

PATRONIZE HOME.

There are times when people may be excused for going to the city and patronizing departmental stores. Stores in small villages and country places cannot keep the stock or variety that some customers expect to see before they purchase. Ladies may well be excused, also, in going away for certain articles of dress which are not frequently kept in small stores. But everybody should be loyal enough to patronize the home stores in hardware, groceries, ordinary articles of dress, in short, all staple goods. Every time citizens leave their own town to purchase goods that can be had just as well at home, they give their own town a knock by taking money out of it. Those people usually claim that the place in which they live is slow, and the stores are poor. Before they complain they should do what they can to make the place better. Citizens by helping their neighbors in business will in the end find that they have benefitted themselves.

The Cookstown Advocate says that "Auto owners in Orillia have agreed to refrain from running on one day in each week in order to make it safer for farmers' wives and daughters to drive upon the road." How considerate! The farmers' wives are, doubtless, thankful that they can go in the streets even one day in a week without endangering their lives.

A city paper contains the following editorial note: "One does not like to hear of men and boys fined for bathing in this hot weather, even if they neglect to don a bathing suit." This is a miserable excuse to offer for men who transgress the laws for bathers. It would be better to advise them to purchase the necessary garment for fifty cents. If men are to be allowed to go in bathing in public places without their proper clothing, why not allow them to parade King street during the warm weather?

A letter in last Friday's Globe points out that the high school act passed at the last session of the Local Legislature, which became law on the 13th of April, has created much confusion in disqualifying many trustees who may have been acting as secretary or treasurer of a High School Board. The act states that a trustee shall not be appointed secretary or treasurer, and that "a trustee who sits or votes at any meeting of the board while disqualified shall incur a penalty of $20 for each meeting." The public school act (cap 89) imposes no such penalties, disabilities or forfeitures on trustees elected thereunder. The writer contends—and we think justly—that an act such as the above should not come into force until the first of January next, after being assented to.

By an unrevoked clause of the Bill of Rights, King Edward and all the Sovereigns of England since the year 1689 have been required to take a statutory declaration in which they declare that they believe that certain doctrines of the Church of Rome are "superstitious and idolatrous." There is reason to believe that King Edward regretted that he was compelled to take a declaration that was offensive to millions of his subjects. King Edward is doubtless like many other people in being loath to wound the feelings of another unless it can be shown that they are the wounds of a friend.

A week or two ago the question was asked in the Catholic Register: "Is it a sin to assist at any Protestant service through curiosity?" The editor answered it in these words: "As a general rule it is. Just as we are not allowed to read bad books through curiosity, so we are not allowed to assist at a false worship through curiosity."

People may honestly hold different views concerning forms of worship. We cannot see, however, what good can be accomplished by Protestants referring to the Catholic worship as "superstitious," or the Catholics proclaiming that Protestant worship is "false."

News Notes.

R. G. H. Evans, accountant in the Eglinton branch of the Bank of Montreal, was drowned Sunday afternoon while bathing in the lake near Centre Island, Toronto.

Unionville has been incorporated as a Police Village. Long stretches of concrete sidewalks have been laid down, and the board of commission promises other improvements in the near future.

It is reported in Monday's World that the special Commission appointed by the Ontario Government to select a site for the new Central Prison grounds have made an offer of $30,000 for "Burnandette Farm," the property of A. G. Gormley. The farm contains 300 acres and is situated a short distance from Unionville.

The descendants of the late John Hartman will, on the 6th of September, celebrate on the homestead now owned and occupied by Mr. L. L. Hartman, lot 80, Whitechurch, a mile east of Aurora, the 102nd anniversary of the settlement of the family on that farm. A large number of invitations have been issued.

David Mulholland, youngest son of the late Thomas Mulholland, passed away on Friday at his late residence, Bedford Park. Deceased was 46 years of age, and on the death of his father had succeeded to the Mulholland estate, "Manor Farm," which has been in the family for a century and a half. Death came with unexpected suddenness. He was very highly esteemed in business and church circles, and was a man of most optimistic nature, always cheering up others of a different disposition.

CHOOSE YOUR WORDS.

(From "Success Magazine.")

A lady who was very plain looking called on a friend.

This friend's little girl came into the room and her mother introduced her.

"But mamma, isn't she homely," said the "young hopeful."

"Why, Laura, you mustn't say such things, it isn't polite."

"I meant it only as a joke."

"But, dear, how much more of a joke it would have been if you had said 'how pretty she is.'"

TREASURES IN ART.

Famous pictures from the leading art galleries of Europe will again be a feature of the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto. The permanent agent cables that he has secured many of the leading pictures of the year, and that the list is coming by mail. In addition to this there will be an exhibit of art photography by the leading art photographers of England, Germany, France and Italy, and a graphic art exhibit by the leading illustrators of New York, including such men as Frederick Remington, Maxfield Parish and Charles Dana Gibson.

ABOUT YOUR TEETH?

There are many ways of fixing them. No two cases are alike. Come and let us tell you "How" and "Why" and "if."

We advise free. Health and appearance depend upon your teeth. Give the matter careful thought?
