Thornhill.

The attendance at the Literary Circle at the home of Mr. James last Thursday evening was not as large as usual owing to several other attractive meetings in the village on the same evening. The programme was quite interesting, the selections given consisting both of a humorous and instructive nature. The selection by Mrs. Smith from Tennyson was well rendered and the musical selections by Miss E. Clubine, Miss Boyle, Mrs. E. A. James, and Miss Lee of Newton Brook, were well received. The address by Mr. D. James upon "The Angelus" by Millet, using a copy for illustration, was the first upon art study, and was listened to with attention. The social portion of the evening was used to good advantage.

The two Girls' High School hockey teams played an interesting match in the Thornhill rink Thursday evening. The score was 3-2 in favor of the southern girls.

The Rosco's (Toronto Intermediates) were defeated in Thornhill Monday evening by the home seven. The score was 6-3.

Also Mr. Rogers of St. Paul's Sunday School will illustrate the "Life of Jesus" by superb colored plates of pictures by master artists. A good musical programme will be contributed by Miss Myrtle Saigeon, Maple; Mrs. Davidson, Thornhill, and Dr. Routley and others.
