TRIED AT LAST WHEN OTHERS ALL FAILED

(AND DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED THE POSTMASTER.

F. Tippins had suffered for years and spent hundreds on doctors and medicines, but found the real cure at last.

Tippins P. O., Que., June 12 (Special).-If Dodd's Kidney Pills have a more enthusiastic friend anywhere in Canada than Mr. F. Tippins, postmaster here, we would like to hear from him. And Mr. Tippins is always ready to tell why he praises the great Kidney Remtedy.

"After recovering from an attack of Grippe," the postmaster says, "I took a pain in my back. I suffered for nearly three years and it kept growing worse all the time. I was attended by all the doctors $44 and six bits. Married or unaround, but got no relief, and I married in Norway, you would esgot so bad I had to keep to my cape paying an income tax only by bed. on doctors and medicines I gave up all hope.

"One day I told my wife to go and get me a box of Dodd's Kidney Pills and that would be the last medicine I would try. After using about half the box I began to feel better, so I kept on taking them. When I had taken two boxes I was able to get up, and ten boxes cured me completely."

QUEEN AND DEBUTANTES.

Suggests That the Presentation Dresses Be Made Shorter.

Queen Mary is anxious that debutantes who are being presented at court this season should appear with that in view she has given several hints to dressmakers regarding the fashioning of presentation gowns.

Besides the edict practically forbidding ultra-tight or hobble skirts at court which was issued recently, she has made several practical suggestions. One is that young girls should have their court dresses made slightly shorter in front, as in their nervousness they often trip over trailing skirts as they rise from the required courtesy and make very graceful exits in consequence.

Also the Queen thinks that all trains should be made of some heavy material like velvet or very rich satin rather than the gold and silver tissues and real laces which have been used of late years, the reason for this being that the debutante in her hurry to withdraw after her obseiance to the King and Queen crumples her train over her arm in an ugly manner when it is flimsy and light, whereas when it is heavy it falls in graceful folds no matter how carelessly she grasp it.

NORWAY'S INCOME TAX.

Married Men Are Favored, But Everybody Must Pay Something.

How should you like to pay an income tax on next to nothing? If you were a Norwegian living at home and earning $134 a year you would be taxed on one-tenth of it if you were unmarried; on about one-twentieth of it if you were married and had no children. If you had children you still would be taxed on one-fiftieth of it. Rate high--17.2 per cent. With an income of $536 a year you would be taxed, if unmarried, on more than half of your income; if married and having no children, on about 40 per cent. of your income; having one child, about 37 per cent.; two children, on about 31 per cent. Unmarried and having an in-come of $2,680 a year in Norway, your income tax payment would be $421.22; married, with one child, $389.94; married, with six children, $355.17. All that you would get off your income tax (married) for having six children would be $66; all that you would get off by having five more children would be After spending about $200 having an income less than $83.08 a year. Think of paying an income tax out of $7 a month!

A SITUATION VACANT.

Johnson, the fancy dealer, had left his boy Jimmy in charge of his shop.

The first customer was an old lady who was out to buy a present for her son. She was very difficult to please, and Jimmy began to get impatient. At last the lady picked up a little satchel.

"Are you sure this is real alli-gator-skin?" she inquired. "Positive," replied Jimmy. "I shot that alligator myself."

"It looks rather soiled," remarked the lady, sniffing suspiciously. But Jimmy was equal to the occasion. "That, madam," he replied, "is where it struck the ground when it fell off the tree."

CURED HER KIDNEYS.

Mrs. John Pettigrew, of Central Economy, N.S., was practically helpless from rheumatism. She could not stoop, and her limbs ached so that it was torture for her to be up and around the house. As Mrs. Pettigrew put it, "I was all crippled up. I saw Gin Pills advertised and sent for some, and after taking only two boxes, am a different woman. Gin Pills are the only thing that helped me, and 1 cannot say too much for them." If you have that dreadful pain in the back —if you are tortured with rheumatism— get Gin Pills at once. The Beauty of a Clear Skin.-The condition of the liver regulates the condition of the blood. A disordered liver causes impurities in the blood and these show themselves in blemishes on the skin. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills in acting upon the liver act upon the blood and a clear, healthy skin will follow intelligent use of this standard medicine. Ladies, who will fully appreciate this prime quality of these pills, can use them with the certainty that the effect will be most gratifying.
