A FAMILY AFFAIR.

The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal may justly be called a "Family Affair," for in its 32 pages each week there are found columns of matter that interest every member of a family, whether old or young, and however numerous they may be. It is the best combination family paper printed, and any family not now receiving it should give it a trial for next year. The publishers, we understand, contemplate elaborate improvements next year which will make it even more valuable.

Thornhill.

The November Meeting of The Literary Circle at the home of Mr. W. D. Scott was a decided success. Over 50 people were present and seemed to enjoy the program. Mr. D. James as chairman introduced those taking part in his usual happy way. The musical part was rendered by Miss Anna Chapman, Rev. Mr. Currie and Mr. and Mrs. Barton from Toronto and was a treat to those present. Mrs. Currie also gave a recitation which was well received. Prof. J. H. Farmer of McMaster University then gave his address on "The Translation of the English Bible" and the closest attention was paid to him during his very interesting and profitable talk. On motion of Rev. Mr. Douglas sec. by Rev. Mr. Gibson a unanimous vote of thanks was tendered him for his kindness in coming out and for others in assisting in the evening's enjoyment. The next meeting of The Literary Circle will be held at the residence of Mr. David James on Monday evening the 12th inst. Music, reading, a short address upon "Life" is expected; but the chief feature of the evening's entertainment will be a debate between the ladies and the gentlemen—three on each side. It will be quite interesting. All are welcome who bring one or more questions (without name) to be answered at the meeting.

Maple.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute next week will be held at the home of Mrs. D. Watson. A paper on "Christmas Ideas" will be given by Miss Warkington. There will also be a roll call to be responded to with suggestions for Christmas cooking.
Mr. Hugh McLean died last week at the home of his son, Mr. J. B. McLean, manager of the Standard Bank. The funeral took place on Thursday to St. Andrew's cemetery and was largely attended.
Mr. Max Aitken, who won a seat for the Unionists in the election in England, to represent Ashton-Under-Lyne, is a son of Rev. Wm. Aitken of New castle, N.B., a former pastor of St. Andrew's Church in this place. Mr. Aitken was born in Maple thirty-one years ago. A sketch of his career was given in the Globe of last Saturday.
Rev. J. W. Gordon preached anniversary services at Teston on Sunday night.

Sherwood.

The Rev. Mr. Jones of Beamsville preached here on Sunday very good sermons both morning and evening to very large congregations.
Mr. Calk has moved into the house lately occupied by Mr. P. Evans.
The people of Sherwood are enjoying many pleasant conversations over their phones.
We are very pleased to hear that Mr. Wilbert Keffer is recovering from his illness, and his many friends hope to see him soon around.
Miss Lillie Evans of Sherwood has been spending a week in Toronto.
Mr. and Mrs. J. McNaughton attended the wedding of their nephew, Mr. E. Stong, in Toronto lately.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Hendry called on friends on Sunday.

SPECIAL OFFER.

Both The Daily Globe and the Daily Mail and Empire are making a special offer to readers of these papers. Either paper will be sent from this date to the first of May about 5 1/2 months for the sum of $1.00. This offer is not for York County alone; they will be sent to any individual address in Canada, Great Britain or the United States. The coming sessions of the Dominion Parliament and the Ontario Legislative will be reported. Send a dollar to THE LIBERAL OFFICE, and get full benefit of this offer.

THAT BALD SPOT

Don't let that bald spot grow! Go to your druggist at once and get a bottle of Parisian Sage and if that don't check the falling hair to grow, nothing will.
Dandruff is the cause of baldness; dandruff germs cause dandruff. Parisian Sage kills the germs; eradicates dandruff, stops falling hair and itching scalp. We will refund your money, if it fails to do this in two weeks. Parisian Sage will cause the hair to grow. If the hair root be not dead. It causes the hair to grow thicker, more luxuriant, and puts new life into it.
The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package of Parisian Sage. It is sold for 50c. by all druggists or sent postpaid by The Giroux Mfg. Co., Fort Erie, Ont., on receipt of price. Sold and guaranteed by W. A. Sanderson.
