A farm paper whose editor is an active farmer must of necessity be near the farmer and know his needs. This is one of the reasons for the popularity of The Weekly Sun, Toronto, which for over twenty-two years, the Ontario farmer has considered his business paper. Then again, The Sun's market reports are of such value to those who take advantage of the information given that they will not do without it. Sun subscribers are active farmers who farm for profit. If you are not a subscriber to The Sun you should be. The Sun can help you make the farm pay all it can pay. When renewing your subscription for THE LIBERAL ORDER THE SUN.

Thanksgiving services will be held next Sunday with a programme appropriate to the occasion. Special music will be furnished by the choir and Mr. Currie will speak in the morning on the theme of Thanksgiving, and in the evening on "Rejoicing in the Way." Many things have contributed to make the past year one of the good years for our people and our congregation, and it requires but the intimation of a Thanksgiving service to cause us to give public expression to our gratitude. We look for the presence of all our people next Sunday morning.

A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE.
We notice in this week's issue of The Family Herald and Weekly Star, that the publishers have secured, as a premium picture for subscribers, another beautiful subject, entitled "Mother's Treasures," a companion to the beautiful picture "Home Again" which they gave last year. Family Herald pictures are always good and it is said that "Mother's Treasures" is the best yet. It is truly wonderful what great value one receives for one dollar a year in The Family Herald and Weekly Star. It is a paper no home in Canada should be without. Every member of a family will find some part of it interesting, and alone well worth the year's subscription. The premium picture, "Mother's Treasures" is 23x29 inches, all ready for framing, and alone would sell in any art store at two dollars. The Family Herald should do bigger business than ever this season.
