A failing tiny nerve—no larger than the finest silken thread—takes from the heart its impulse, its power, its regularity. The Stomach also has its hidden, or inside nerve. It was Dr.
Shoop who first told us it was wrong to drug a weak or failing Stomach, Heart or Kidneys. His prescription—Dr. Shoop's Restorative—is directed straight for the cause of these ailments—these weak and faltering inside nerves. This no doubt clearly explains why the Restorative has of late grown so rapidly in popularity.
Druggists say that those who test the Restorative even for a few days soon become fully convinced of its wonderful merit. Anyway, don't drug the organ. Treating the cause of sickness is the only sensible and successful way. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

THE HEIGHT OF MEANNESS.
Under the above heading an exchange says:—"It's mighty mean to patronize a merchant or grocer who will trust you until you get so far in debt to him that you are ashamed to see him, and then go and spend your cash somewhere else, where you could not get credit; but there are people who do it."

Nothing in the way of a Cough is quite so annoying as a tickling, wheezing, bronchial Cough. The quickest relief comes perhaps from a prescription known to Druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. And besides, it is so thoroughly harmless that mothers give it with perfect safety even to the youngest babes.
The tender leaves of a simple mountain shrub give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its remarkable curative effect.
A few days' test will tell. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

A special service will be held in the Methodist church next Sunday evening under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary, when an address will be given by Miss Brooks, a returned missionary from China. The offering will be taken up by the ladies, and two of the members will act as ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Brown who came from England recently, and have been staying at Mr. H. C. Bailey's, have moved to Richmond Hill. Mr. Brown has secured a position as blacksmith in Trench's carriage works.

Mr. T. Chaburn and family have moved into the house lately fixed up by Mr. W. McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. Mylks and Miss Hewitt of Arthur, are visiting at the home of Mr. W. Mylks.

Mr. Roy Jackson left last week for Saltcoats, where he intends to remain for the summer.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Auxiliary was held on Wednesday last week at the home of Mrs.
H. C. Bailey. Luncheon was served at the close of the meeting. A pleasant feature of the programme was the reading of an address and the presentation of a hand satchel with monogram to Mrs. J. Martin. The address was read by Mrs. J. T. Saigeon, and the presentation was made by Mrs. Bailey.
The following is the address:—

Mrs. J. MARTIN,
Dear Friend,—We, the members of the Maple Methodist Woman's Auxiliary and Ladies' Aid, take this opportunity of expressing our deep appreciation of the very valuable services you have rendered to our society during the past number of years. Your services have been cheerfully and faithfully given in every undertaking that has promoted the success of our society.
In all our meetings your kindly Christian spirit has been a stimulus and a blessing to us.

We deeply regret the fact that your connection as an active member of our society is about to be broken by your removal to the far west.

We are sure though absent from us in that far off country you shall not soon be forgotten by us.

We most earnestly pray that the presence of our Heavenly father, to whom space makes no difference, will go with you and your family and make you fruitful in every good work, and that when the journey in this short life is over, we may all meet in the "Homeland," when the Master will say "Well done."

We beg of you to accept this small memento of our esteem. When you look upon it may you be reminded that you have a place in our confidence and esteem.

MRS. J. T. SAIGEON, President, MRS. J. W. MORGAN, Secretary, MRS. H. C. BAILEY, Treasurer.

Mrs. Martin was completely taken by surprise, and replied in a few well chosen words, thanking the members for the gift and the kind words.

WHAT'S IN McCURE'S.

An excellent pen picture of the Duke of the Abruzzi, a modern prince with an amazingly romantic career, has the leading position in the April number of no less interest are: "Some Modern Ideas on Food," by Burton J. Hendrick, showing the baneful effects of meat diet; "Preventable of Blindness," by Marion Hamilton Carter, who takes up the cause of the needlessly blind, and shows that one-fourth of the children in the blind asylums are unnecessarily blind; "Follies in Criminal Procedure," by Charles B. Brewer, and "What Whiskey Is," by H. Parker Willis. Among the short stories are "The Purple Stockings," by Edwin Salisbury Field; "For the Sake of Her Children," by Octavia Roberts; "At Brady's," by Mary Heaton Vorse;
"The Curse of the Heretic," by Seumas McManus; and "The Kite," another war story by the author of "The Joint in the Harness." There are drawings by Andre Castaigne, Frederick Dorr

Tell Some Sick One

It Is Free If It Fails.
Will you do an act of Humanity?
Will you tell some sick friend of this, my remarkable offer?
Tell him or her, that you have learned of a medicine so certain that its maker dare say to the sick, "It is absolutely and unconditionally free if it fails."

And you, no doubt, already know of Dr.
Shoop's Restorative and its popularity.

For 20 years it has been the standard remedy for Stomach, Kidney and Heart ailments everywhere in America.

When the "inside" or controlling nerves of these vital organs begin to fail, it is Dr. Shoop's Restorative that has quickly vitalized, and strengthened, and brought these nerves and organs back to health again.

I do not dose the Stomach; nor stimulate the Heart or Kidneys—for that is all wrong.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative goes direct to the cause of these ailments—the falling, faltering, inside or controlling nerves. And herein lies the keynote to my success.

When these nerves are again made well and strong, then that is the certain end of all such sickness.

Too late it is a great satisfaction that I am the only physician able to say to the suffering sick, "Take my prescription for full 30 days, and if it fails to help you, the entire expense is mine—not yours."

Then why should the sick take any chance on any other medicine, whose maker dare not back it just as I do by this remarkable offer?

I also have a Rheumatic Remedy—and that remedy is covered by the same identical "No help, no pay" protective plan.

Besides, you are free to consult me just as you would your home physician. My advice and the book below are yours—and without cost.

Perhaps a word or two from me will clear up some serious ailment. I have helped thousands upon thousands by my private prescription or personal advice plan. My best effort is surely worth your simple request.

So let me send you an order at once. Take the message to some sick friend.

A postal will bring the opportunity.
I will have an honest and trustworthy druggist to whom you can conveniently go for the 30 day test.

But first, ask me for the order, for all druggists are not authorized to give the 30 day test.

So write me now and save all delays. Remember that tomorrow never comes. Address Dr. Shoop, Box 12, Racine, Wis.

Which Book Shall I Send You?
No. 1 On Dyspepsia No. 4 For Women
No. 2 On the Heart No. 5 For Men No. 3 On the Kidneys No. 6 On Rheumatism.
