On next Lord's Day (D.V.) Mr. R. G. Schell will speak at Sherwood at 7 p.m. subject "The way that is right, and cannot be wrong." A hearty invitation is extended to all to be present.

A correspondent from Teston expresses a hope that more young people should attend Sunday School in that place. The suggestion is a good one. Lessons learned in a well conducted Sabbath School are a help to boys and girls all through life.

Mr. John Palmer has improved the appearance of the Council Chamber by calcimining the walls and ceiling. The walls are now a pale green, and the ceiling is pink. A rail has also been placed in the stairway from top to bottom, making it much safer in coming down the steep stairs.

An evening paper contained an account of a wedding at the home of Mrs. James Gainare, 162 Beaconsfield avenue, Toronto, when her eldest daughter Biddie May was married to Mr. Franklin Gould Savage, son of the late Mr. George Savage. The groom is a nephew of Mr. P. G. Savage of this village.

CROUP stopped in 20 minutes sure with Dr. Shoop's Croup Remedy. One test will surely prove. No vomiting, no diarrhea. A safe and pleasing syrup—50c. Druggists.

As no member of the Village Council attended the Ratepayers Meeting Tuesday evening, some one suggested that as the street lamps have not been lighted during the past week possibly they were afraid to venture out in the dark. It is certainly a little risky stumbling about in the dark, but our citizens should be used to it by this time.

A very convenient shower-bath has been erected at the Carriage Works on Yonge Street. When the rain comes down in torrents the heavy stream shoots a little beyond the sidewalk, but in an ordinary rain the passer-by can get the full benefit without ever stepping off the pavement. Several of our citizens, including a number of ladies, on their way to church, can testify to the convenience of this up-to-date shower-bath.

The Markham Economist contained a local last week saying the business men of Thornhill passed a resolution in favor of a vote being taken in January looking to the repeal of Local Option in Markham township. The claim is made that liquor is being brought into the village, and that the place is without hotel accommodation. We are safe in saying that few of the business men in Richmond Hill would vote for a resolution to go back to license in this town.

BOLTON FAIR POSTPONED.

McLEAN—HILL.
The residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, Elmvale, was the scene of a pretty wedding when their eldest daughter, Keith, was married to Mr. Norman C. McLean of Toronto. The ceremony was conducted in the presence of the near friends by Rev. G. J. McKay, M. A., in the drawing room, behind an arch of evergreens intertwined with cream satin and pink and white asters. Miss Hill of Orillia, cousin of the bride, rendered the wedding march. The bride was given away by her father, and wore a gown of white princess lace over ivory satin with bridal veil, and carried a shower of cream roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Cassie, who wore cream satin and carried pink roses. Mr. Murray A. Kerr of Toronto was groomsmen. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. McLean left for New York, the bride travelling in a grey whipcord suit with hat to match. On their return they will reside in Toronto.
