

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL ONT., NOV. 25, 1909

LOCALS.

York County Council meets next Monday, the 29th of November.

By leaving your order at THE LIBERAL Office NOW, you will be sure to get a copy of the Christmas Globe.

Mr. Walter Eyer and his mother left Wednesday afternoon for Hesper to attend the funeral of Mrs. Isaac Cober.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Savage on Monday attended the funeral of Mr. Hillman, a relative of the latter, in Toronto.

Mr. C. P. Wiley left Tuesday to spend a week in New York City with his brother, Mr. Douglas Wiley, who is in poor health.

Mrs. Rauldolph of Seattle, who purposes spending the winter with her mother, Mrs. McLellan, in Toronto, is visiting for a few days with Mr. G. Wiley and Miss Wiley.

We are pleased to be able to state that Mr. John Palmer, though yet very weak, has been feeling a little stronger this week, and was able to sit up in an easy chair for a short time.

Rev. E. C. Currie had a bilious attack last Sunday and was unable to take the morning service. Later in the day, however, he got out of bed and preached in the evening.

Few cases of importance came before Judge Morgan at Division Court here last Saturday. People appear to be learning the method of settling their differences out of court.

Dr. Langstaff spent over Sunday in Rochester with his sister, Miss Eleanor Langstaff, who had been taken suddenly ill. Miss Langstaff was much better when the Dr. left her Monday morning.

A watch found several weeks ago, and left at THE LIBERAL Office, has not yet been called for. Will the owner identify the article and take it away. Our staff are getting tired of winding it up.

Mr. Harry Sanderson has been appointed by the Ontario Government to the position of Assistant Inspector on the Hydro Electric Commission. Mr. Sanderson started duties Tuesday. For the present he will be located on the power line between Berlin and Guelph.

Those intending to send Christmas post cards to their friends across the ocean should get them at once. In fact, now is the time to select all your Christmas post cards while the selection is good. Very pretty cards at THE LIBERAL Office.

Toronto papers last week referred to the death of the unfortunate woman, Mrs. Delia Harris, well known in this place. Her dead body was found lying in a vacant yard behind a wooden shanty at the corner of Bay and Adelaide streets. Dissipation was given as the cause.

Noted missionaries who have delivered addresses in the Richmond Hill churches this fall are Mrs. Goforth and Rev. Messrs. Ridout, Kilborn and Ono. Some person has placed their names in the form of a missionary command as follows:—Go forth, ride out, kill horn, O no!

A meeting of the Curling Club will be held in the Council Chamber next Tuesday evening, the 30th inst., at 8 o'clock. Everybody interested is requested to attend, and come prepared to join. Skips for the trophy competitions will be selected, and other important business will be transacted.

As Mr. D. Sloan contemplates going into business in Toronto, he has sold his cottage on Centre Street. Mrs. W. J. Clark is the buyer, but it will be occupied after the first of December by Mrs. J. Malloy of Teston. The price paid is $1,200. Mr. Sloan and family will move into Mrs. H. Blanchard's residence for the winter.

The "Toronto News" is to be congratulated upon the high class serial stories, instalments of which appear daily. They are by the best authors, and are interesting up to the last chapters. We understand The News has just procured the Canadian serial rights on "The Circular Stair Case." Our readers can have the pleasure of reading the enthralling story by subscribing for The News daily and THE LIBERAL once a week for $2.50 a year, at this office.

NEW FARM PAPER.

Farmers can make no mistake in subscribing for The Canadian Farm, which made its appearance in Toronto last July. Its editorial columns are filled with the finest contributions, and every page has special features. The paper is well illustrated, and is national in character. Another prominent feature of The Canadian Farm is its market reports. Subscribers of THE LIBERAL get this weekly paper at 50 cents a year. Call for sample copy.

THE VERY OLDEST PRINTER.

Richmond Hill claims the honor of having as an esteemed citizen not only the oldest postmaster in the Dominion, but also the oldest printer in Canada. The question as to who is the oldest Canadian printer has recently been discussed in the Daily Star. The distinction was first claimed for Mr. Butler of Hamilton, who started as a printer in 1846. Mr. Geo. Clouthier of Toronto, was then put forward by one of the Star readers, having entered the business in 1838. Mr. M. Teely, our postmaster, on the 17th inst. wrote the Star pointing out that he began work in 1836. We take the following from his interesting letter:—
"I was born on April 18th, 1822, and started at the trade in 1836, as an apprentice to Mr. Thomas Dalton, publisher and editor of The Patriot newspaper, and continued until his death. The office foreman's name was Wac Myers; the names of two of the compositors, that I remember, were James Austin, late president of the Dominion Bank, and James Mackenzie, son of the late Mr. Wm. Lyon Mackenzie. During my apprenticeship I took part in printing the "appendix" to Lord Durham's celebrated report on Canadian affairs, a copy of which I have among my collection of old documents."

AN HOUR WITH MOZART.

The Sherwood Music Club are presenting an attractive Mozart program at their meeting this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock in the studio of Mr. Newton, "Rock Haven." The "piece de resistance" of the evening will probably be the charming Overture to the opera the Magic Flute arranged for two pianos, eight hands. All music lovers are invited to be present. Invitations may be had from Mr. Newton or any of the pupils of the school.

Maple.

The teachers and pupils of the Public school are to be congratulated on the success of their concert last Friday evening. The hall was crowded and the proceeds amounted to $20.35. Mr. J. T. Saigeon acted as chairman.

Mrs. B. Jackson and little son, and Miss Ethel Rupert, arrived home on Saturday, after spending the past two months near Steller, Alta.

Mr. C. W. Mulloy paid an official visit to our Public school last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Rosamond, of Newmarket, visited at Mr. J. H. Kirby's from Saturday till Monday.

Mr. Mylks, who is engaged as baker by Mr. C. Norman, has moved with his family into the house lately occupied by Mr. Vaughan.

Rheumatism promptly driven from the blood by Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy. Don't waste time with common remedies. A test will surely tell. In tablet or liquid form. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

There is a prospect of another missionary treat for the members and friends of the Epworth League on Friday evening. It is the occasion of the annual visit of the officers of the Toronto Central District. In company with them will come Rev. Dr. McKenzie, a returned missionary from Japan. Dr. McKenzie is the founder of the Orphanage in Japan, and will bring to us many interesting experiences. Let us not miss the opportunity of learning more of God's other children from one whose life has touched theirs. Shall what we might have known condemn us for what we know?

CINDERELLA.

That charming little play known as "Cinderella" will be given by the Sabbath School of the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, the 23rd of December. The play contains five scenes, and will doubtless draw a full house. Particulars will be given later.

Teston.

The Pumpkin Pie Social held in the Temperance Hall Tuesday evening of this week was a great success. The programme was well rendered and the tea was up to the standard. The proceeds were nearly $30, and a good collection was taken on Sunday evening, when Rev. J. W. Gordon preached to a full church. The young people of the Epworth League are to be congratulated on the success.

THE "SCORNER'S CHAIR."

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL:

Sir,—In your last issue, my attention was drawn to a letter written by one "E. C. Civitas," touching on the loafing habit which is so prevalent in our village, and which is becoming a nuisance to many respectable citizens, as well as a disgrace unrecognized by those who indulge therein.

In his letter he gives some very good and practical suggestions for its abolition, and among them he speaks of the advisability of having the Public Library Reading Room open every evening, and the establishment of a room in the Lorne Block by the Village Council for a club room.

Now, Sir, while these things would be all right for our village, and perhaps would not entail much expense on the part of the rate-payers, yet I am of the opinion, and that recently, that the class of men who lounge on the steps of the Lorne Block, spitting on the sidewalk, and giving offence to passing pedestrians, are not of the class who would patronize a reading room, club room, or anything in that line.

Then, again, common sense suggests that a man or boy behave himself in a seemly manner on the street, and if these so-called men or boys do not know how to behave themselves, it should be left to their ignorance. However, I am of the opinion that it should be put a stop to, and that soon.

Very Truly Yours,

NUFF SAID.

Richmond Hill, Nov. 22, 1909.

A REMEDY WANTED.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL:

Dear Sir,—Our attention has been called to a letter written by "E. C. Civitas," re establishing a club house, or a place of some kind in which the young men of this village might spend their evenings, instead of on the street corners.

We, as boys of the village, wish to suggest that a Young Men's Christian Association be established for a start, or something of that kind, and let it be in the hands of some responsible person or committee to look after it and see that rules and regulations are carried out.

We understand that some of the churches in Toronto have been starting something similar to this. We heartily agree with the writer of the letter in the last issue that the Council should help the churches and put this in force. And we also think that there is no use finding fault with the boys for loafing on the corners until something similar to this is done.

TWO OF THE BOYS.

Richmond Hill, Nov. 23, 1909.

A clergyman writes: "Preventics, those little Candy Cold Cure Tablets, are working wonders in my parish." Preventics surely will check a cold, or the Grippe, in a very few hours. And Preventics are so safe and harmless. No Quinine, nothing harsh nor sickening. Fine for feverish restless children. Box of 48 at 25c. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

Vellore.

A quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Duncan MacKinnon, Vellore, Thursday, Nov. 18, when his only daughter, Mary Donald MacDonald, was united in marriage to Mr. William A. Craib, of Toronto. Rev. James Gordon, of Maple, performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming attired in a princess gown of brown silk, trimmed with soutache braid and jet buttons. She also wore a splendid gold hand bracelet, the gift of the groom. Miss Annie M. MacDonald, of Vellore, made a pretty bridesmaid, costumed in brown panama skirt with ecru net blouse. Mr. Thomas R. Whitelaw, of Toronto Police Force, very ably supported the groom. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a pretty gold brooch, and to the best man a gold scarf pin. The happy couple left on the evening train amid showers of rice and good wishes for their future home in Toronto.

Ladies' and Men's Morocco Kid Gauntlet Gloves, good lining, assorted sizes, ladies $1.25 pr., men's $1.00 pr., boys' lined Kid Gloves $1.00 pr. Atkinson & Switzer.

Hope.

Mr. Castator, accompanied by Miss Parsons of Weston, were the guests of Miss M. Crook last Sunday.

The people of this vicinity are glad to see that Mrs. George Cook, "Highland" farm, is able to be around again after her recent illness.

The people of this place are indeed sorry to hear of the illness of Miss Myrtle Crook, "Grand View" farm. We look for her speedy recovery.

Mrs. D. McMillen, "Willow Grove" farm, is suffering from an attack of blood poison in the hand.

Mr. George Crook, "Maple Grove" farm, is greatly improving his farm by removing a large number of stones and stumps.

FARM PROFITS

May be largely increased by knowing the exact condition of the farmer's market, and by learning of the best method in farm practice. This is precisely the sort of information the Farmers' Weekly Sub gives in every issue. It has no equal as a Farmer's Business Paper. Good farmers rely on it. For price see our clothing offer.
