THE YOUTHS' COMPANION CALENDAR FOR 1911.

The publishers of The Youth's Companion will, as always this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($1.75) is paid for 1911 a beautiful Calendar for the new year. The picture panel reproduces a water-color painting of an old time garden in a flood of summer sunshine, with a background of Lombardy poplars through which one catches a glimpse of distant hills. The picture being in 12 colors, the tones of the original are faithfully reproduced.

VARSAITY WINS.

The University of Toronto Rugby football team won the Canadian Championship on Saturday by defeating The Tigers of Hamilton on the grounds of the latter by a score of 16 to 7. The attendance was 12,000 and the gate receipts $9,500.

Maple.

Some of our citizens are changing their places of abode. Rev. P. Campbell and family are moving into the house purchased from Mr. H. O. Bailey, and Mr. J. A. Rose and family have moved into the house lately occupied by Mr. J. Oliver.

On Sunday Mr. E. Hunter, of Toronto, took the work of Rev. Mr. Graham, who is ill.
On Wednesday afternoon of last week a quiet wedding took place at 16 Hepburne St., Toronto when Mr. J. H. Jackson of this place and Miss Susie Gallanough were married, in the presence of a few intimate friends, by Rev. A. Wilson.

Quite a number of new furnaces have been put in the homes here this fall.
Mr. W. T. Robinson has on exhibition in his store a cluster of ripe raspberries, picked in his garden last week.

Elgin Mills.

The annual meeting of the Standard Beef Ring, held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Tepper, was a most successful event both from a social and business standpoint. The members first settled up the business for the present season, decided to continue the 20 share ring for another year, and after expressing regret at losing their President, Mr. James Baker, who is giving up farming, proceeded to elect new officers with the following result:—

President, Garnet Duncan,
Managers, Wm. Robinson, James Hunt,
Sec'y-Treas., James McLean.

The supper which consisted of oysters, roast geese and chickens was one of the best. After supper, good speeches were made by the past president, the new president, the sec'y-treas, and Mr. A. E. Glass, the last named, who championed The Ladies, making the speech of the evening. About 75 men, women and children were present.

ORGANIZED BOYHOOD.

The Boy Scout movement, says Ernest Thompson Seton in an article in "Success Magazine" describing this organization, the American branch of which was founded by him, is a man-making organization, openly warring on tobacco, alcohol, dirt, cowardice, and anarchy, and recognizing that energy must be diverted—never crushed. It supplies abundant channels for the useful application of youthful energy, and makes character development agreeable by the lasting charm of things whose universal appeal has long been established.

DISRAELI SLANDERS GOLDWIN SMITH IN HIS NOVEL "LOTHAIR."

Goldwin Smith, in his Reminiscences in the December McClure's, speaks of Disraeli's attack on him in "Lothair": "It may have been partly by suspicion of my possession of an unpleasant secret that Disraeli was moved to follow me across the Atlantic and try, as he did in 'Lothair,' to brand me as 'a social sycophant.' His knowledge of my social character was not great, for I had only once met him in society. His allusion to the 'Oxford professor' who was going to the United States was as transparent as if he had used my name. Had I been in England where my character was known, I should have let the attack pass; but I was in a strange country, where, made by a man of note, the attack was likely to tell. I therefore gave Disraeli the lie, and neither he nor any of his organs ever ventured to repeat the calumny."
