

Thornhill.

The annual Sunday School entertainment and supper and Christmas Tree of the Presbyterian church took place last Thursday and the event was attended with the usual interest and success which it merits. The ladies of the congregation have an enviable reputation of preparing a lavish spread, which in itself will insure the full house of Thursday evening. An interesting programme of music, recitations and dialogues was given by the young people of the Sunday School, while Mrs. Currie and Mr. Lindsay contributed readings which were much appreciated. Brief addresses were also given by Revs. Father Grant and E. T. Douglas, and Mr. John McGregor. Mr. Currie did duty as chairman.
