Reeve Pugsley returned on Saturday after spending a month at his farm at Indian Head, Sask. He reports the crops in a rather backward condition which seems to be the result of the cold weather.

The Richmond Hill Fire Brigade will hold its Annual Excursion to Niagara Falls on June 20. This is also the date of the Borden picnic at same place. Every Tory ought to be there. Further particulars later.

Rev. A. J. Paul, B.A., B.D., Chairman of the Sudbury District Methodist Churches, was in town on Thursday visiting his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Mason. Mr. Paul was on his way to duty on the Stationing Committee of Conference.

Oak Ridges section of the Governor Generals Body Guards passed through on Tuesday on the way to Toronto en route for Niagara Camp, where they will spend twelve days under canvas, preparing themselves to defend home and fireside against the enemy should such ever be necessary.

The Council have scraped Yonge Street and carted the surplus earth away. This was much needed, as since the Metropolitan was allowed to dump the dirt, living on the street has been almost unbearable on account of the dust. It is to be hoped the scraping will become an annual affair.

Owing to the many accidents to employees, an agitation is on foot to compel the prohibition of the running board along the side of the open street cars and provide a centre aisle. During three weeks one conductor has died and seven others have been seriously injured in the City of Toronto.

The following are the successful students in the recent university examinations:—E. H. Toye, 4th year Arts (Philosophy) aegrotat degree with honors; G. E. Reaman, 3rd year Arts; G. W. D. Carleton, 3rd year Medicine; W. D. Atkinson, 2nd year Arts, and C. A. McConaghy, 2nd year Arts.

Mr. Wm. Washington, who has lately removed to Toronto, whilst getting off the roof of a building in the rear of his residence, by some means the sole of his boot became fastened, and this caused him to fall on his shoulder, and from the Doctor's report it may be a long time before he has the use of his arm from the elbow to the shoulder.

Mr. H. A. Nicholls, P.D.D.G.M., of Toronto East Dist. No. 11a, was the guest of Alpha Lodge, A.F. & A.M., Toronto, last Thursday evening, the occasion being a fraternal visit of one hundred and thirty four brethren from Buffalo, who exemplified the third degree of Masonry according to the American ritual.

A valuable mare belonging to Bert Hopper dropped dead in front of the High School on Tuesday shortly after noon hour. No cause can be assigned, as the beast was apparently in good health. Bert was making preparations to send her with eleven other horses to take part in the manoeuvres at Niagara Camp, and possibly the excitement proved too much for her.

Mr. H. A. Nicholls, Real Estate Agent, reports the following sales during the week: The Wm. Washington farm on the 2nd con. Vaughan, being lot 30, and comprising two hundred acres, to Christopher Topper of Elgin Mills. The residence now occupied by Dr. Wilkinson and Charles Mason in Richmond Hill, to Dr. Pentland. Dr. Pentland will probably occupy one of the residences in the Fall.

In the first draft of the Stationing Committee the following appointments have been made:—Toronto, Bellefair Ave., Rev. A. P. Brace, B.D.; Richmond Hill, Rev. John J. Ferguson, B.A., B.D.; Newton Brook, Rev. Edward Baker; King, Rev. F. O. Keam; Stouffville, Rev. P. A. Jourdan; Unionville, Rev. George Waugh; Inglewood, Rev. Thos. Campbell; Islington, Rev. D. D. Franks. These stations are well known to our readers.

The Directors of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society met last week, and congratulating speeches were the order of the day on the great success achieved this year both with reference to the fair and the concert. On no past occasion were the gate receipts as large, which means this year surpassed all others in attendance. Three protests were entered, which were acted upon by the Directors. Plans were discussed whereby improvements may be made, and it is hoped next year will see a better fair than ever.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the party who took a pair of boots from the Fire Station will be prosecuted if not returned at once. By order of the Chief.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE.

The regular meeting of the Thornhill branch of East York Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. O. D. Bales, Lansing, and proved a great success. Besides the members a large number of lady friends enjoyed the lavish hospitality of Mrs. Bales. Miss A. Hotson, of Parkhill, gave a very interesting address on "The Influence and Tendencies of Canadian Children." The company was also entertained by instrumental selections by the Misses Boyle of Langstaff, Miss Jessie Morgan of Willowdale, and vocal solos by Mrs. Fred Gallanough of Toronto, the Misses Schaffer, Davisville, and Miss Fuller of Thornhill. Before leaving one and all accorded Mrs. Bales the palm for hospitality, which was amply displayed by her charming manner and the good things provided for the delectable replenishment of the inner man.

SUMMER SCHOOLS.

To Teachers and senior students the Central Business College of Toronto offers special inducements and some unusual advantages in connection with the conduct of its Summer Schools in Business, Shorthand Telegraphy. See card in our adv. columns.

BARNS IN MARKHAM.

Markham Township will have many new handsome barns this summer, and the neighborhood of Victoria Square seems to be taking the lead. On the 28th of May Mr. W. F. Nichols raised his second barn this summer, at which some one hundred and fifty were present. The captains chosen were Mr. James McLean of Richmond Hill and W. Stiver of Unionville, and after a close run Mr. McLean finished first. The structure is 40x60, with a hip roof on a stone foundation. Mr. John Claffey had the contract for the masonry and William McKenzie the frame work. Refreshments were served on the lawn of Mr. Nichols' home residence, and the hungry helpers were served with all the delicacies of the season, in which the hostess was assisted by her young lady friends, the youth and beauty of the neighborhood. Again, last Thursday Mr. W. Brumwell had a barn raising, the frame work being done by Mr. Stoutenborough, and the mason work by Mr. John Claffey. Walter Scott and Jacob Lunau, home birds, were the captains, and Walter came out an easy winner. Ample refreshments were served on the lawn by Mrs. Brumwell, assisted by her lady friends.

DOGS DIE FROM POISON.

No less than four dogs have died from poison in this village during the past week. It is to be hoped the poisoning was accidental and that no one intentionally put poison in the way of the dogs.

A tickling or dry cough can be quickly loosened with Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. No opium, no chloroform, nothing unsafe or harsh. Sold by W. A. Sanderson.

GRAND CONCERT.

A grand concert under the auspices of the R. C. Church will be held in Victoria Hall, Thornhill, on Wednesday evening, July 15. An interesting programme of vocal and instrumental music, readings, clog exercises, etc., is assured. Toronto and local talent will furnish entertainment. Master E. Strohmayer, the boy soprano, will be well worth hearing. Late car leaves Toronto at 11.45 p.m., and Newmarket at 11 p.m. Doors open at 7.30., concert to commence at 8. Tickets: Adults, 25 cents; Children, 15 cents.

Victoria Square.

The annual Garden Party will be held on Saturday, June 18, on the grounds of Messrs. R. Nicholls and R. Klink. Commencing at three o'clock in the afternoon there will be a football tournament for a prize of $18.50, cash or cup, open to all organized teams. There will also be bowling and other forms of sport. In the evening the Eulalie Quartette of Stouffville (the Misses Hoover, Misses Garbutt and Collins), and Miss Storry, elocutionist, of Markham, will be on the programme, which promises to be excellent. Accompanist, Miss Mabel Collins. Tea served from 4 to 8 p.m. Admission:—Adults, 25 cts.; Children, 15 cts. As better arrangements have been made for catering to the immense crowd that patronize this popular annual affair, no one need fear not being handsomely served. Ice cream, &c., at booths. On the Sunday following (June 19), Children's Day, services will be held at 2.30 and 7.00 p.m., when addresses will be given by Chief Inspector J. L. Hughes of Toronto. The afternoon services will be especially for the mass meeting of children. Special music by the children, assisted by Miss Garbutt of Stouffville, who will sing in the evening. Misses Collins and Lunau, accompanists.

The Football Match between the Bluebells of the 3rd line and the Victoria Square team was won by the latter 1-0.

Mr. Percy Hagerman of the Sterling Bank, Orangeville, spent Saturday and Sunday under the parental roof before going to Haliburton for six weeks.

Mr. Walter Flisby of Toronto was home over Sunday.

Master Norman Boynton is very ill.

Mr. Wm. Burkholder had a successful raising on Saturday afternoon.

Rev. J. Power of Unionville preached on Sunday afternoon. Service was withdrawn in the evening.

Gormley

The Victoria Square Branch of the Woman's Institute will give a Lawn Social and Canadian Evening here on the lawn of Mr. George Forester, Jr., on Thursday, June 9. Commencing at 3 o'clock, a programme of sports will be given, and in the evening a musical and literary programme will be rendered by artists from Toronto, Victoria Square and Richmond Hill, and addresses given by Revs. A. P. Brace and E. C. Currie of the latter place. Mrs. (Rev.) A. P. Brace will give an account of the life of Laura Secord. The Richmond Hill Band will be in attendance. Tea served from 5 to 7. Admission, 25 and 15 cents. For further particulars see posters.

The usual half yearly Love Feast of the Brethren (Tunkers), was held last Saturday and Sunday at their church here.

NEWTON BROOK S. S. EXCURSION

The Newton Brook Sabbath School will conduct an excursion to Jackson's Point on Tuesday, June 14. Metropolitan cars will leave Toronto at 8.30 a.m. and stop at York Mills P. O., Bales' switch, Lansing, Willowdale, Finch's Corners, Newton Brook and Thornhill. Tickets: adults, 90 cents; children, 45 cents. For further particulars see posters.

Headford.

The annual picnic of the Headford Methodist Sabbath School will be held Saturday, June 11, on the grounds of Mr. Wm. Wellman. In the afternoon a football contest for a prize of $11 will take place; also children's races and a young peoples' needle race, prizes being awarded in each case. Tea served from 4.30 to 7.30 p.m. on the grounds, after which a program of singing, reading, &c., will be given in the church by talented artists from Markham and Deer Park, &c. Addresses by Revs. A. P. Brace and E. H. Toye. Admission: adults 25c, children 15c. On the Sunday following, June 12, anniversary services will be preached at 11.30 a.m. and 7 p.m. Special music by children in the morning, and in the evening Miss Lillian Terry will give selections. Further particulars on bills.
