The value of a paper is tested by the quality of its circulation, and judged from this standpoint The Weekly Sun occupies the foremost place. Each week it enters the homes of the most advanced farmers in this Province. The Weekly Sun on the table is the sign of progress on the farm.

Mr. P. G. Savage has received the appointment of Postmaster for Richmond Hill in place of the late Mr. Teedy, who held the position for over 60 years. The office will be removed to Mr. Savage's premises as soon as the building is put in condition. Mr. Savage will install lock boxes.

You will notice in another column that H. A. Nicholls has for sale the Post-Office property in Richmond Hill. Anyone wishing to purchase in this village could not do better than have a look at this property. For a residence or business it goes without saying it has not its equal in the village. Price is reasonable and terms to suit purchaser.
