DATED at Toronto in the County of York and Province of Ontario this Twentieth day of September A.D. 1912

CURRY, COOPER & CO. 133 St. Nicholas St. Toronto

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A delightful social gathering of the congregation was held last Thursday evening and in spite of the cold weather there was a good attendance of both old and recent members of the congregation. An informal program in which Mrs. Currie, Miss M. Marsh, Miss Grace Pratt and Mr. J. Earle Newton took part contributed much to the pleasure of the evening. Mr. J. S. McNair in his usual genial manner did duty as chairman, and brief addresses of welcome, particularly of new comers were made by Messrs. Innes and Pratt, and the minister. A very interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of an address and purse of gold coins to Mrs. R. S. Cooper, in appreciation of her faithful service to the congregation in the choir and other organizations. Another announcement made by Mr. James McLean to the effect that the ladies had presented a new furnace to the church was received with much applause. After the program was completed refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse, and all went home feeling that such social evenings do much to promote cordiality in a congregation.

Our Christmas services will be next Sunday with appropriate music and discourses. We hope our people will maintain the good attendance record of the autumn months and be present. The Executive meeting of the Guild called for Friday evening is postponed till next week.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School will hold its Annual Xmas Tree and Entertainment in the Masonic Hall, Monday evening, Dec. 23, at half past seven. The scholars have prepared a play entitled "David Copperfield" from Charles Dickens' story of the same name, and they promise every one a good hearty laugh; they have also prepared choruses, recitations, etc. Those having gifts to be put on the tree are asked to send them in early Monday afternoon. Admission, adults 25 cents, children outside of Sunday School 15c.

ART AND AGRICULTURE

It was no misconception that linked Agriculture and Arts in forming one of the old associations that, in great measure, laid the foundation of Canadian progress. Art, agriculture and literature, distinguish dominant peoples. Once a year "The Farmer's Advocate and Home Magazine," of London, Ont., treats its readers to a Christmas Number, cover and contents of which this season make a rare combination of the practical, the historic, and the artistic. The charming colored frontispiece surpasses anything the paper has hitherto published, in conception, richness, and brilliance of execution. The Northland picture symbolizes the bold spirit of Canada, and Agnes Laut, an eminent Canadian woman of letters, Jas. J. Hill, the Canadian-born peer among American railroad kings; Prof. Thos. Shaw, S. B. Sinclair, Ph. D., of Macdonald College; Prof. H. S. Arkell, Peter McArthur, Prof. H. I. Hutt, Dr. C. A. Pablow, A. E. Adams, members of the editorial staff, and other capable writers, contribute articles for its one hundred pages, which is much larger than the issue a year ago. The fine array of articles includes a capital report of the great International Show at Chicago, where Canadian breeders won the highest honors in cattle, sheep and Clydesdale horses. The illustrations are in profusion, and include many fine photographs and reproductions of the best paintings of Horatio Walker, of New York, a distinguished son of Canada; Lauren S. Harris, J. E. H. MacDonald, J. P. Hunt, Wm. St. Thomas Smith, and other noteworthy Canadian artists. Publishers and readers are alike to be congratulated upon this superb number, which subscribers, old and new, receive as a Christmas compliment.

BRIGHTEN YOUR HOME FOR 1913.

What will brighten your home better than a beautiful pleasing picture on the wall. "Mother's Treasures" is just the picture you want. It is fit for any home in Canada and can be had free by subscribing to The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal, the greatest and best family paper printed. It costs only one dollar a year, and no home can afford to be without it. Every present subscriber to that paper should send his renewal now and get a copy of the beautiful picture. Any one not a subscriber should order the paper and picture at once. They will help to make the New Year brighter for you.

ROD AND GUN.

For December, published by W. J. Taylor Limited, Woodstock, Ont., is an especially readable number. Among its varied list of contents may be found "The Calgary Stampede," a description of the wonderful historical pageant that took place last Sept. in that city of the plains; "Bud Parsons," an amusing tale of a youthful hunter who thirsted for the blood of a bear; a finely illustrated article describing the winter attractions of a well known summer tourist rendezvous—Algonquin Park; and a funny Indian story-poem.

Hope.

The anniversary services in connection with the Methodist Church in this place will be held on Sunday, Dec. 29th, at 2.30 and 7 p.m. Sermons will be preached both afternoon and evening by Rev. E. C. Currie, of Richmond Hill. The musical part of the services will be given by the choir of the church assisted by the Maple Male Quartette. A free-will offering will be taken up at each service.
