A note from Mr. Holmes Crosby who with his mother are spending the winter at Los Angeles, Cal., says:—The weather is very sunny and warm. The sun is shining most beautifully now and has been since we arrived. The flowers are blooming and violets are five cents a bunch. Carnations about ten cents a dozen. To-day is just like a June day. No overcoats are needed.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
A very interesting play entitled David Copperfield was given Monday night in the Masonic Hall by the young people and children of the Sabbath School, and proved to be full of humor and reflected great credit upon those who had it in preparation. Each part was played so efficiently that we need not single out any one part. A splendid house rewarded the actors. Music and recitation were also contributed by the school. The Christmas Tree came as the grand finale, and Santa Claus was heartily greeted by all.

GODWIN—WRIGHT.

"Richmond Villa," Richmond Hill, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Wright was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Tuesday afternoon, December, 24th when their only daughter, Myrtal Lorine was united in marriage to Mr. W. Orville Godwin, of Washington, D.C. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. William Godwin, of Swesburg, Ont., father of the groom, assisted by Rev. Dr. G. Sydney Smith, Richmond Hill, Rev. J. McCormick, Holmesville, Ont., and Rev. E. C. Currie, Richmond Hill. The bride entered the drawing room on the arm of her father and looked charming in her gown of ivory satin brocade with court train, wearing a Juliet cap and embroidered veil caught with the orange blossoms and lilies of the valley worn by her mother and carrying a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Helen Alexandrine Law, Detroit, Mich., who was gowned in pale pink charmeuse with tunic of accordion pleated chiffon and cap of seed pearls and dew drops and carrying a shower bouquet of pink roses and lily of the valley. Little Miss Mildred Currie acted as flower girl. She carried a basket of carnations. The groom was ably assisted by his brother Lloyd Godwin, of Toronto. The wedding march was played by Miss Pearl Godwin, and during the signing of the register a solo was rendered by Miss Ethel Switzer. After the reception a dainty buffet luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Godwin left for a trip to Fort Wayne, Indiana, and other points, after which they will be at home in Washington, D.C. The many beautiful gifts showed the esteem in which the young couple were held. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace of whole pearls, to the bridesmaid a cameo ring, to the best man a tie pin, and dainty pins to the others immediately assisting.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA.

There was a large audience at the Methodist church last evening to hear "What happened to Santa." The various parts of the beautiful cantata were well taken by the young people and children of the Sunday School, and the true spirit of Christmas was well brought out. The musical numbers were catchy, and the costumes looked fine. Mr. Donald Atkinson made an excellent Santa, and he was well supported in his good work of making people happy by the Fairies, Brigands, Gypsies, and Tiny tots. Even the cross old Sexton was eventually forced to admit that Christmas cheer was the proper thing. When the searchers after happiness were rewarded for their labors Santa and his willing assistants distributed presents taken from three heavily laden camels in the back ground, above which was "the star." The superintendent, Mr. J. H. Sander-son, thanked the audience for their presence and support.
