

The Liberal.

RICHMOND HILL, ONT., FEB. 6, 1913

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

"Jesus Teaching Concerning Himself" will be the subject under study at the Guild on Friday night of this week. Leader Miss Nellie Knights, essayist Mr. G. S. Sims.

If the attendance and interest so well sustained in connection with the special services held last week are a safe criterion by which to estimate their success, we may expect rich spiritual results to accrue to all who turned aside to improve the privilege. The addresses were all that could be desired and were not only apt but notable in this consecutive relationship. "The Place of Prayer," "The Responsibility of Privilege," "The Relation of Religion to Common Life," "Character" and "Putting on Christ" were themes full of appeal and should bear fruit in the strengthening and upbuilding of Christian character.

Nine new names were added to the Roll of membership in the congregation last Sunday. This is gratifying, and with the prosperous year reported at the annual meeting recently held should encourage our people to believe "the best is yet to be" and serve as an inspiration for 1913.

Next Sunday evening Mr. Corrie will begin a series of addresses on "The Ideal Christian."
