

SUMMER MONTHS FATAL TO SMALL CHILDREN

The summer months are the saddest of the year on small children. Cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentery and stomach troubles are all common at this time and many a precious life is snuffed out after only a few hours' illness. As a safeguard mothers should keep Baby's Own Tablets in the house. An occasional dose of the Tablets will prevent stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes on suddenly will bring the little one through safely. Mrs. Larry DeGrace, Mizonette, N. B., writes: "Last summer my baby suffered greatly from her stomach and bowels and nothing helped her till I began giving her Baby's Own Tablets. They regulated her bowels, sweetened her stomach, and now she is a big, healthy, happy child." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TRAINING IS COSTLY.

Carabineer Is Robbed While Standing at Salute.

A good story is told in Rome, Italy, to illustrate the discipline and self-control of the famous carabineers, that ancient body of military policemen who had their origin in Piedmont and about whom so much has been said during the Camorrist trial.

The other day a company of them was drawn up outside the railway station for the arrival of a royal prince. The prince appeared at the door of the station and all hands were raised in salute when a carabineer felt a little tug at his pocket. Then he felt another stronger pull, and remembered with anguish that all his pay and hoarded wealth was in a purse in his trouser's pocket which was being insidiously attacked, having been exposed by the raising of his arm.

What should he do? The foreign prince was just opposite, and to put down his hand and not salute was unthinkable, but at the same time could flesh and blood, and an officer of the law, too, deliberately allow himself to be robbed and ruined?

His desperate state of mind was shown in the trembling of that hand, which, however, stayed glued to the forehead while the precious purse was slowly and surely abstracted. At last the agonizing moment came when he felt that the pulling had stopped and knew that the thief had made off.

Fortunately, the theft had taken some time, as the thief evidently was not very bold, and just as he got the coveted prize in his hand the captain of the Carabineers turned to give an order, the saluting being over, and saw what had happened. The order for pursuit was given and the Carabineer who had proved the power of discipline over human nature was the one who caught the thief and recovered his property intact.

A SOFT ANSWER.

"Always remember, Ferdinand," said his loving parent, "that a soft answer turneth away wrath." So if any little boy or girl hits you, be your mother's own sweet darling, and don't lose your temper." Then Ferdinand trotted off to school, and when he came home to lunch his mother asked him: "And did my boy remember what he was told?" "Yes, ma. A boy called me a fool, but I did as you said." "And what soft answer did you make?" "I hit him in the eye with a soft tomato!"

"Hallo! Chumley, where did you get that black eye?" "Oh! Only a lover's quarrel." "A lover's quarrel! You don't mean to say your girl did that to you?" "Oh, no! It was her old lover, I mean."

THE SOUR MILK DIET.

Doctor Advises It for Those Who Crave It.

"The most striking example of the utility of sour milk is afforded by Dr. Robert Gray, of Mexico," says a writer in the Dietetic and Hygienic Gazette. "On a diet of buttermilk and clabber this remarkable man, over 80 years old and practising in a climate not conducive to physical or mental activity, is doing a practise that would be burdensome to a man in his prime. A daily walk of twenty-five miles is usual to Dr. Gray, and he travels many more miles over the Mexican excursions for roads on muleback.

"The secret lies in the fact that Dr. Gray has always craved these foods. This craving is not a matter of appetite, but its roots go deeper into the physiological needs of the body. I do not believe that these articles would prove as useful to one who disliked them and could not taste them without a shudder, even after faithfully partaking of them daily for weeks to get the palate and digestion accustomed to them.

"But if such a one felt the same craving for sweet milk or cream, a craving existing from infancy and never sated, I fully believe that these should prove better fitted to his needs than the articles that were distasteful. The fact that the administration of arsenic favors the formation of lactic acid and maintains the acidity of the blood may be one reason why it has proved useful in the treatment of the aged."

FORBIDDEN FRUIT.

THE WORST OF SUPPOSING.

"Listen to me," said the cross-examining counsel. "You must answer my questions definitely. I don't want to know what you supposed. I supposed I had my purse in my pocket when I left home this morning, but, as a matter of fact, I left it on the dressing-table. Now, sir, get on with your evidence."

The case proceeded without further trouble, but when the lawyer arrived home that evening he got a nasty shock, for his wife said: "You must have wanted your purse very badly to send three men one after the other for it."

"What?" roared the barrister. "Did you give it to anybody?" "Of course I did, I gave it to the first man who called. He told me exactly where you had left it."

NO DISCRIMINATION.

"Does your new baby cry much at night?" "Laws! it cries at anything."

"There is one time when you may be sure people are fishing for scandal." "What is that?" "When they are talking with bated breath."

CANCER IN CLAY PIPE.

London Expert Also Warns Against Alcohol and Curries.

One of the interesting statements in Dr. E. F. Bashford's (London, England), report to the imperial cancer research fund is that peculiar customs render persons especially liable to cancer. Dr. Bashford mentions specifically the practice of eating very hot rice in China, the use of kangri in Kashmir, and the chewing of the betel nut.

It is not only in the East, however, that customs conducive to cancer prevail. Inquiring at the laboratories of the imperial cancer research fund a correspondent was told that the smoking of clay pipes was one danger.

"Such pipes get very hot and the clay often sticks to the lips," it was stated. "Any smoker who wishes to run the least possible risk of this dread disease should taboo such pipes, especially short ones.

"Alcoholic excesses which may lead to irritation of the stomach also introduces the risk of cancer. Curries and highly seasoned food generally, if taken habitually, are also a source of danger."

There are trades which render the workers more liable than usual to cancer. The workman who runs most risk is the chimney sweep, whose body is covered with soot. Unless the sweep is extremely careful to keep his skin thoroughly clean the aniline products in the soot will cause irritation, which may end in cancer. In the same way workers in aniline factories run considerable risk and all persons who make use of X rays are particularly liable to cancer.

Wise mothers who know the virtues of Mother Graves' Worm Terminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

CONVEYING IT TACTFULLY.

"Mr. Slocum," the young woman said, "you must not mind Tommy tying your gloves together. He doesn't know that you will be wanting to put them on in a few minutes."

AN ANGLER'S ELYSIUM.

According to advertisements all summer resorts are alike. They are the best ever—but if fishing is better anywhere else than it is in "Georgian Bay" we do not know where it is. There is a greater variety of fish in this water than anywhere else, and they are always hungry. The only place where you can afford to fish is where the fish are numerous, big and delicious in flavor, and that place is Georgian Bay—so the fishermen say. Suppose you send for booklet issued by the Grand Trunk Railway System free, telling about the home of the bass, pickerel, pike, and the noble trout family. Address A. E. Its Virtue Cannot be Described.—No one can explain the subtle power that Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil possesses. The originator was himself surprised by the wonderful qualities that his compound possessed. That he was the benefactor of humanity is shown by the myriads that rise in praise of this wonderful Oil. So familiar is everyone with it that it is prized as a household medicine everywhere.

HOW IT IMPRESSED HIM.

An American, who was entertaining a distinguished English gentleman, was showing his visitor round Newport.

"You observe," remarked the host, "that when we Americans devote ourselves to pleasure, we do so regardless of expense."

"I'd hardly put it that way," responded the witty foreigner. "Rather, you devote yourselves to expense regardless of pleasure."

The Foe of Indigestion.—Indigestion is a common ailment and few are free from it. It is a most distressing complaint and often the suffering attending it is most severe. The very best remedy is Parmelee's Vegetable Pills taken according to directions. They rectify the irregular action of the stomach and restore healthy action. For many years they have been a standard remedy for dyspepsia and indigestion and are highly esteemed for their qualities.

Dr. C. Gordon Howitt, Dominion Entomologist, says, referring to the infantile death rate from intestinal diseases and diarrhoea spread by the house fly, he believes that the so-called harmless fly is yearly causing the death of thousands of infants, as well as spreading the germs of typhoid fever. Wilson's Fly Pads are the only thing that will rid your house of these dangerous pests.

HE WANTED TO LEARN HOW.

Burglar—"Don't shoot me, sir. Householder—"On one condition, that you tell me how you got in without waking my wife."

A Sure Corrective of Flatulency.—When the undigested food lies in the stomach it throws off gases, causing pains and oppression in the stomachic region. The belching or eructation of these gases is offensive and the only way to prevent them is to restore the stomach to proper action. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do this. Simple directions go with each packet and a course of them taken systematically is certain to effect a cure.

"I want to see the head of the house," said the pedlar. "I'm sorry," replied Mrs. Minns, "but the baby is asleep just now."

Wilson's Fly Pads are sold by practically all Druggists, Grocers and General Stores throughout Canada. They kill many times more flies than any other article.
