LITERARY CIRCLE.

The monthly meeting of the Thornhill Literary Circle was held on Monday evening in the beautiful and commodious residence of F. Simpson, Esq. Upwards of forty were present, although the weather was mostly unfavorable, and the evening's entertainment was very enjoyable and instructive. Principal Davidson of Richmond Hill occupied the chair. The address given by Rev. A. B. Lawrence, Anglican Rector, on "Sunny Alberta—the land of the 'Sky Pilot'" was a unique one and afforded an intellectual treat to an attentive audience. The Rev. gentleman had been stationed in the Pincher Creek in southern Alberta for a couple of years and was thoroughly conversant with the people and the country. He gave a vivid description of the scenery, climate, inhabitants &c., interspersed with personal reminiscences and adventures in that most interesting part of the north west. There were also brief extempore speeches from subjects selected by lot, which furnished more or less amusement. The musical part of the programme was taken charge of by Mrs. Davidson of Richmond Hill and Miss Elliott and together with the choruses added much to the evening's entertainment. Votes of thanks were tendered those taking a public part and also to Mr. and Mrs. Simpson for their genuine hospitality.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

A series of special services will be held in the Church next week preceding the Communion, and promises to be of great blessing to all who will improve the occasion. Our own people are urgently requested to so arrange work and engagements as to be in attendance if possible each evening, and a general invitation is extended to all the people in Richmond Hill. The programme is as follows:—

Monday, Jan. 27th, Rev. D. Strachan, Rosedale church, Toronto.

Tuesday, Jan. 28th, Rev. S. H. Gray, St. Andrew's church, Toronto.

Wednesday, Jan. 29th, Rev. W. G. Back, Eglinton church, Toronto.

Thursday, Jan. 30th, Rev. A. Logan Geggie, Parkdale church, Toronto.

Friday, Jan. 31st, Rev. Dr. MacGillivray, Bonar Church Toronto.

Special music will also be provided by soloists and the choir.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed on Sunday, Feb. 2nd, at 11 a. m.

Two new elders have recently been elected by the congregation and the Induction will take place next Sunday morning.

The subject of study at the Guild meeting on Friday evening is Longfellow's "Excelsior." Leader Rob't Knights, essayist, Miss Pentland.
