Farming is a business which requires access to practical business information. This is supplied in the columns of The Farmer's Weekly Sun. The secret of the growing popularity of this paper lies in its untiring devotion to the interests of the farmer. To be posted a farmer must read The Sun. If you are not a reader of The Sun try it for 1911.

On Monday evening the Epworth League of this place was visited by the League from Teston. The topic was taken by Mr. E. Bowen, after which there was an old-fashioned spelling match. Refreshments were served, and a very pleasant time was spent. Miss Myrtle Saigeon sang a very pretty solo, "A Rose from the Garden of Love."

FIRE AT AURORA.

Shortly after midnight Friday morning a fire broke out in the barn of Mr. J. A. Mitchell, Yonge street, Aurora, consuming the building and contents, and quickly spreading to the pigeon house, containing about a thousand birds, all of which were destroyed. Until a few weeks ago the property belonged to Mr. Frank Cook who came from Chicago. During Mr. Cook's residence the barn, outbuildings and dwelling were burned in two different conflagrations. Mr. Cook rebuilt everything, and on October 1 Mr. Mitchell of Toronto bought the property. Most of Mr. Cook's furniture was stored in the barn, besides which he loses a cow. Mr. Mitchell's cow also was burned. There was about $2,100 insurance, but the loss is estimated at about $4,000.

Miss Jennie Newberry, who is now training for a deaconess, spent Thanksgiving with her brother Mr. Geo. Newberry. (Too late for last week)

DEATH WAS ACCIDENTAL.

We do not wish to blame the motor-man, nor find fault with the coroner's jury who found that the killing of Wm. Chatterly of Thornhill was not owing to negligence. To us, however, it looks like a crying shame that the man, over 80 years of age, was run to death. The evidence showed that the electric car and the auto car came down the steep hill almost side by side, and that when the auto was almost opposite him and the car 20 feet behind he stepped onto the car track, without looking backward. What else could the old man do?

GOOD FOR RICHMOND HILL.

We are pleased to state that Mr. Stanley Tyndall, son of Mr. John Tyndall of this place, who got first prize in the second class in sod here last Friday, first for best crown furrow, and first for best finish; also got first prize at the East York plowing match for best crown, and second in the sod class.
