20 Years' Slavery-How She Got Freedom.

A dyspepsia veteran who writes from one of England's charming rural homes to tell how she won during the year 1911 throughout the victory in her 20 years' fight, na-turally exults in her triumph over the tea and coffee habit:

"I feel it a duty to tell you," she says, "how much good Postum has done me. I am grateful, but also desire to let others who may be suffering as I did, know of the de-lightful method by which I was relieved.

"I had suffered for 20 years from dyspepsia, and the giddiness that usually accompanies that painful ailment, and which frequently prostrated me. I never drank much coffee, and cocoa and even milk did not agree with my impaired digestion, so I used tea, ex-clusively, till about a year ago, when I found in a package of Grape-Nuts the little book, "The Road to Wellville.

'After a careful reading of the booklet I was curious to try Postum and sent for a package. I enjoyed it from the first, and at once gave up tea in its favor.

"I began to feel better very soon. My giddiness left me after the first few days' use of Postum, and my stomach became stronger so rapidly that it was not long till I was able (as I still am) to take milk and many other articles of lood of which I was formerly compelled to deny myself. I have proved the truth of your state-ment that Postum 'makes good,
