

Victoria Square.

The Garden Party in connection with the Methodist S. S. surpassed all previous records in point of crowd, sport, etc. The events of Saturday afternoon were enjoyed by the large gathering. The Junior match of Football between Buttonville and Victoria Square was won by the latter 1-0. In the senior series Richmond Hill vs Davisville, Davisville won by 2-0, Green River vs. Heathers of Agincourt went to the River boys 3-0. In the finals, Green River defeated Davisville 3-0 and The Seventh Line by 1-0, thus winning the cup. The arrangements were as nearly perfect as the tables as could be and everybody was well served. The booths did a flourishing business. Rev. A. P. Brace presided over an excellent programme in the evening, and the numbers given by Eulalie Quattette, Miss Story and the Band, were heartily applauded. The I. O. O. F. Band of Markham is to be congratulated on the quality of their music. In short, it gave the best and most generous supply of musical numbers. Inspector J. L. Hughes on Sunday was a host in himself and spoke at both services on child training. Mr. Hughes is a versatile speaker and his addresses were thorough and to the point. Miss Garbutt has an excellent voice and her songs were thoroughly enjoyed. The beautiful weather and the popularity of this Garden Party brought out almost 1400 people and the proceeds amounted to $375.

Gormley

Rev. Geo. Kitley of Moretown Center preached at the Brethren Church last Sunday at both services. The Mennonites of Markham Circuit opened their yearly camp meeting at Pike's Peak, near Bethesda, on Wednesday of this week. All are welcome. Mr. Abram Heise of this place, and young son, has left for Kindersly, Sask., to visit his sons, who are located there. New Gormley rejoices in the luxury of a regular milkman. This, with an up-to-date store, operated by Mr. Woolings, makes things handy. New Gormley is fast becoming one of the important milk shipping centres for Toronto's supply.

Carrville.

Some of the farmers are just now replanting their corn, owing to the cold wet weather. Among the improvements noticeable in this neighborhood are: Mr. Ed. Pentic and Mr. H. Winger have given their houses a new coat of paint. Pleased to learn that Miss E. Patterson is improving so nicely after her operation at St. John's Hospital. Tuesday morning, last week, when Mr. Joe Winger was returning from the Metropolitan car, his horse took fright at a small bunch of hay, throwing Mr. Winger into the ditch. Pleased to say he was not seriously injured. The horse, after half a mile's gallop, was captured by Mr. Joe Grainger. Master O. Grainger spent Saturday afternoon with Master Geo. Hunt of Richmond Hill. A large number attended service here on Sunday last. The committee appointed to arrange the flowers in the Methodist church is truly making a success of it. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whitney of Toronto spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. John Baker. They came up in their new automobile and took the family for a ride. Miss M. Whitty of Stouffville spent Sunday at her uncle's, Mr. Ed. Pentic. Miss J. Moran and Miss W. Cook took in the excursion to Niagara last Monday.
