STONG—WILLIAMS
An interesting event took place at 241 Ossington Ave., Toronto, on Wednesday, Nov. 23, 1910 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Smith, when Miss Jessie Williams a sister of Mrs. Smith, was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest D. Stong of Edgeley. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John W. Morgan of Maple. She was led to an Alcove, beautifully decorated with flowers and banked with palms, by her brother as the wedding march was played by Master Everton Smith.

The bride wore a dress which was a beautiful creation of cream silk and lace and her only ornament worn was a sunburst of pearls, the gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. Miss Alma Williams was bridesmaid and the duties of groomsmen were ably performed by Mr. Clarence Stong. —Mr. and Mrs. Stong will spend their honeymoon in New York, and after return they will be at home to their friends in Edgeley.

The bride's travelling dress was a navy blue tailor made suit with hat to match.

The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a happy and prosperous life.

OPENING OF NEW TOWN HALL, BEAVERTON.

The people of Beaverton are planning to have a big time at the opening of the handsome new town hall and market, which will take place about the New Year. The building, now nearing completion, presents a most imposing appearance. The design is somewhat English in character, built of red brick and white stone. The building has a frontage of 85 feet and, including the market, a depth of over 80 feet. It has several commodious offices and an auditorium seating 700 persons. The cost is about $17,000. J. Harvey Self of Toronto is the architect.

ALL GOOD THINGS
must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: "It is indeed a marvelous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for. A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it."

THE GRAND PRIZE
(the highest award) was given to the International at the World's Fair, St. Louis.
