

HE FOUND THEM NO FAITH CURE

BUT DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS
CLEANED OUT W. F.
BLACK'S SIATICA.

He was in agony when a friend gave him a box. Now he recommends them to everybody.

Newcastle, N. B., Dec. 12 (Special).—In these cold fall days when the chill winds crystalize the uric acid in the blood and cause the pangs of Rheumatism and Sciatica to bring sleepless nights to many a home, a man's best friend is he who can tell his neighbor of a sure cure for his tortures. Such a friend is Wm. F. Black of this place. He suffered from Sciatica and lame back. He was so bad that he could not lace his boots or turn in bed. Dodd's Kidney Pills cured him and he wants all his neighbors to know of the cure.

"Yes," Mr. Black says, in an interview, "I was so bad with Sciatica and Lame Back that I couldn't lace my shoes or turn in bed, when a friend gave me about a third of a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills. I started taking them without much faith in their curative powers, and found them all they were recommended.

"Now I am recommending Dodd's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from Kidney Disease."
Dodd's Kidney Pills are no faith cure. They're a simple, but sure cure for diseased kidneys.

CHINA'S GREAT CANAL.

In these days people appear to have forgotten the old grand canal of China, which was dug way back in the dark ages and has never been rivalled for length. It is 650 miles long and is used constantly.

DON'T OVERDRAW YOUR BANK ACCOUNT.

To overdraw your bank account, whether mentally or physically, is more suicidal even than to overdraw materially. Repair wasted tissues, strengthen shattered nerves and rejuvenate your rheumatic system by visiting the famous Mineral Salt Springs of the "St. Catharines Well" of St. Catharines, Ont. A postal card to J. D. McDonald, District Passenger Agent, Grand Trunk Railway System, Toronto, will bring illustrated descriptive matter.

THE FIRST STEP.

"Do you think they will announce their engagement soon?"
"No. They haven't denied it yet."

Allen's Lung Balm is especially intended to break up neglected coughs, and many hopeless cases have been saved by its use. Contains no opium in any form.

It's surprising how well the average man gets along when you consider how worthless he is.

Sores Flee Before It.—There are many who have been afflicted with sores and have driven them away with Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, which acts like magic. All similarly troubled should lose no time in applying this splendid remedy, as there is nothing like it to be had. It is cheap, but its power is in no way expressed by its low price.

"Doctor," said Mr. Blues, "my insomnia is much worse now than it ever was before." "Indeed," replied the M. D. "Yes, sir, it is. Why, I can't even sleep when it's time to get up."

Misery loves company, but the feeling is never reciprocal.

Sore throat leads to Tonsillitis, Quinsy and Diphtheria. Hamlin's Wizard Oil used as a gargle upon the first symptoms of a sore throat will invariably prevent all three of these dread diseases.

A cavalry sergeant had endured the stupidity of a recruit for many days. One day the "rookie" was thus greeted when he had violated the sergeant's orders: "Don't ever come at the horses from behind without speakin' to them! They'll be kicking at that thick head of yours! And as a consequence there'll be a lot o' lame horses in the squadron."

GIRL LIVES AMONG PUEBLOS.

Student Writes Home of New Mexican Experiences.

Miss Frierre-Marreco, who holds a research fellowship to the Somerville College, Oxford, England, an adventurous young woman—who is deeply interested in the study of anthropology and who has taken the unconventional course of living with the Pueblo Indians in New Mexico, with a view to getting first-hand information in her pursuit of knowledge has been writing to her friends in Oxford giving interesting details of her life among the Indians.

She tells how the Indians have christened her "Ta Yopovi," or "Flower of the Sedge." She lives by herself in a little house of wood and canvas, doing practically all her own housework. The Indians treat her with every courtesy and friendliness. She finds an obstacle to her purpose, however, in their reticence to all matters relating to themselves.

"The people are extremely proud and sensitive," she writes, "and very much on an equality with white people, in their own estimation, at least. There is an obvious determination to frustrate the inquisition of white people. In some places it is veiled under forms of politeness; in others it takes the form of open hostility."

She further tells that she succeeded best with the old women, whom she induced to teach her something about Indian medicine.

Many inherit weak lungs, and as disease usually assails the weakest point, these persons are continually exposed to attacks of cold and pulmonary disturbances. The speedy use of Bickle's Anti Consumptive Syrup will be found a preventive and a protection, strengthening the organs so that they are not so liable to derangement from exposure or abrupt atmospheric changes. Bickle's Syrup is cheap and good.

A man seldom has any money. Before he gets married he spends it; after marriage his wife spends it.

In developing the idea of truthfulness, a teacher asked the question: "What is the best thing in the world to do and at the same time the hardest?" A little girl raised her hand timidly. "Well, Emma?" "To get married."

A Simple and Cheap Medicine.—A simple, cheap and effective medicine is something to be desired. There is no medicine so effective a regulator of the digestive system as Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. They are simple, they are cheap, they can be got anywhere, and their beneficial action will prove their recommendation. They are the medicine of the poor man and those who wish to escape doctors' bills will do well in giving them a trial.

A QUIANT DISH.

"I have cooked a little surprise for you, dear," said Eleanor—"an almond soufflé. I got the recipe from the new cookery book."

Arthur smiled doubtfully, and took a mouthful.

"Can't say I like it!" he spluttered. "Ouf! Sure you got the instructions right?"

"Oh, yes!" responded Eleanor. "I can say them by heart. Just hear me." And she reached down the cookery book and handed it to her hubby for him to check her by. "Take half a pound of grated almonds—"

"Quite right!" interrupted Arthur.

"One pound of caster sugar; mix well with white of three fresh eggs—"

"Correct!" said her spouse.

"Add a pinch of white pepper—"

"Pepper! Great goodness!" exclaimed Arthur, as he turned over the leaf.

"Two large carrots, a spoonful of mustard, four chopped onions, and—"

"Stop—stop!" roared Arthur. "You're muddling up almond soufflé with Irish stew! You've forgotten to cut the leaves of this wretched cookery-book!"

River steamers and forwarding Agents at Prince Rupert are accepting freight for up river points at the shipper's risk only. There is now enough freight at Prince Rupert, so they say, to keep all the river boats busy until the close of navigation. Warehouses at Port Essington are full of freight as well as local warehouses at Prince Rupert. Transportation to Big Canon by rail over the Grand Trunk Pacific is expected to open within the next 30 days, but beyond that point there will only be stages and pack trains for the new towns beyond Hazelton.

NOTHING DOING.

"I should like to sell you a gimlet," said a careworn-looking man as he walked into an office the other day.

"We have no use for one," replied the clerk.

"But you should look into the future," went on the other demurely. "Surely you want to make holes in your boot-heels so that you can get your skates on."

"I use skates which require no straps."

"You may want to screw some boards together some time. The old-fashioned method of driving screws in with a hammer is pernicious, as it deteriorates the tenacity of the fangs of the screw, as it were."

"Nothing to-day, sir."

"This gimlet acts as a cork-screw."

"I don't want it?"

"It also may be used as a tack-hammer, and a cigar holder, and a toothbrush."

"I tell you I don't want it."

"It has an eraser, a pen, an inkstand, a table for computing compound interest, and a hat-box attachment."

"I can't help it; I don't want it."

"I know you don't; you're one of those men who don't buy a gimlet unless it has a restaurant, and a trip to England, and an Italian opera company attached. I'll go and find a man who will offer you a ton of coals if you buy a jug of beer. That's your mark."

And the careworn man walked out with his metal plumage on the perpendicular.
