Mrs. Neely, whose home was formerly in Peterboro has not been in Ontario for 21 years. She was surprised at the present size of Toronto.

Brown's Nurseries are famous for their fine Peach, Apple, Plum and Cherry trees. They have the best nursery soil in Canada and are the largest growers of trees in the Dominion. All scions and budsticks are cut by one man and he has been in their employ many years, so no mistakes are made by using wrong scions or buds. Send for Catalogue or write for agency, as they have some unoccupied territory in your country. BROWN BROS. CO., Browns Nurseries, Welland Co., Ont. 163 mo.

Rod and Gun (published by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.) for January has a somewhat striking cover cut, being a reproduction of a lady fox farmer. The same issue contains an article on the Culture of Black and Silver Foxes, under the heading "Value." In addition, there are stories of outdoor life and sport representative of both the Eastern and the Western provinces. "Along the Mighty Mackenzie to the Arctic Ocean," descriptive of a trip from Edmonton to the last post on the Mackenzie River; A Wild Goat Hunt in the Rockies; The Bear that Kept an Appointment; Filling a Big Game License in New Brunswick; Mink Trapping; Good Luck at the Kilmarnock Hunting Camps; and other stories in prose and rhyme, combine to make an interesting issue of this Canadian sportsman's magazine. An illustrated write-up of the St. Thomas Tournament, held December 2nd to 6th, is to be found in the Trap Department, along with other notes of trap-shooting.

TRENCH—MURDAY.
A very quiet wedding took place on Friday, Jan. 3, when Miss Eva Murday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Speck of Randall, was united in marriage to Rev. W. L. Trench of Bruce Mines, Ont. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride, and the Rev. T. A. Roach of Alliston was the officiating clergyman. The bride was dressed in a travelling suit of blue whipcord and was given away by her brother A. M. Murday. The groom's gift to the bride was a set of mink furs. After a short visit to Buffalo and Niagara Falls the happily wed couple return to their home in Bruce Mines, Ont.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.
The Guild will hold its first meeting of the year on Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The subject will be "The Teaching of Jesus Concerning God." The President takes the chair and Mr. Currie speaks upon the subject.
One new move in the Guild is in the direction of less frequent meetings. The executive has arranged the new programme for alternative weeks.
The teachers and officers of the Sunday School will hold their annual meeting on Thursday evening at 7.30 at the home of the Superintendent.

BOTH BY-LAWS CARRIED.
The citizens of Richmond Hill did themselves credit on Monday by carrying the two by-laws submitted to them. The by-law to raise $7,000 by way of debentures for repairing and improving roads and sidewalks by a vote of 81 to 20, and the by-law to authorize the Village Council to enter into a contract with the Toronto & York Radial Company for a supply of electric energy had only 7 votes against it, the vote being 126 7.

"THE WHITE PLAGUE."
An illustrated lecture with 100 lantern views on the subject of Consumption will be delivered by Mr. J. B. Watson, Field Secretary of the National Sanitarium Association, in the Masonic Hall Thursday evening, January 16, at 8 o'clock. A collection will be taken in aid of the Mnskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.
