Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Wiley on Tuesday attended the funeral of Mrs. Wiley's brother, William Turner, who died suddenly at his home in Rochester. Interment took place at Uxbridge.

Mr. John Bestard who has been in failing health for some time had a slight stroke of paralysis Sunday evening. He rallied a few hours afterwards, but has since been in a weak condition.

Mr. Wm. Holladay of Newmarket who attended the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Risebrough of Newton Brook, to this place on Monday, called on a number of old friends here before his return home.

Mr. M. Patton starts on his second trip to the West next Monday. This time he takes 26 thoroughbred Short-horn cattle from the Russell, Mulock and Summerfeldt stables. His destination is Yorkton.

Patrons of the Fair to-morrow will be sure of a good dinner and tea at either the Methodist Church or the Presbyterian Church. The ladies of both congregations will be pleased to welcome all comers, and will provide a good meal for 25 cents.

Mrs. Caseley and near relatives wish through THE LIBERAL to thank neighbors and friends for kindness and sympathy shown during the illness and after the death of Mrs. Caseley's husband, the late John Caseley.

At a meeting of the Trustees of the Methodist Church Tuesday evening Mr. Allen was appointed trustee representative on the Quarterly Board, and Thursday evening Messrs. P. G. Savage, C. Mason and W. A. Wright were appointed Society Representatives.

John Ash of Whitechurch is plaintiff in an action entered at Osgoode Hall against the Township of Markham, the Township of Vaughan, and the Toronto and York Radial Railway Co., to recover $2000 damages for injuries to his horse, harness and sleigh, by the alleged negligence of the defendants.

Don't fail to see and hear John A. Kelly, Canada's leading ventriloquist, in the afternoon and evening of the 24th of May. In the Fair Grounds he will present his marvellously funny happy family of comical creatures, and in the hall in the evening he will put on some finer work, aided by piano accompaniments.

The new Summer time table on the Metropolitan Railway went into effect on Tuesday. The regular service will be hourly. The cars will pass through Richmond Hill going south at 24 minutes to the hour, and going north at 15 minutes past the hour. As at present, the last car will leave Toronto at 10 p.m., and on Wednesday and Saturday nights at 11.45.

Mr. Bert Hopper's old bay mare, commonly known as "The Switcher," one of the best pieces of horse flesh ever driven in this section, ate her oats as usual Monday morning. Mr. Hopper hitched her up and started south for a short drive, but when opposite Mr. Palmer's, south of Todd's corner, she dropped dead. Truly it can be said of the tough old servant, "She died in the harness."

The directors of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society are pleased to acknowledge the receipt of $10 from Mr. Ed. Brinell of 209 Davenport Road, Toronto, in aid of the Fair to be held on May 24. Also the following contributions received too late for insertion in the prize list:—R. W. Phillips, County Clerk, $2.00; N. Gorman, Toronto, $2.00; E. A. James, Engineer, North Toronto, $5.00; Gregory & Gooderham, Toronto, $5.00; Wm. Padget, Toronto, $5.00.

DEATH AND BURIAL

After a painful illness Mr. John Caseley passed away Sunday morning. The funeral Tuesday afternoon to the village cemetery was largely attended by relatives and friends. At the house his pastor, Rev. Dr. Smith, conducted a service in which he expressed his sympathy with the widow, brothers and sisters and other sorrowing relatives. Dr. Smith referred to the deceased as a good neighbor and useful citizen. As a mark of respect the Fire Department, of which Mr. Caseley had long been a member, marched in a body from the residence to the cemetery. The casket was borne by his six brothers, namely William, Daniel, Henry, James, Richard and Thomas. The surviving sisters, all of whom were at the funeral are Mrs. Wm. Boynton, Mrs. Henry Bond, Mrs. Edward Barker and Mrs. Walter Comisky.

PROMPT PAYMENT

The following letter of thanks has been handed in for insertion in THE LIBERAL:—

MESSRS. P. G. SAVAGE & SON,
Richmond Hill;

Gentlemen,—I have just received the cheque for $300 from The York Fire Insurance Co., being the total amount of my policy in settlement of my loss by fire on this date.

Permit me to thank you for the prompt manner in reporting the fire and the Company in paying my claim only a few hours after the fire occurred.

I will take great pleasure in recommending your Company to all my friends as most generous and exceedingly prompt in settlement of its losses.

Yours very truly,
ELIZABETH N. BROWN.
Richmond Hill, May 16, 1912.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Rev. J. L. Simpson will occupy the pulpit next Sunday in the absence of Mr. Currie who has been appointed interim moderator of the now vacant charge of Maple and St. Paul's Church, Vaughan, and declares the pulpit vacant on that date.

The meeting of the Guild is cancelled for this week on account of the holiday but has "An evening with Elocution" on its program for the 31st.

The Ladies of the congregation will contribute their quota of assistance in feeding the multitude on the 24th, and all who patronize them will be cordially received. Man cannot live by bread alone nor by meat and potatoes with it, and our reception committee will endeavor to make it a social occasion.

Victoria Square.

The following officers of the Epworth League have been chosen for the ensuing year: President, R. Boynton; 1st vice-president, Christian Endeavor department, Miss Lundy; 2nd vice-president, missionary, Miss L. Rowbotham; 3rd vice-president, social and literary, Miss B. Read; 4th vice-president, citizenship, G. Gee; secretary, S. Boynton; corresponding secretary, Miss N. Brown; treasurer, H. Sanderson; organist, Miss G. L. Boynton; assistant organist, Miss N. Brown; leader of singing, G. Gee.

A Bee Demonstration is to be held in the Apiary of Mr. Walter Scott, Victoria Square, May 29, commencing at 1 o'clock sharp. The purpose of this Demonstration is to explain the nature of Foul Brood and show how to cure it, also how to save the wax from the combs by means of the wax press.

On Tuesday of last week Mrs. R. E. Sanderson, fourth concession of Markham, was taken ill with appendicitis, and on Wednesday morning was removed to the General Hospital, Toronto, where she was successfully operated upon, and at present time is doing well.

PAPER PRICES ADVANCE.

"Owing to the upward tendency of prices in the paper market, we have been notified by the mills, both American and European, of the withdrawal of all quotations, and we beg to notify the trade that all prices shown in our Price List are subject to change without further notice, and that orders will be accepted by us and filled as near the Price List as possible, but we reserve the right of charging the current prices. Also please notice that any special quotations on papers are withdrawn."

We have received possibly a dozen of notifications similar to the above within the past few weeks. Owing to the upward tendency in prices in almost every line we believe our patrons will not complain if a slight advance is made in some lines of printing done at THE LIBERAL Office.
