The Ugoigo Club met Wednesday evening, April 17. After singing several hymns the members had a lengthy discussion with regard to business affairs. The study of the play "The Merchant of Venice" was begun which everyone seemed to enjoy. The meeting closed with "God Save the King."

Rev. W. L. Trench of High Park Methodist church will preach Educational sermons in this circuit next Sunday, preaching in Richmond Hill in the evening. Mr. Trench will be assisted in the services by Rev. A. H. Rowe, the junior pastor. A special collection will be taken for the Educational Fund.

RATCLIFFE—STOREY.

At three o'clock Thursday afternoon, April 18, at High Park Methodist Church, the marriage of Miss Marion Storey, of Richmond Hill, to the Rev. Thomas Ratcliffe, of East Toronto, took place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Will Lawson Trench, assistant pastor of the church, who is a cousin of the bride. The bride, who was unattended, wore a tailored suit of navy blue whipcord with hat to match, and carried roses. Dr. F. H. Torrington played the wedding march. The happy couple left on the 4.40 train, amid showers of confetti and good wishes to visit a few towns in the western part of Ontario.

MR. CLARY'S DEATH.

Elsewhere in this paper will be seen the death notice of the late James Clary, for nearly fifty years a resident of Thornhill. It will be remembered that Mrs. James Clary died at their home in Bronte a little over a year ago, March 27, 1911, and her funeral to the same family plot in Palermo was on the 29th of March. The deceased Mr. Clary is survived by a daughter, Elizabeth Rebecca, now Mrs. Wm. H. Cudmore of Bronte, Ont., and a son, Mr. John H. Clary, Crown Attorney of Sudbury.

RATEPAYERS MEETING.

A very special meeting of the Ratepayers Association will be held on the evening of the 30th inst. This will be a very important meeting and every citizen interested in the Village should be there. The Committee appointed to consider the question of new streets will present their report, and the subject of continuing tree planting will again be put in shape in order to continue the good work. There will also be another very interesting event but details are withheld for reasons that will appear at the meeting.

I. O. F. CONCERT

The Masonic Hall was crowded last evening when a complimentary concert was given by the officers and members of Court Fairview, No. 3659. The chair was occupied by Dr. Pentland who in his opening remarks said he had been a member of the Order for about 30 years. The musical part of the programme was given by Miss Maude Bigwood, soprano soloist; Miss Lillian Dillon, pianist, and Mr. Harvey Lloyd, comic vocalist. Their selections were well received, and each of the musicians was encored again and again. The principal address of the evening was given by Bro. G. A. Mitchell, superintendent of field work. The key note of the address was True Fraternity. He spoke of the duty of men in helping their brothers in time of need and distress, the sick benefits received by the members, the insurance, and the sanitariums where their sick brethren are cared for. Policies are issued to men or women up to $5,000. At the age of 70 years, or in case of disability members can draw 70 per cent. of their policy. The Order also has a reserve fund of over $19,000,000. Before closing Mr. Mitchell advised eligible persons to hand in their applications to Bro. Fellman, who is now in Richmond Hill working for the good of the Order.

Mr. Bell, H. C. R., also gave a short address, pointing out the benefits to be derived by having membership in what he considered the best fraternal organization in existence. After a patriotic selection by Mr. Lloyd the entertainment was brought to a close by singing "God Save the King."

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A congregational meeting will be combined with the Social evening of the Guild on next Friday night, beginning at 7.30 sharp. A short program of music and readings has been arranged by the Musical Committee, then the Managers have some matters of business to be discussed, after which refreshments will be served. All new comers to the congregation are specially invited to be present as the occasion will provide special opportunity for our becoming acquainted.

The fairer weather and improved roads of last Sunday gave us large congregations at both services. This was very encouraging to those who were present in the less favorable conditions of the two preceding Sundays. It is hoped this is a good omen of what we shall experience for the summer months.

The Rev. Walter Amos of Aurora will preach next Sunday in exchange with Mr. Currie. Mr. Amos, who has been 36 years in Aurora, has recently resigned.

CONCERT TALENT.

The Entertainment Committee of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society have secured the following artists for their Annual Concert to be given on the 24th of May:—Jack Howard, comic vocalist; Charles Emery, vocalist and entertainer; Miss Corrie Masten Brown, elocutionist; Miss Ethel Switzer, soprano; Mr. John A. Kelly, ventriloquist and entertainer.

News Notes.

At Saturday night's meeting of the North Toronto Council, Solicitor Gibson was advised to act with Solicitor Wright of the Toronto and York Radial Railway in framing up an agreement between the corporation and the town with respect to the double-tracking of Yonge-street. This action was adopted in response to a letter from Manager Moore asking that such a course be taken.
