

WORN, WORRIED MOTHERS.

Much of the worry which every mother of young children undergoes would be spared if the mother kept Baby's Own Tablets on hand and gave an occasional dose when the child was fretful, cross or feverish. Nearly all the ailments of childhood can be traced to the stomach, bowels or teething. For these troubles no medicine can equal Baby's Own Tablets, and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that the Tablets are absolutely safe. Mrs. Ed. Suddard, Haldimand, Que., says: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets in my home for a long time and always with the best results. I do not know how I could get along without this medicine." Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Quick Wink.

The closing of the eye, the rest and the opening of it have been measured and are found to consume three hundred and ninety-five one-thousandths of a second. This is a quick wink, and winks have been measured that required forty-one-thousandths of a second more time. For these measurements especially arranged photographic apparatus is required, and then when a bit of white paper is placed on the eyelid its motions can be accurately determined. In a quick wink the closing of the eye has been found to require seventy-five one-thousandths of a second, the rest twice as long and the opening one hundred and seventy-one one-thousandths of a second.

A mean revenge.

The Monday ministers' meeting has yielded a new story. A clergyman in order to avoid unnecessary calls withdrew his name from the telephone book. Soon a lumber merchant with a similar name complained that the calls came to him. The clergyman regretted his inability to do anything in the matter. The next parishioner who called up the lumberman was requested to go to another climate and not "interrupt my sermon." The clergyman's name is now printed in the book.

He Popped.

A gentleman who had been in Chicago only three days, but who had been paying attention to a prominent Chicago belle, wanted to propose, but was afraid he would be thought too hasty. He delicately broached the subject as follows: "If I were to speak to you of marriage, after having only made your acquaintance three days ago, what would you say of it?" "Well, I should say never put off till to-morrow that which should have been done the day before yesterday."

Given Away.

A minister in Cornwall who was making a call upon a member of his flock who was a backslider asked: "What's come over you that I don't see you at church at all now?" "Heavens, man, you can't have seen me because I sit behind the pillar!" "The pillar, John? Good gracious, the pillar! Why, it's two years since it was removed from the front of your seat!"

OYSTERS.

Oyster Pie.—Put one quart of oysters with their juice in double boiler, add large lump of butter, a cup of boiling water, and salt and pepper to taste. Let cook until outer edge of oyster shrivels, then thicken with a little flour thickening, and cook two or three minutes to thicken gravy. Pour this in pudding dish lined with rich pie crust, and cover top also with crust; let cook in quick oven about twenty minutes, until it is a golden brown on top, and serve hot from table.

Escalloped Oysters.—Put in a buttered dish a thin layer of bread crumbs, then a layer of oysters, then layer of bread crumbs until dish is full, having the last layer bread crumbs; salting and peppering each layer. HOW SHE BROKE IT.

Marion, who has been taught to report her misdeeds promptly, came to her mother one day, sobbing penitently.

"Mother—I—broke a brick in the fireplace."

"Well, that is not very hard to remedy. But how on earth did you do it, child?"

"I pounded it with father's watch."

"You have an enormous appetite," said a thin man enviously. "What do you take for it?" "In all my experience," replied his plump friend, "I have found nothing more suitable than food."

NIVVER A WURRD.

The old man had served the church faithfully for many years, but, alas! money had been missed from the collecting boxes of late, and he was suspected of knowing something about it. At last the minister felt compelled to tackle him on the subject.

"Martin, have you heard of the money that is missing from the box?" he said.

"Yes," replied the old man imperturbably, "I've been a-hearin' something about it."

"Martin," the minister went on, "this dreadful business lies between you and me. We are the only two who have access to the missionary box. Either you or I must be the thief."

Martin nodded. "It's just as you say, sir," he agreed. "Only you and me has access to the box, and I think the best way out of it'll be for you to pay one-half and I pay the other, and just say no more about it."

UP TO STANDARD.

An American and an Englishman, walking through a town in Ireland, were discoursing upon the proverbial wit of the Irish. The American expressed some doubt as to whether it was as smart as it was generally believed to be, so they determined to test the next passer-by. Accordingly the following dialogue took place:

"Pat," said the American, "if the devil were to come along now which would he take first, you or me?"

"Sure, sir, it would be me," promptly replied Pat.

"And why is that?"

"Bedad, the crafty old gentleman is shure of you at any toime."

HIS HEAD WAS.

A well-known judge fell down a flight of stairs, recording his passage by a bump on every step until he reached the bottom. A servant ran to his assistance, and raising him up, said, "I hope your honor is not hurt?" "No," said the judge sternly, "my honor is not hurt, but my head is."

Time tries all things, and as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup has stood the test of years it now ranks as a leading specific in the treatment of all ailments of the throat and lungs. It will soften and subdue the most stubborn cough by relieving the irritation, and restore the affected organs to healthy conditions. Use will show its value. The Son—"My tailor. He says I'm the slowest chap he's got on his books."

"Has my boy been kind to dumb animals to-day?" "Yes, grandma; I let your canary out of the cage, and when my cat caught it, I set Towser on her."
