S. S. CONVENTION.

The Thirtieth Annual Convention of Vaughan Township Sabbath School Association was held in Thornhill Methodist Church on Jan. 12, 1911, to which a hearty welcome was extended to everybody, and all who attended were royally entertained in the homes of the people of the different churches.
The program consisted of three sessions—Morning, Afternoon and Evening. The morning session was of a devotional nature, and some time was given to the reports of the different offices of the Association. The afternoon was full of lessons and pointers from the Pastor, Supt. and Officers of the Sabbath School.
Rev. G. S. Smith of Richmond Hill gave an excellent address on "Why did I remain in the Sabbath School (from a boy's standpoint)."
He spoke concerning his own boyhood days, and the reason he remained in the Sabbath School was because it was a part of his duties to go as well as to the day school, for his parents saw that he did go and for that reason he was converted when he was twelve years old, a good age he believed for every boy to be converted, and then there would be no trouble in holding the boys in our Sunday Schools when they grew up. Get the men and older ones in the Sunday School and the boys are sure to go too.
Rev. Thompson of Kleinburg gave an address on "The relation of Parents to the Sabbath School." He believed if the father and mother were not in the Sabbath School they were not where they ought to be. The relation of the parents to the Sabbath School was just the same as his relation to himself when he was ten years old. The highest efficiency is not attained until the parents are in the School. One thing he believed was greatly needed was that parents should hold reverence for the supt., teacher or officers in the Sunday School and not allow any criticism in the home, kindly or otherwise. Parents should say to their children COME to Sunday School, and go with them not say go, and stay at home themselves.

Teaching of lesson for Jan. 15 was then taken up by Mr. McCrae, Guelph, and a Round Table conference was afterwards given by Rev. Halpenny in which many questions were asked and answered for the profit of all present. In the evening session a song service was rendered by the choir, after which an address was given by Rev. Halpenny on Teacher Training.
He said a teacher only teaches when he reaches the scholar. You may teach a half hour and teach nothing. Most teach through the eye as well as the ear, the eye being one of the great appeals to the mind.
In the absence of the second speaker of the evening an open conference was conducted by Rev. E. T. Douglas, and the thoughts of the day were reviewed with much profit to all.
Officers elected:—Pres. A. Farr, Woodbridge; 1st Vice-Pres. Rev. J. W. Gordon, Maple; 2nd Vice Pres. W. H. Diceman, Teston; Cor. Sec. C. Smith, Edgeley; Min. Sec. S. Cooper, Vellore; Treas. Mrs. Wm. Cook, Carrville.
The place selected for next convention was Pres. Church, Maple.

Headford.
The Annual Thank Offering will be taken in the church on Sunday, the 29th inst. Services will be conducted by Rev. J. E. Wilson, B.A., L.L.B., of Markham Village, at 10.30 a.m. and 7 p.m. The trustees of the church hope for full congregations and a generous freewill offering.

DISTRESSING HEADACHES
Headaches are largely the result of disordered kidney.
Mrs. Hall, 84 Flora St., St. Thomas, Ont., says: "I suffered for years with headaches of a most distressing nature. They would come on me suddenly, and would last for days at a time. These were usually accompanied by spells of dizziness that would enable me to attend to any house duties. My back was weak and caused me much suffering through the night. I had doctor'd for years, but all to no avail. Nothing benefited me and my condition was gradually becoming worse. I learned of Booth's Kidney Pills. One box gave me a complete and lasting cure. I have not had a headache or dizzy spell since and I feel like a new person."
Booth's Kidneys Pills are sold by all druggists, 50c box, under a guarantee to refund your money if they fail to relieve any disease having its origin in the kidneys or bladder. Postpaid from The R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie, Ont. Sold and guaranteed by W. A. Sanderson.

OBITUARY.

The late Joseph Rumble, son of the late John and Mary Rumble, was born in the Township of Vaughan, County of York, Ont., in the year 1844.
At the early age of 13 years he chose as his trade that of miller, serving his apprenticeship in the stone mill at Carrville, which he later operated on his own responsibility. Previous to his removal with his family to Hillsdale he had operated mills at Pine Grove, York Mills and Richmond Hill, the latter of which he owned. Coming to Hillsdale in 1888 he purchased the present Hillsdale flour mill, which was then stone process. In 1892 it was remodeled to roller process, at which time he gave up the management, the deceased being an expert stone miller. He remained actively connected with the business until January, 1910, when the firm of J. Rumble & Sons, of which he was founder and senior partner, was dissolved. At that time his health was rapidly failing, and his illness culminated in death, Dec. 27, 1910.
His remains were laid to rest in the Methodist Cemetery on Dec. 30, a large number of friends gathering to pay their last respects. The funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. John Nelson, who by a singular coincidence chose as his text the words, "There shall be no night there," Rev. xxiii, the same words which had been used some thirty years ago at the funeral of the father of deceased.
Honorable and upright in his business dealings he won the respect and esteem of the community. In the church of his choice he was a faithful, quiet and conscientious worker. As long as his health permitted he was a regular attendant at his services, a teacher in the Sunday School and a member of the choir. In his home he was a faithful husband and father. The widow and family of six sons and two daughters who survive will long hold sacred the memory of one whose example was so worthy of imitation and whose thoughtful advice was so worthy of being followed. His influence for good will long be felt not only by them but by all with whom he was associated.

Maple.
In last week's LIBERAL the account of the address and presentation should have read to Mrs. H. C. Bailey.
There was a large audience at St. Andrew's church on Sunday morning, when Rev. Mr. Davidson gave an interesting address on conditions in India. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nye of Grand Rapids, Mich., and who are on their way to Alberta to take up land, are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bailey. Miss Annie Brown of Grand Rapids, and late of London, England, is also visiting at the same place.
Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Henry of Thornhill, and Mr. and Mrs. Courtland Fairchild of Brantford spent Sunday afternoon and evening at Mr. T. Cousins'. A pleasant time was spent by the ladies of the Women's Institute last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Nixon. After the business of the meeting, Mrs. Nixon and daughters served afternoon tea, and all enjoyed a social hour.
A sleigh load of young people attended the Hockey Burlesque on Monday evening.
Mrs. W. McMahon had the misfortune to fall on Monday and break her right wrist in two places.
Miss Adele Jackson returned last week from a visit to friends in Tottenham.
The Fancy Dress Carnival Tuesday evening was a success. There was a large number in costume, besides many skaters and spectators. The following are the prize winners:—
Lady in best costume, 1st Sadie Campbell, "Folly"; 2nd Mrs. W. Wood, "Britannia."
Gent in best costume, 1st Austin Robinson, "Highlander"; 2nd Adrian Kiltough, "Napoleon."
Lady and Gent in best costume, 1st Austin Robinson and Sadie Campbell; 2nd Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wood.
Girl in best costume, 1st May Baxter; "Spanish Princess"; 2nd Florence Nixon, "Italian Girl."
Boy in best costume, Earl Byam, "Clown."
A Skating Party under the Auspices of the Maple Epworth League will be held on the Skating Rink, Maple, on Jan. 30th, 1911. Skating from 7 to 9.30 after which a supper will be served in the Schoolroom of the Maple Methodist church. Admission to rink and supper 25 cents.

Newton Brook.
A Tea and Entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society will be held in the church here Wednesday evening, 25th inst. Tea served from 5 to 8 o'clock. The programme will be given by a double male quartette, Mr. C. H. Leslie, Miss K. M. Ingle, Mrs. W. J. Street and others. Admission: Adults 25 cents, Children 15 cents. Everybody welcome.
