THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

The Annual parochial thanksgiving services were held in St. Mary's Church. Richmond Hill, and in Trinity church, Thornbill, on Thursday. Oct. 6th. The Bishop of Toronto preached at Richmond Hill. He chose for his text the first verse of the 147th Psalm. Praise, he said, is the key note of this psalm as indeed it is of the whole of the fifth and last book of the psalms. This and last book of the psalms. This thought he enlarged and applied to our present duty to God with regard to the blessings of His providence. It was an excellent sermon and most appropriate to the occasion. The Choir of St. Albans Cathedral rendered the musical part of the service in a manner that was highly appreciated.

At Trinity Church the Rev. Lawrence Skey, rector of St. Anne's, Toronto, preached the sermon and the choir of that Church turnished the music. The excellency of both sermon and music was the subject of general comment. Both churches were very tastefully decorated with grains and other symbols of the harvest. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the congregations were not large. But they were large enough to indicate the probabilities had it been fine. The Rev. John Gibson desires to thank the people of this vicinity for the generous manner in which they have always assisted in these services.
