The last number of the Canadian Magazine contains a well written article from the pen of Mr. Wm. Harrison of this village, on "The Romance of Tobacco." Mr. Harrison neither approves nor condemns the use of the weed, but shows the position it occupies in history, in commerce, in social circles and in other places.

YOUR CHANCE FOR RUBBERS.
A couple of cases of men's rubbers bought, worth the money. While they last, per pair 70c. See our adv. Norman J. Glass.

FOR THE TANKARD.
Two rinks of our curling club went to the City Tuesday and played for the Ontario Tankard, but were defeated in the first game with Newmarket by 18 points. As the Richmond Hill rinks never gave themselves any practice together we think they did remarkably well to keep down the score as low as they did.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
The Guild Topic for Friday evening is in a series which runs throughout the year, "Lessons from Great Lives—Abraham," Gen. xxi:1-13. Leader, Mr. J. F. Atkinson, and Essayist, Mrs. Corrie. Next week an address on "Habit, Its Source and Influence," will be given by Mr. D. D. Moshier, B.A., B. Paed., of Toronto Normal School. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed on Feb. 5 at the morning service.

FRIENDLY VISIT.
The Headford Epworth League visited the League here Friday evening and contributed the programme which was enjoyed by all present. After being welcomed by Mr. Elmore Reaman, president of the home League, Mrs. A. F. Leek took the chair, and devotional exercises were conducted. The president gave a very pleasing address, and called upon the pastor, Rev. G. S. Smith who gave the topic of the evening, bearing on some of the weaknesses of Epworth Leagues. The following numbers were then given:—Chorus by the League Choir, "Forward Leagues"; Duet and Chorus, "The Stream of Mercy"; recitation, "Aunt Polly Green," by Miss Ethel Caldwell; solo by Miss Gertrude Bond; chorus, "Cloud and Fire." Miss Maud Helinay acted as piano accompanist. Refreshments were served at the close.

FRUIT TREES.
Now is the time to place your order for fruit and ornamental trees. We have the largest line of nursery stock grown in Canada. Our Apple, Pear, Plum, Cherry and Peach Trees are unsurpassed for fibrous roots. In small fruits the Herbert Raspberry and Black Raspberries are our heaviest sellers, as they are big money-makers for the small fruit grower. Our nurseries have been visited by some of the largest fruit growers in Canada, and after an inspection of our trees they have given us their orders. Write for our catalogue and give us a list of your wants. Brown Bros. Co., Brown Nurseries, Welland Co., Ont.

MISSIONARY LECTURES.
The test of the genuineness of religious life in the church, as in the individual, during modern times is missionary zeal. With a desire to deepen the interest and intensify the spiritual life of our members and our church, the Young Peoples' Societies of the Presbyterian and Methodist Churches of Richmond Hill have arranged a course of missionary lectures for this season. The course, which will include five lectures, extends from Jan. 27 to May 12. Tickets for course, 25 cents. Reserve date of first lecture, Jan. 27, D. D. Moshier, B.A., in the Presbyterian Church.

ONTARIO PLOWMEN.

At a meeting held recently at the Walker House, Toronto, The Ontario Plowmen's Association was formed, embracing many of the best plowmen and most prominent farmers of the Province. After a full discussion on the needs of such an association the following officers were elected:—

President, Simpson Reenie, Toronto; 1st Vice-Pres., Wm. Walkington, King; 2nd Vice-Pres., Frank Weir, Agincourt; Secy., L. Wallace, Woodbridge; Treas., T. A. Patterson, Ellesmere; Executive—The above officers and James McLean, Richmond Hill, and Mr. Speers, Malton.

The executive afterwards met and drafted the constitution and by-laws. Another meeting will be held to-day.

LARGE SALE.

The auction sale of Mr. James Baker, lot 41, con. 1, Vaughan, (stop 47) on Wednesday, the 25th inst. promises to be the largest of the season. The horses, dairy cattle and swine are a superior lot, and most of the implements, Massey-Harris are nearly new. In addition to the list on the large bills there will be offered for sale the following:—1 Silo, 1 Toronto frame Windmill, 1 Water Tank. Interested parties are requested to be on time as the implements must be sold before dinner.

HOCKEY MATCH.

A hockey match will be played in the rink here Monday evening, Jan. 23, between the home team and Maple's Seven. Game called at 8 o'clock. General admission 10 cents. Everybody invited to see the contest between the two teams in friendly rivalry.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

To-morrow Evening, Jan. 20th, the Literary Committee of the Epworth League, will give a mysterious evening which we expect will be a great success. There will be special music and singing. All are very cordially invited to attend.

YOUNG WAGE EARNERS.

It is not easy for a young wage-earner to bank enough from week to week to provide a sum large enough when he becomes old to give him an income that will keep him in comfort for the rest of his days, and if he spends his capital as well as his interest he must always be haunted with the fear that his principal will some day be all spent. If he understood that by means of the system which the Canadian Government has provided, namely, the Annuities system, he could by paying in 25 cents a week at any Post Office, secure at 60, say, an income which nothing could deprive him of, he would probably immediately avail himself of the opportunity. For example, a young man aged 20 paying in 25 cents a week until 60 would receive from and after that date so long as he lived an income of $129.91, or $29.91 more than he would derive from an investment of $2,000 at 5%, if he happened to have $2,000 available for investment at 60, which it is safe to say that, having regard to the many temptations which he would have to spend the amount, he would not have. But the matter is easy for him if he will but make provision for his old age a charge upon his weekly wage.

Any Postmaster or the Superintendent of Annuities, Ottawa, will supply information as to how this may be done.

ANNUAL BANQUET.

The annual banquet of King & Vaughan Plowmen's Association held at the Palmer House last evening, followed by an entertainment in the Masonic Hall, may be said to have been the "biggest and best" yet held. The crowd was unusually large, and the entertainment was an enjoyable one, most of the performers being encouraged. During the evening songs were sung by Miss Ethel Switzer, Miss Mary Trench, Miss Mabel Marsh, Miss Myrtle Saigeon, Mr. Jones, Dr. Routley, Mr. Strasler and Mr. J. Blough; and readings and recitations given by Rev. E. C. Currie and Mrs. Currie. Hon. Mr. Duff, Minister of Agriculture, was unavoidably absent, but his secretary, Mr. Roadhouse, ably filled his place, and gave a modest, practical address which was highly appreciated by the intelligent audience. Appropriate speeches were also given by Mr. L. Wallace, secretary of the Ontario Plowmen's Association; Mr. Boylen of The Evening Telegram, and Mr. H. A. Nicholls. After a vote of thanks by Mr. J. T. Saigeon, seconded by Mr. Wm. Walkington, to the chairman—Mr. J. McLean—and the performers, the entertainment closed with the National Anthem. The piano accompanists were Mr. J. E. Newton, Mrs. Routley, Miss Millie Trench and Miss McCluskie.

HOCKEY NOTES.

Last Friday evening's practice was the best of the season. Nearly every stick-handler in town was on the ice and there was a decided improvement in the play. E. R. Fahey of Maple showed up well. He will no doubt be in the line up to-night.

The managing committee appointed Harry Carroll captain, who will choose the players for the first team and appoint a vice-captain to take charge of the practices in his absence.

The burlesque game on Monday evening drew out a large crowd who seemed to enjoy the program. The handsome sum of nearly $50 was taken in at the counter. The "Gibson Girls" won by 3 to 1.

To-night (Thursday) a match between the Bank of Commerce, Toronto, and the home team will be played. As this will be a good game the public should see it.

The two High School teams—the boys and girls—are steadily practising in the afternoons. The captains are Norman Francis and Winnie Simpson, both of Thornhill. A double header match is in prospect with two teams from another institution. Particulars later.
