

THEY ARE ANGELS FOR ALL

For the Child, the Man, the Family, the State, the Church.

They angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven.—Matt. xviii. 10.

Always, and not less now, men consciously or unconsciously, have turned inquiring glances toward that other world where the Deity reigns and His cohorts deploy their activity in His service.

This curiosity has never been shaken off. It is an inheritance of our nature, and, be he religious or irreligious, every one is helpless against its resistless fascination. It is all no weak proof that this haunting desire springs from the fact that we have not been made for this world, but are destined, thanks to the gracious God therefore, for a goal higher and more lasting.

Men run in vain solicitings to science and to uncredentialed oracles for some utterance to satisfy this restless, chafing curiosity, when with Bible in hand, every reverent Christian may in prayerful meditation learn all that it behooves to know, and more than frustrated attempts or blatant charlatany can ever reveal.

INNUMERABLE PASSAGES

In holy writ give the story of that supermundane sphere. Therein is recounted the rebellion against the omnipotent, the deaf, the punishment of the guilty and the reward unspeakable of those who were treason proof. We read of the unseen stairs the angels are climbing and descending with messages from God to man and with praise and thanksgiving and prayers from man to God.

The Son of Man in His eternity saw Satan and his minions fall like lightning from heaven. There is flashed upon us that reign with its two kingdoms, the kingdom of light and the kingdom of darkness. In one the powers are set against God and all that is godly. The powers on the other are champions of the right of the Divinity, and protectors of all who rely upon their succor. God's commands are being executed with more than aerial swiftness, and no mortal is unsafe, save the one who refuses the blessed ministrations of those who were faithful from the dawn of time.

If the child has his angel, how much more certainly has the man, for the man needs him more.

Much and everything needful does Scripture tell us. Its pages are vocal with the melody of the

RUSTLING OF ANGEL WINGS.

In fact, the uplifting and helpful story is narrated in its entirety, as those spirits energize in those last stretches of duration from the angel of the flaming sword to the bright one who came to John and unveiled all the glories of the New Jerusalem. There is no story, save that of Him crucified, more satisfying, more consoling, more invigorating. Why search elsewhere than in Scripture?

As early as Deuteronomy, the world was warned against trifling with those realms so near and yet so far away. "Neither let there be found one among you that seeketh the truth from the dead. For the Lord abhorreth all such things."—Deut. xviii. 12.

The attitude the Scriptures urge is so simple, so sublime. That attitude in one of prayer and worship. Such an attitude takes so much away from the loneliness of our pilgrimage. Wait, and be contrite and humble, and our angels, when the summons sounds, will lift us gently from our couch of death and place us in the arms of the loving Father, whose face they always see.

REV. P. A. HALPIN.

20. Because of the hope of Israel I am bound—Verse 22 shows that they understood perfectly that Paul was referring to the promised Messiah.

21. Neither received letters from Judaea—If letters were sent, it would not be strange if they were lost, a thing that happened often in the Roman world. But it is improbable that any ship could have arrived from Caesarea, bearing news, before Paul's, especially as no word would be sent to Rome about Paul before it was decided he should himself be sent.

Nor did . . . brethren . . . report . . . harm of thee—If they had any to report, the fact that the ban upon the Jews had only recently been removed (Acts 18. 2) would deter them, as they would have no desire to expose their nation to hostile criticism by calling attention to a religious quarrel.

22. It is known to us—Evidently church and synagogue were already distinct at Rome. The expulsion of Jews under Cladius was probably the cause.

23. The kingdom of God—The Jewish wish of speaking of the Messianic hope.

26, 27. From Isa. 6. 9. Words used also by our Lord against the Jews.

30. Two whole years—During this time he wrote the Epistles to the Philippians, Colossians, Ephesians, and Philemon. For the rest we must depend on hints in the epistles as to Paul's employment. Such delays of justice were not uncommon. In this case, three reasons have been given: (1) loss of papers in the wreck; (2) non-appearance of accusers; (3) difficulty of finding witnesses. With Paul were Luke, Aristarchus, Tychicus, Timothy, Epaphroditus, Epaphras, Mark, Demas, for longer or shorter periods.

His own hired dwelling—Money was supplied him by the Philippians (Phil. 4. 18) and others.

31. None forbidding him—It is generally believed that Paul was released at this time, and that he suffered martyrdom a few years later.

NO LONGER TORTURED

A Sergt.-Wheeler in R.C.A. Finds Cure from Agonizing Skin Disease.

Sergt. Wheeler Thos P. Bennett, R. C. A., who lives at 705 Albert St., Ottawa, describes the relief which he got from D. D. D. Prescriptions:

"It gives me great pleasure to commend D. D. D. to sufferers from skin diseases. For three years I suffered intensely from a skin disease which I developed on the back of my neck. It grew continually and sometimes cast off scales. Neighbors' advice, prescriptions, salves and expensive blood medicines were lavishly used. At last I found relief in D. D. D. used according to directions. It required just one bottle to effect a cure. I am no longer tortured, so I have no hesitancy in acknowledging to the world the worth and great virtue of D. D. D."

Blood medicines cannot kill the germs in the skin which cause eczema and other skin diseases. Salves fail because they cannot penetrate. D. D. D. goes right into the pores, kills the germs and cures.

IN THE LAUNDRY

Laundry Bag.—Take a piece of linen about twice the size of a common laundry bag, fold it and scallop it around in light blue or pink. Work the monogram in the centre of the bag. Pad both the monogram and the border heavily. Work large eyelets about two and one-half inches from the top of bag and run through these a cord to match the work. It makes a useful as well as dainty gift.

Removing Obstinate Stains.—Put a teaspoonful of powdered sulphur in a saucer and add a few drops of alcohol and ignite. Place a funnel over this, point upward. Wet stained linen and hold over point of funnel. Fumes will remove the most obstinate of stains. Good for fruit stains of long standing.

Lace Curtains.—Cut strips of strong, unbleached muslin, about one and one-half inches wide the desired length of curtains. Sew strips onto plain edges of curtains with a long machine stitch. Pin curtains into frame the usual way, and when dry the stitching can easily be ripped, (while still in frame) with sharp ripping knife. By this method the curtain edges are perfectly straight, thus avoiding the "points" always made in pinning into the edge. The same strips can be used year after year. This idea can also be utilized in laundering centerpieces on which it is difficult to obtain a straight edge.

Peach Stains.—The best way is to pour boiling water through stained article before washing. If this process is neglected, however, there is another that takes the stains out after article has been washed. Dampen and lay on ice in refrigerator with stain next to the ice. It may require two or three freezings, but is a simple and sure way.

For Irons.—Place a piece of a cedar bough upon the ironing table and occasionally rub the hot iron on the cedar, especially when ironing starched articles, and you will be delighted with the ease with which you complete your ironing. Any kind of cedar will do, but the prickly kind seems best. The cedar thus used is far more satisfactory than paraffine or beeswax or anything else we have tried.

Soutache.—Stretch the embroidered parts to remove all wrinkles. Iron over the braid to smooth it. You will not be pleased with the appearance of the linen beneath, but turn the garment, lay the embroidery upon a double or triple thickness of a white Turkish towel which will permit the braid to sink into its soft surface and the back of the linen, following it with a medium iron. Iron all parts perfectly dry or they will wrinkle again and be unattractive. Iron embroidered scallops in the same manner and clip any loose threads that may escape from scallops or edges. A pair of manicure scissors is good for this purpose.

CAKES.

Apple Cake.—One cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of butter or lard, one cupful apple sauce with one teaspoonful of soda stewed in it, one cupful of raisins, one teaspoonful cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful of cloves, pinch of salt, 1 1/4 cupfuls of flour.

Economy Cake.—When a cake has been a failure on account of being too rich, do not throw out, but take one-half cupful of sugar, one small tablespoonful of butter, one egg, and two cupfuls of milk. Break cake up in small pieces and stir all thoroughly until smooth. To one cup of flour add one heaping teaspoonful of baking powder and flavor to taste. This is especially good as nut cake.

Brown Cake.—For a delicious and inexpensive cake, especially when eggs and butter are high, the following recipe will be found most acceptable. No eggs are required: Cream together one cupful brown sugar and one-half cupful butter, add one cupful thick sour milk, one teaspoonful soda, one teaspoonful cinnamon, one-half teaspoonful cloves, one cupful or more of seeded raisins or any other fruit desired, two cupfuls of flour.

TONIC TREATMENT FOR INDIGESTION

Remedies That Digest the Food Will Not Cure the Trouble—The Stomach Must be Fitted to do Nature's Work.

The tonic treatment for indigestion, dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach and gastritis is having remarkable success in curing obstinate cases and deserves attention from every sufferer.

Its principal is that remedies for indigestion that digest the food for the stomach give relief for only a short time. Ultimately they unfit the stomach to do its own proper work, because they make its already weak powers still weaker by disuse, while the remedy that strengthens the stomach makes it capable of digesting the food for itself, and this benefit is lasting. A remedy that is not only a tonic for the stomach, but for the blood and nerves as well, invigorates the entire system and makes recovery from the painful, weakening effects of indigestion rapid and thorough. Every sufferer from indigestion will find in Dr. Williams' Pink Pills just the tonic needed, as they enrich the blood, tone the stomach and thus enable it to do the work nature intended it should do. This has been proved in thousands of cases, and it is worth the while of every sufferer from stomach trouble to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a fair trial. Mr. Edward Chatterton, Campbellton, N. B., says:—"I have been a great sufferer from indigestion and stomach trouble and although I had treatment from several doctors, I did not find a cure until I began using Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I can hardly describe how much I suffered at times. Every meal brought with it more or less agony, and I seemed to have a complete distaste for food. I had almost begun to think my case incurable when I came across a pamphlet advertising Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to give them a trial. I am very thankful that I did so, for I had not been taking the Pills long before I found them helping me, and in six weeks every symptom of the trouble had vanished. I can now eat heartily almost any kind of food, and no longer experience pain and discomfort after eating."

It is because Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make new, rich blood that they cure such troubles as indigestion, rheumatism, neuralgia, headaches and backaches, St. Vitus dance, and other forms of nerve troubles. They cure the irregularities of girlhood and womanhood, and bring ease, comfort and health to sufferers. Virginia Fruit Cake.—One pound butter, two eggs beaten separate, two pounds dark brown sugar, two pounds flour, sifted, two pounds seeded raisins, chopped, two pounds citron, chopped, one pound currants, two cups molasses, one cup of clear, strong coffee, one cup of brandy, two tablespoonfuls of cloves, two tablespoonfuls of allspice, two tablespoonfuls of cinnamon, two teaspoons of baking powder. Cream sugar and butter; mix all together; white of eggs last. Sift flour in slowly. Bake in a slow oven for two hours. This will make two large cakes.

Debutante's Cake.—One cupful granulated sugar and yolks of two eggs beaten together to a white cream. Work in slowly one-half cupful of melted butter. Add very slowly one scant cupful of milk. Sift together three times one and one-half cupfuls of flour and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder and add slowly to the mixture one cupful of finely chopped walnuts, lightly floured, one teaspoonful of vanilla, and lastly add the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs. Bake in a loaf tin, in a moderate oven, for one-half hour. When cool enough ice the top thickly, either with boiled icing or any other kind desired.
