STEVENSON—BAGG.

A very pretty wedding took place at Hillcrest Farm, Edgeley, on March 23, when Ida Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bagg, was married to Mr. Kenneth Stevenson of Woodbridge. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Morgan of Maple. The bride looked very pretty as she entered the drawing room leaning on the arm of her father and took her place beneath an arch of evergreens and white flowers, while Miss Flossie Locke played Lohengrin's Bridal March. The bride wore a handsome gown of white silk embroidered voile trimmed with satin and lace, and her bridal veil was fastened with lilies of the valley and orange blossoms that her mother had worn at her wedding. She was accompanied by Miss R. Stevenson, who wore an ashen of roses silk dress, while the groom was ably supported by Mr. Wm. Bagg, brother of the bride. The bride received many useful and handsome presents, among others a check for $100 from her father, a set of fine china from her mother, a set of china from Mr. Stevenson, an oak dining suite, including sideboard, table and chairs from her uncle, Mr. Mellings, and her brother Will. Her grandfather Bagg presented her with a servitor, set of glassware and a lamp. The bride's going-away suite was of blue broadcloth with hat to match. The happy couple are followed by the best wishes of a host of friends. After their return from their wedding trip they will be at home to their friends on the "Stevenson homestead," near Woodbridge.

Solo—Miss Ethel Switzer—“Beyond the Gates of Paradise.”
Hymn 555.
Benediction.

Fortify now against the Grip—for it comes every season sure! Preventives—the little Candy Cold Cure Tablets—offer in this respect a most certain and dependable safeguard. Preventives, at the “sneezing stage,” will, as well, also surely head off all common colds. But promptness is all-important. Keep Preventives in the pocket or purse, for instant use. Box of 48 for 25c. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

Maple.

The pulpit of the Methodist Church on Sunday morning was occupied by Rev. W. Trench of Richmond Hill. In the evening Miss Brooks gave an interesting address on mission work in China. A free-will offering amounting to $18.65 was taken for missions. Special Easter music was rendered by the choir at both services.

SIX MONTHS FOR COCK FIGHTING.

The Toronto papers of Monday describe a clever piece of detective work done by Policeman Glover (239) early Sunday morning about 4 o'clock. Charlie—who is the youngest son of Mr. E. Glover of this village—was on his rounds when he saw two men lounging around a certain house. He was suspicious, so he watched them and soon saw about thirty men coming from behind the premises. He reported to headquarters, and an investigation was made. A number of beer kegs and whisky flasks were found, also a number of game roosters—some dead and some alive—and the place bore evidence of cock-fighting. Several arrests were made, including the proprietor of the house. In the Police Court the next day the proprietor was given the option of a $50 fine or six months in jail.

Men's working shirts, 50c, 75c and 85c each; men's negligee shirts, nice pattern, sizes well assorted, each 76c, 85c, $1.00 and $1.25. Atkinson & Switzer.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS.

During the last few months The Toronto News has made remarkable strides. It has long been pre-eminent on its editorial page, but during the last few months its Women's page, its Financial page, and its general news service has shown marked improvement, and we gladly recommend The News to any of our subscribers who wish to take a Toronto daily paper. Under a special arrangement The Toronto News and THE LIBERAL can be procured for one year for $2.50. Send your subscription to this office and both papers will be sent you.
