RECIPROCITY OR PROTECTION.

To the Editor of THE LIBERAL: When Sir Wilfred Laurier was in the western provinces last year, in reply to the demands of the people of Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, he stated that he believed in free trade as they have it in Great Britain, but that it is not possible to apply it to our fiscal policy at present. His government had however taken the first step in giving the British preference.

When the President of the United States proposed reciprocal free trade between that country and Canada, Sir Wilfred replied that we could not yet accept that policy for our manufactures, but that we would do so for natural products. The Conservative party which opposed the preference to Great Britain, took a like course towards the reciprocity agreement.
The question was not discussed upon its merits but was dealt with largely in regard to different political and commercial dangers, which were conjured up in an endeavour to hide the real issue.

Mr. Borden in his western tour has not only identified his opposition to reciprocity more fully with the principle of protection, but has pledged himself to the most determined opposition, even to the dissolution of Parliament and an election upon this issue. This course of action by the Conservative party forces upon us a fuller discussion of the principle involved in reciprocity, viz., Free Trade vs. Protection.

Richard Cobden, the apostle of free trade in England, said that "the inalienable right of every man to exchange the products of his labor" formed the basis of the free trade position. When in 1846 the Conservative government of Sir Robert Peel in Great Britain accepted free trade as the principle upon which the fiscal polity of that country should rest, Mr.
Cobden told the people that protection would never again control British legislation. "When," he added, "her people once carry any great question they never go back on it." "But," he said, "Great Britain has to teach the world the truths of freedom of industry, as she taught the truths of personal, civil, and religious freedom."

Canada has accepted her position as an integral member of the British Empire, and therewith she entered into a larger relation with the world, sharing not only the burden of 'Imperial Defence' but also the greater and nobler part of leadership with the mother land, for the nations in all that pertains to true progress. In the department of economics, as well as that in naval armament, must we take up our responsibility. The 19th century struggle of the Old World, which was fought out in England, has been transferred to the New World, and in our 20th century, Canada has lifted the gauntlet on behalf of the world's advancement.

The reciprocity agreement is more than a mere trade arrangement between Canada and the United States; it is part of the world wide movement for freedom. The Anglo-Saxon race is committed to the task of leading the nations on to the acceptance of freedom of trade. The United States joins hands with Canada and thereby with Great Britain in this first step.

With the increased power this union of forces will give, our Anglo-Saxon people who for centuries have led the van for civilization, will go forward to yet greater things for the uplift of humanity than has yet been possible; and our sons will one day recall as worthy of honor the names of those whose efforts led to the adoption of this first step of reciprocal free trade with the United States.

Parisian Sage

WILL GROW MORE HAIR

Parisian Sage will stop falling hair in two weeks—cure dandruff in the same time and stop scalp itch at once.
It makes the hair soft, silky and luxuriant.

AS A HAIR DRESSING

Parisian Sage is without peer. It contains nothing that can harm the hair—it is not sticky, oily or greasy, and prevents as well as cures diseases of the scalp.

Women and children by the thousand use it daily as a dressing and no home is complete without it.

NO MONEY BACK IF IT FAILS

Druggists and stores everywhere guarantee Parisian Sage and will refund your money if it fails. Ask your druggist what he thinks of it. He sells it at 50c per large bottle, or you can secure it by mail postpaid from Giroux Manufacturing Co., Fort Erie, Ont. See that the Girl with the Auburn Hair is on each package. Sold and guaranteed by W. A. Sanderson.

A SPLENDID EXAMPLE.

A father has commenced the purchase of a Canadian Government Annuity for his son of 20 years under an arrangement with the son that he is to bear a portion of the expense until he, the son, is able to assume the whole payment of $50 a year, which is the amount required to be paid from 20 to 60 for 40 years to secure for the son at sixty an Annuity of $507.69. It will be seen that the total payments will amount to $2000, and that the return each year will be over one-fourth of this amount so long as the son lives after he attains the age of 60. If he dies before the Annuity is due, all his payments with 3 per cent compound interest up to the time of his death will be refunded to his legal representatives.

If he died at 30 they would receive	$ 590.00
If he died at 35 they would receive	957.85
If he died at 40 they would receive	1,383.80
If he died at 45 they would receive	1,877.65
If he died at 50 they would receive	2,450.00
If he died at 55 they would receive	3,113.80
If he died at 60 they would receive	3,883.15

Full particulars of this excellent scheme may be had on application to the Superintendent of Canadian Government Annuities, Ottawa, to whom letters go free of postage.

ELIMINATE THE MUSTARD.

The mustard spraying demonstration carried out by W. E. J. Edwards, B.S.A., District Representative for York County of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, on Mr. John Williams' farm, one mile east of Newmarket, is creating a great deal of interest. Six plots of equal size were staked out, three were sprayed with iron sulphate, and scarcely a mustard flower can be seen in them, while the three that were not sprayed are full of mustard.

In the Fall these plots will be threshed and weighed separately to ascertain the effect in the yield of the grain.

This will be a very interesting experiment and should prove beneficial to a large number of farmers in this district, as mustard is one of their worst weeds.

Mr. Edwards would be pleased to write to or call on anyone interested in this work.

BRITAIN'S FAMOUS BAND.

The Coldstream Guards Band and its equally famous leader, Lieut. D. J.
McKenzie Rogan, M.V.O., Mus. Doc., Hon. R.A.M., need no introduction to the Canadian or American Public.
They toured Canada and the United States in 1903 and their reputation still lives. On that occasion they were secured for a forenoon and afternoon engagement at the Canadian National Exhibition, and so great an attraction did they prove, that the Management determined to exhaust every possibility to secure them for an engagement for an entire Exhibition. The time has at last arrived when this great musical treat can be given the patrons of the Great Fair. The Coldstream Guards are England's most famous band. They have just finished a season's engagement at the Festival of Empire, London's greatest tribute to Coronation year. They are the musicians of the Royal Household and come to Canada by special permission of His Majesty, King George, and the Secretary of the Imperial War Office.

A GERMAN'S JOKE.

A well-known German, who is something of a wag, walked into one of the public offices the other day, and from the noise it was plain that he was wearing a pair of new shoes, or ones that had recently been repaired. One of the clerks remarked about the shoes and the German said "I comes near selling dese shoes the other day."
"How was that?" asked the clerk.
"I had 'em half soled," said the German, as he walked out of the office. A deep groan was heard as he slipped through the door.—Canadian Pictorial.
