The Weekly Globe, with its Illustrated Magazine Supplement, is a credit to Canadian journalism. The regular price is one dollar a year. New subscribers, however, are now offered the paper 16 months from present date at that figure. And better yet, LIBERAL subscribers will get the Weekly Globe for 75 cents until Dec. 31, 1913. Leave your subscriptions at THE LIBERAL Office.

The Palmer House property has changed hands. Mr. John Palmer who owned the property many years has sold to Messrs. William and Arthur Pugsley. We understand the sheds and stables will be removed to the south side of Arnold street, directly west of the hotel building, and on the north side of the street the Pugsley Bros. may erect several dwelling houses, something very much needed at the present time.

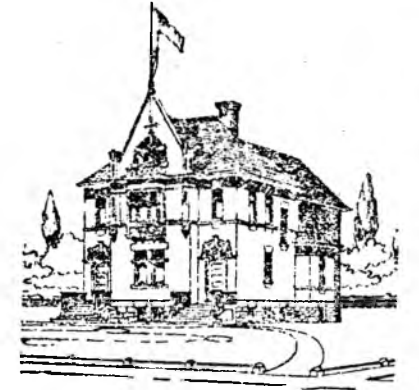

THE LIBERAL is always pleased to insert personals and other news items of local interest, which may be handed in by our subscribers or readers. If a friend or relative visits you, or if you or any member of the family goes on a trip or visit, don't be too modest to let your local paper know. The reading public likes to hear of births and marriages and anything of a social nature. The editor always appreciates any assistance he receives from the outside. The average person is interested in little things as well as great issues.

SHAW'S SCHOOLS.
The Central Business and Shorthand School, Toronto, organized by Principal W. H. Shaw, in 1892, with its four well equipped Branch Schools, The Central Telegraph and Railroad School and The Shaw Correspondence School, all located in Toronto, are now commonly known as "Shaw's Schools." These schools are doing a great work in training young men and women for business pursuits and a successful record of twenty years gives to these schools a long list of active graduates who are now controlling in part the commercial interests of our country. These schools are well known to be reliable in every particular and are worthy of the wide and liberal patronage they enjoy. See announcement in our adv. columns.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
The attention of the members and officers of the Guild is called to the program which is arranged to begin with September.
The Choir will meet for practice on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock sharp.
