MORMON CHURCH A GREAT SECRET SOCIETY.

In his article on "The Mormon Revival of Polygamy," in the February McClure's, Burton J. Hendrick speaks of the deceptive attitude of the Mormon Church toward plural marriages, which, while it openly repudiates, secretly encourages polygamy. Mr. Hendrick says:
"The anti-Mormon view is that this public repudiation of polygamy is simply part of the Mormon game. Its purpose is to blind the outside world. The Mormon policy is secretly to promote and encourage polygamy, and outwardly to repudiate it. The critic most friendly to the Mormons must admit that, outwardly, many circumstances lend color to this view. The one pre-eminent fact is that the Mormon Church is a great secret society. Non-Mormons are never permitted to enter its temples; the rites and instruction that takes place in them are never officially made public; all members of the church are oath-bound, under the most frightful penalties, not to reveal these mysteries. Mormons who have "gone through" these temples wear day and night an undergarment, inscribed with mystic symbols, as a perpetual reminder of these oaths. The church has its marriage records, but never permits the non-Mormon public to see them. The publication of these records would go a long way toward proving, or disproving, the charge that the church encourages polygamy; but they are held inviolate in the temples. In 1904 the United States Senate attempted unsuccessfully to subpoena them. If these records are entirely innocent, and if the statement of the church is true, that the entries concern only marriages that are valid in the eyes of the civil law, why should they not be produced?"

LYNETT—RYAN.
On Tuesday, Jan. 31st, at 8 a. m., in St. Mary's R. C. church, the marriage of Miss Louise E. Lynett, formerly of Richmond Hill, to Mr. P. W. Ryan of Chicago was solemnized. The bride looked very pretty in a tailored made suit of navy blue broadcloth, with hat to match, and was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. Lynett, while the groom was supported by his brother-in-law, Mr. F. Lynett. Rev. Father Grant officiated. The wedding breakfast was held at the home of Mr. F. Lynett after which the happy couple left by afternoon train amid showers of good wishes for a short honeymoon, after which they will return to their future home in Chicago.

SURE SIGNS
Of Kidney Trouble
If your back is constantly aching and if you experience dull shooting pains, your kidneys are out of order. If your urine is thick and cloudy or your passages frequent, scanty and painful, your kidneys and bladder are out of order. Neglect quickly brings on rheumatism, diabetes, lumbago, sciatica, etc.
Mrs. John Wagner of 110 Hollis St., Halifax, N.S., says: "Dull shooting pains would catch me across the small part of my back and extend into my shoulders and neck, often causing me to suffer with severe headaches and spells of dizziness. Spots would dazzle before my eyes and everything would turn black. I would fall to the floor and be unable to get up again without assistance. A friend told me of Booth's Kidney Pills and I began their use. The first box gave me relief and I am now well and strong."
All druggists sell Booth's Kidney Pills, 50c a box, with a guarantee to relieve or your money back. They are the world's greatest specific for kidney and bladder trouble.
Postpaid from the proprietors, The R. T. Booth Co., Ltd., Fort Erie. Sold and guaranteed by W. A. Sanderson.

LETTER OF SYMPATHY.

The following letter of sympathy was sent to Mrs. Isaac Crosby by request of the members of Richmond Lodge, at their last meeting:—
DEAR MRS. CROSBY,—
On behalf of Richmond Lodge, No. 23, A. F. & A. M., we extend to you our sincerest sympathy in your recent sad bereavement.
Our community and our lodge have suffered a severe loss by the death of our late brother whose genial presence was welcomed by us all but a short time ago, and whose absence we now so sincerely mourn.
A life such as his needs no eulogy. He was an earnest Christian, an active worker in both Church and State. The community as well as the Lodge shall miss his quiet dignity, his wise counsel, his ripe judgment, his many deeds of charity and love.
We pay to his memory the honor to which a life so long, so useful and so honorable has justly merited.
We extend to you our sympathy in being bereft of a devoted husband, and to your son in the loss of a kind and loving father.
In this lonely hour of affliction we commend you to God, our Heavenly Father, who sustains us when subjected to a strain of woe by the blessed assurances of an unbroken circle in the Home beyond.
[Signed on behalf of Richmond Lodge.]

ORCHARD DEMONSTRATION.

The assertion has been made that agricultural papers could not practice what they preach, but the Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine has the courage of its convictions. Faith backed up by works is the kind that carries strongest proof to the doubting mind. Believing earnestly in this principle, the publishers have followed up their valuable line of Orchard demonstration by purchasing a farm of 135 acres, six miles north of London, where the methods advocated through the paper will be worked out in practice, and where new ideas may be tested before being recommended for general adoption. The farm is what is known locally as the old Sifton place. The rolling land, while naturally good, has been worked out and infested with weeds till it has become about the dirtiest farm in the County of Middlesex. The barns are dilapidated and the fences down. Altogether it presents an excellent opportunity for showing what can be accomplished in restoring a run-down property. The Managing Editor of the Farmer's Advocate will live on the place, superintending it with the assistance of a competent working foreman. This is not to be an experimental farm, except incidentally, nor yet a model farm save in so far as any well-managed farm should be a model. It is simply a farm run on a straight commercial basis, where strict accounts will be kept and the information published from time to time. "Good farming without frills" is the motto.

Maple.

There was a large crowd of spectators and skaters at the carnival last Saturday evening. The ice was rather soft, owing to the mild weather, but there was a good deal of sport, and quite a number were in Fancy and Hard Times Costumes. The prizes were awarded as follows: Ladies' Best Representative, Florence Nixon. Bride; Gents, Elmo Keffer, Sergeant; Hard Times, Ladies', Mrs. Mylks; Gents, Russel Rumble; Gent's Race, Wm. Woods; Ladies', Elsie Snider; Boy's, Wilfred Winters; Barrel Race, W. Woods and Harold Kirby.
Mrs. Wm. Wood, of Edmonton, is spending a few days visiting with friends in the village.
Mr. Allan Knight, of Toronto, spent over Sunday with his friend, Mr. F. Richardson.
Miss Leella Keffer as Japanese Lady and Mr. Austin Robinson as Highlander took first prizes at the carnival at Thornhill.
Miss Opal Stewart, of Toronto, is visiting her friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. Woods.
Mr. J. Maw, of Minesing, is visiting at Mr. G. Garrow's.
The skating party on Monday evening was enjoyed by a large number of young people. Supper was served in the schoolroom of the church, and the proceeds amounted to $17.
The monthly meeting of the Woman's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Kirby next Wednesday afternoon. The principal feature of the programme will be a sewing contest. A good attendance is requested.
The regular Quarterly Religious Services will be held in the Methodist Church next Sunday morning, commencing at 10.30. Service will be held at Concord in the evening.
