The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., DEC. 7, 1911

The last Sunday in November was Field Day in Toronto. On that day the licensed bar was denounced in 100 city pulpits, and 100,000 people listened to addresses on the subject of temperance. Although it is admitted that progress is being made along temperance lines, one of the speakers declared that in the 70,000 homes in the city, 7,000 homes had at least one person addicted to the intemperance use of liquor.

At present widows and unmarried women who have property in their own names, or who are tenants, may vote at Municipal elections. Is there any good reason why those same women are not extended the same privileges at the Provincial and Dominion elections? We see no good reason why the Parliaments should not give the franchise to the above named women at all political elections.

The manifesto issued a few days ago by the Executive of the Dominion Alliance contains this paragraph: "Of the Municipalities under licenses there are 120 which have given a majority in favor of Local Option, but where the three-fifths' requirement has prevented the will of the people from becoming law. This handicap the Alliance deeply deplores and earnestly urges its removal." The Alliance has been "deeply deploring" and 'earnestly urging" for several years, but what has it accomplished? Sir James Whitney and his Government have definitely refused to repeal the provision complained of. The new Leader of the Opposition, and the Liberal party have condemned the three-fifths handicap again and again. Everybody knows that for years Mr. Rowell has been most pronounced in his temperance principles. Yet some temperance people act as if they think that one party is just as bad as the other.

There is not much excitement over the coming Provincial elections, but the speeches at the Liberal meeting at the Hill Tuesday evening convinced some of the hearers that a change would be for the good of the Province and the County of York.

The farmers on the second of Markham are feeling jubilant since they threshed their clover. The yield is good, the sample of the seed is excellent, and the price is $11 a bushel.

CHRISTMAS NUMBER.

In every respect The Canadian Magazine for December is a highly attractive Christmas souvenir. There are seventeen illustrations in tint, many of them full-page size, with, as well, a number of reproductions of famous number of reproductions of famous paintings with the frontispiece from a painting by the famous Canadian painter, Homer Watson. The illustrators are C. W. Jefferys, J. W. Beatty, Arthur Kellor, A. Helene Carter, C. Finlay. Well-known. There are eighteen short stories, sketches, and poems by Canadian writers, among them being Arthur Stringer, Frank L. Packard, Newton McTavish, Isabel Ecclestone Mackay, Virna Sheard, S. A. White, George Herbert Clarke, L. M. Montgomery, Madge Clarke, L. M. Montgomery, Madge Macbeth, A. R. Carman, G. B. Burgin, Peter McArthur, Ethelwyn Wetherald, and W. T. Allison.

PUBLIC GUARANTEE.

We are authorized by the publishers to guarantee that every person who during the month of December, pays a year's subscription to The Family Herald and weekly Star of Montreal, will receive a copy of their valuable premium picture, entitled, "Home Again." The Family Herald and Weekly Star's subscription re-ceipts in November were 60 per cent over November 1910, almost entirely owing to the picture which is admitted by all who have seen it to be the best premium ever given with a newspaper. Those who fail to secure a copy will have themselves to blame. The Family Herald and Weekly Star and such a beautiful picture all for one dollar is such rare value that no person can afford to miss it. The picture is given both to renewal and new subscribers.

DADDY'S GIRL.

Are you or e of the hundreds who have writt n to The Globe for a copy of "Daddy" G et"? This is probably without a single exception, the most popular picture ever published in Can-

A few years ago The Christmas Globe publi hed a limited number of them. The demand was so great that every copy was ordered before it was put on the market.

A sample copy of this picture which is from a photograph of a child with the sweetest and most expressive face that can be imagined, may be seen at

To see it is to want it.

This beautiful picture will be given free with each new subscription or re-newal sent in for the Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer before December 31, 1911.

Remember the edition of this picture is limited, and the first come the first served.

The Weekly Globe and Canada Farmer has been enlarged, the staff of writers increased, and many new features have been added. These improvements are in keeping with the progressive management that has made The Daily Globe one of the first half-dozen newspapers on the con-tinent. The Weekly Globe and Can-ada Farmer, with its Illustrated Mag-azine Section, has always held a foremost place among the metropolitan weeklies in Canada. It will now be classed with the best on the continent. When the Illustrated Magazine Section, with its forty or fifty pictures of current events every week, is taken into account, it is certainly a lot of reading to be given for only one dol-
