

HER SYMPATHY

MAKES HER SPEAK

DAME MAYER TELLS HOW SHE FOUND A CURE IN DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Suffered for Three Years From Rheumatism, Headache, Palpitation and Bright's Disease—Dodd's Kidney Pills Cured Her Kidneys and Made Her Well.

Huberdeau, Argenteuil Co., Que., March 3 (Special).—"I am always glad to tell of my cure, because I sympathize with others who may be suffering as I did." So says Dame Joseph Mayer, well known and highly respected here.

"For three years I was a very sick woman. Rheumatism, headache, palpitation of the heart and Bright's disease were my succession of troubles, but Dodd's Kidney Pills cured them all. I used twenty-four boxes to complete my cure, but they certainly made me well.

"I will never be without Dodd's Kidney Pills in the house."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cured Dame Mayer's ills because they are all caused by diseased kidneys. Dodd's Kidney Pills always cure diseased kidneys, and with cured kidneys straining the seeds of disease out of the blood, the rheumatism, Bright's disease, headache and palpitation of the heart are bound to disappear.

You never heard of a case of kidney disease that Dodd's Kidney Pills would not cure.

"Casey," said Pat, "how do yez tell th' age of a tu-u-rkey?" "O! can always tell by the teeth," said Casey. "By the teeth!" exclaimed Pat. "But a tu-u-rkey has no teeth." "No," admitted Casey, "but O! have."

AN IRISH STAR-GAZER.

Sir Robert Ball has been described as the most popular British lecturer of the day. This is a remarkable tribute, considering that Sir Robert's subject is astronomy, which, in itself, does not usually create much interest amongst a general audience. The secret of his success is to be found in the fact that he is an Irishman well endowed with native wit and a pleasant voice.

Sir Robert Ball

A scientist whose training has been chiefly academic, Sir Robert has little of the professional manner. His love of open-air exercise has endowed him with a ruddy countenance, which, added to his genial, kindly manner, convey the impression of a philanthropic landlord. He was educated at the Universities of Dublin and Cambridge and both Ireland and England have freely recognized his remarkable knowledge of astronomy. For eighteen years he was Astronomer-Royal for Ireland, and he is now director of the Observatory at Cambridge and Professor of Astronomy at the University.

Sir Robert Ball has presided over several learned societies and has written many books on astronomy. When not studying the heavens he finds recreation in gardening, golf, and cruising.

Water Surface of Globe.

The portion of the earth's surface that is covered by water, when the lakes and inland seas are included, is three times as great as the dry land area. The surface area of the oceans is 127,000,000 square miles—an area more than 40 times as large as the United States. The ocean waters teem with life. Though thousands of water creatures are known and classified, scientists are continually discovering new life forms in ocean depths. Heretofore dragnets have been mainly depended upon, but there are doubtless many sea animals that elude these trawls.

A Rival Ananias.

On the occasion of one of his public speeches in Wales, Mr. Lloyd-George was introduced to the assemblage by a Welsh deacon. The chancellor is fond of repeating the graceful words of the introduction.

"Gentlemen," said the deacon, "I haff to introduce to you to-night the member for Carnarvon Boroughs. He hass come here to reply to what the Bishop of St. Asaph said about the Welsh disestablishment. . . . In my opinion, gentlemen, the Bishop of St. Asaph iss one of the biggest liars in creation; but, thank God, we have a match for him to-night!"

PIMPLES BROKE OUT AROUND CHIN

Burst and Formed Ugly Scabs. Burning, then Itching. Had to Go Without Shaving for Weeks. Used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. Skin Perfectly Clear.

131 Close St., Toronto, Ont.—"I was troubled with facial eczema for nearly ten years. The first signs were pimples breaking out and then bursting and forming nasty ugly scabs around my chin. Very often the sensation was that of burning, then itching so that I scratched the sore. I had to go without shaving for weeks at a time. I tried many patent remedies but did not find a permanent cure. Every spring and fall the disease appeared at its worst. I sometimes got rid of it for a few months, then it returned as bad as ever.

"About six months ago I received a sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and found great relief after a few applications. I purchased two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and some Cuticura Soap and used them as directed and now my skin is perfectly clear. I can shave with pleasure." (Signed) Wm. MacBean, May 27, 1912.

Not only are Cuticura Soap and Ointment most valuable in the treatment of eczemas and other distressing eruptions of skin and scalp, but no other emollients do so much for pimples, blackheads, red, rough skins, itching, scaly scalps, dandruff, dry, thin and falling hair, chapped hands and shapeless nails, nor do it so economically. A single cake of Cuticura Soap (25c.) and box of Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are often sufficient when all else has failed. Sold by druggists and dealers throughout the world. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post card Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. 43D, Boston, U. S. A.

CONFOUNDING A BRAGGART.

Barber Given a Chance to Carry Out His Threat.

When Louis Napoleon was president of the Second French Republic, the officer in command at Lyons was General Castellane, a veteran whose stern rule kept in check the riotous spirits of that disorderly city.

One of the most boisterous citizens was a barber, who openly boasted that he only waited for an opportunity to rid the city of his stern commandant.

The general heard of the threat, and one afternoon ordered his coachman to drive to the barber's shop. Leaving his carriage, the general entered the shop unattended, took a seat in a vacant chair, and desired the barber to shave him. The astonished braggart performed the operation as well as his nervousness would permit. When he had finished, the general paid him, and said, quietly:

"Monsieur, since you have not availed yourself of the opportunity I have given you to cut my throat, would it not be wise to refrain from uttering threats that you have not the courage to carry out?"

PRACTICAL TRAINING.

A British Under-Secretary Was Once a Stone Mason.

The training that the late Henry Broadhurst, former Under-Secretary of the Home Department in Great Britain, and for many years a leading member of the House of Commons, received in his youth, was certainly not of a Parliamentary nature. Yet, as this story shows, he knew how to turn it to good account.

The son of a stone-mason, Broadhurst followed his father's trade until his thirty-second year, although he occasionally worked as a blacksmith. But during this period of his life he gave evidence of such ability that he was placed in several important offices of trust. He was elected to Parliament in 1880, and six years later Gladstone persuaded him to become Under-Secretary of the Home Department. For a long time Broadhurst refused the post, for he feared that his lack of education might create prejudice against him. Even after he had entered upon his duties, he found it necessary to absent himself from court, for the simple reason that he did not own the proper clothes.

In spite of these handicaps, Broadhurst quickly made his way to the top. Once, in a parliamentary debate that dealt with Oxford University, Broadhurst displayed such intimacy with the university and its buildings, that some one asked him whether he was a graduate of Oxford.

"No," answered Broadhurst, smiling, "but I often had chimneys to repair there."

Ease That Sore Joint Nerviline Will Do It

The Champion Clog and Pedestal Dancer of Canada Tells How to Keep in Trim.

Few men in his profession are better known than Mr. Thomas Hogan, of 27 Fortification Lane, Montreal, who writes:—"To limber up a stiff joint, to remove every sense of soreness from tired muscles I can tell you nothing compares with Nerviline. It is really a wonderful liniment, and I use it continually, simply because I find it keeps the muscles and joints supple and entirely free from pain and stiffness. I earnestly recommend Nerviline to every person that requires to use a strong, penetrating, pain-subduing liniment."

For Rheumatism Nerviline is a wonder; for Sciatica it cures where others fail; for Lumbago, stiffness and cold, nothing surpasses it. Keep Nerviline handy—it's good to take inwardly, destroys internal pains quickly, and is just as good for outward application. Large family size bottle, 50c.; small size, 25c., at all storekeepers and druggists or The Catarrohozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

The Centre of Interest.

Lord Roberts, the great English soldier, beloved by all his countrymen as "Bobs," is so accustomed to being the center of interest on most occasions that he finds in an incident like this one.

A boy's rifle brigade of ten thousand members was to be reviewed at Glasgow by "Bobs." At the last minute, however, Lord Roberts was forced to cancel the engagement; a local notability was hastily substituted, but the managers of the affair thought it only right to notify ticket-purchasers that the famous soldier would not be present.

In one instance they sadly overrated the effect of the announcement. A small youth who was to take part in the parade had come to get two tickets for his father and mother. The manager told him as gently as he could of the disappointment.

The lad did not seem at all affected. "Oh," he said, "it's no Laird Roberts that father and mither are coomin' to see; it's me."

"Excuse me," said the caller, "but do you practice medicine?" "Yes," said the doctor. "Then I must apologize for having intruded. I want somebody who knows his business. I can't let anybody practice on me," said the visitor.

Charles—"I heard the other day that Gerald is going to get married." Edward—"Well, why shouldn't he—he's comfortably well off." Charles—"That's just the point. Why doesn't he remain so?"

Hard on Royalty's Guests.

Dinners grow shorter each season. King Edward was the first to set the cult of the brief dinner, and King George, who, in spite of the greatest care, is still a dyspeptic, cuts them shorter still, as he does not taste half the courses, and consequently it is not etiquette to eat when the King is not doing so.

"Do you mean that girl with the spots on her face?"

Overheard in a Street-Car.
There's a lesson right there!

Little blemishes of complexion, small sores, eruptions, spots, are not only unpleasant to the person afflicted, but are the first thing noticed by other people.

A little Zam-Buk applied at night to spots, eruptions, sores of any kind will do wonders.

Zam-Buk is not a greasy preparation which will go rancid on your dressing table. It is made from healing, herbal extracts and essences. Always pure, fresh and ready for use. Doesn't lose its power. Keeps indefinitely. Healing, soothing and antiseptic all the time. Try it!
