

What is Your Family Worth?

If your family is worth the best you can afford in house and food and clothes, is it not worth the best reading as well? And the best reading—best for boys and girls, best for men and women—is to be found in The Youth's Companion.

Of stories alone The Companion will print nearly 300 in 1912. With all the rest of the paper thrown in, and counting the glorious long serial stories, they cost the subscriber less than a cent apiece. Moreover, you will look long before you will find stories so varied and interesting; stories of coolness in the face of peril, strange adventures with creatures of the forest and the sea; moving stories of life's obscure heroism; stories breezy with good-natured humor, quaint and curious character sketches.

Now is the time to subscribe, for the new subscriber in Canada will receive free from the time his $2.00 is received all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1911, containing the opening chapters of Ralph D. Paine's great serial story of the Boxer Rebellion, "The Cross and the Dragon." And there is the gift of The Companion Calendar for 1912, "On the New England Coast," lithographed in twelve colors and gold. Only $2.00 now to Canadian subscribers, but on January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.25.

Thornhill.

The annual Thanksgiving Services of the Methodist Church will be held next Sunday, Oct. 29. For several years the congregation has aimed at contributing one hundred dollars as a thank-offering, and although the church has suffered very materially by removals from the community the financial obligations have not grown less, but have increased, and no doubt a heroic effort will be put forth next Sabbath that the record of former years may be maintained.

Rev. John Oak of Toronto will preach at 10.30 a.m. and 7 p.m. As the pastor, Rev. E. T. Douglas, will be exchanging pulpits with Rev. Mr. Oak, Mr. F. Graham, Carrville, a Victoria College student, will preach at Buttonville at 10.30 and at Mt. Zion 2.30. He will also address the Epworth League Rally at Buttonville in the evening.

BAKER-PATERSON.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Tuesday Oct. 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch. Paterson, Cedar Grove, Carrville, when their daughter, Ethel J., was united in marriage to Mr. William J. Baker, of Grand Valley, formerly of Carrville. Rev. Dr. Gilray of Toronto, cousin of the bride, officiated. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of the father, wearing a beautiful gown of white Liberty Satin with bodice of lace, and tulle bridal veil, and carried a shower bouquet of cream roses and lilies, her only ornament being a sunburst of pearls, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Jas. Fisher, of Vellore, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a very pretty dress of white silk.

After the ceremony the guests repaired to the dining-room, to partake of the wedding breakfast. The table was beautifully decorated with lilies of the Valley and stalks.

Immediately after dejeuner the happy couple left amid showers of rice, for their home in Grand Valley, the bride travelling in a suit of navy blue San Foy, with silk waist, and hat to match.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents.

Cashel.

This community at the present time is mourning the loss of a respected citizen, a kind friend and a sympathetic brother in the person of Mr. David Yakes. Although he was a man sixty-four years old he was working as usual until a week ago, when he became somewhat ill, keeping about the house most of the time suffering with a low fever, and appearing to be gradually recovering, until a late hour Friday night when he became critically ill, dying about 2 o'clock Saturday morning.

The funeral which took place on Monday morning was well attended by relatives and friends, the service being most ably conducted by Rev. Geo. H. Waugh of Unionville. After the service the remains were conveyed to the family's private burying ground at Altona where they were interred.

Mr. Henry Arnold is wearing a broad grin these days, for his another boy.

One of our young men is far more industrious than the rest, "just think" to drive all the way from Cashel to a mile below Markham about three nights a week to receive instructions on bricklaying.

Mr. Robinson and Glendening, our gen-merchants, report business brisk, and are now ready to present to their customers new stock at a low price.

Mr. James Ogg has arrived home from the west, and spends the greater part of his time on the fifth concession, "prospecting."
