closed after six o'clock until the board had time to consider the matter. It must be admitted with regret that profanity is indulged in on many playgrounds. Some boys and young men seem to think that the one who talks the loudest is the greatest hero of the party. To check a young man for misconduct is often an unpleasant task, yet preachers, teachers and all who profess to be good citizens should never miss an opportunity to speak a word of warning—even at the risk of popularity. Our best friends are not those who close their eyes and their ears when they see us and hear us do things and say things that they know are unbecoming. Every man should endeavor to be his brother's keeper, even if that brother does not thank him for the interest he shows on his behalf.

A MURDERER'S WARNING.

The Toronto World published a poem which it was said was written by Walter Blythe, who is now in Toronto Jail, awaiting execution for the murder of his wife. It is a strange production, but one verse is worthy of quotation as evidence that the unfortunate man realizes the cause of his fearful crime. He says:

As I sit and wait for Radcliffe
I will say my last farewell:
I advise you, give up liquor,
It will lead you down to hell;
Evil thoughts and bad companions
And a violent temper shun.
You'll be guilty of no action
That can never be undone.

Tuesday's receipts at Toronto customs house reached $100,351, the largest ordinary day's receipts in the house's history.

Earl Grey, the Governor-General, who is now in England, has been telling the British press of the importance of the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, and The Daily Mail and other leading English journals are urging British tradesmen to take advantage of the Exhibition as a means of showing their wares to the Canadian public.

HYSLOP BICYCLES

Bicycles are rapidly coming back into popular favor, the demand this year being five times what it was five years ago. We have planned for it in two ways—by getting the very best English wheel we can for popular selling, and saving to our customers all intermediate profits by filling orders direct by mail instead of through agents. In this way we can offer and give better satisfaction all round. The quality of the wheels is all right—only the best materials used and only skilled mechanics employed in construction. The equipment is right up-to-date and the machines throughout are such as we can thoroughly recommend. We sell automobiles as well as bicycles and our plan is to make wheels serve as a good advertisement to the entire business. Send for illustrated folder.

$50 Wheels for $25
